Norway and Hall's Creek

Mr. and Mrs. Belieu, of Myrtle Point, are doing the work on the Ira Wilson ranch while Mrs. Wilson is away.

The score of the baseball game Sunday between Norway and McKinley was 13 to 3 in favor of Norway. A large crowd was in attendance even though the weather was not the best.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Schmidt and Donald drove below Bandon Sunday for a picnic.

The annual gathering of the Myrtle Point Art class was held at Friendly Woods Tuesday. The class has been under the excellent instruction of Mrs. Turner MacDonald for several years. The whole day was spent in sketching, meandering through the woods and, last but not least, eating. The tables were decorated with blue hydrangeas and with the green of the woods serving as a background, the lunch was made most attractive. Those enjoying Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald's hospitality were: Mrs. Geo. Hermann and daughter, Rowena, Mrs. G. L. Ray, Mrs. M. Charneski, Mrs. L. LaPlamme, Misses Anita and Helen Gill, Marguerite Sunstrup, Gladys Latham, Lois Teters, Helen Russell.

Mrs. A. McDonald, Mrs. Mary Breuer, June Lester, Earl McDonald, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCloskey drove to Bridge Monday afternoon and shared Junior MacDonald's birthday cake.

Friends and relatives gathered at the Norway grove Sunday for a picnic in honor of Mrs. Lester Baker, nee Myrtle Herman, of Bakersfield, Calif., and Mrs. Bryant, nee Neta Hermann, of Roseburg. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lett attended from this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jensen returned Monday from a one week business trip south to Chicago.

Bonnie Barton, of Powers, is visiting her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk this week.

Fred Schmidt, Ray Morrison and Ray Guerin are away this week on a hiking trip up in the Eckley country.

Mrs. E. Guerin, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Guerin, Mrs. Mary Holt, Mrs. Fred Lafferty and daughter, Janice, were guests of the Austin family on Coos River Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. King, who have been visiting relatives and friends in this section of the country, left Friday morning for their southern home in Alameda, Calif.

Joe Delsman has finished baling hay at Camas Valley. While there he baled 250 tons of hay.

Miss Dolores Barklow visited over the week end with her grandmother, Mrs. C. H. Butler, who has been in poor health the past few months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Leuthold, of Bandon, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnett at their home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dornath Jr., and son, Clifford, Dorothy Olson, Irene and Stanley Dornath and Louise Bolder drove to Bandon Sunday for a family picnic.

McKinley Notes

The Bush League series ended Sunday with the unbeatable Norway team playing McKinley here. Of course, with our local team we had about as much chance of winning games as Riverton does in the high school football but being the only purely local team in the outfit, we are proud of the showing our gang made and leave it to Someland of Fairview who had such a fine Boy Scout troop, to Gilbert of the Loggers, to Ray Lewis, coach at Norway, or to any other man who has had boys to train, if our idea of having a team to represent the community isn't the best. Every man or boy who wanted to learn baseball or help out was given a chance to play.

Those who came faithfully to practice were regulars. Every one had a chance to play some, no matter how poor he might be. The idea was to play the game fairly and squarely, win or lose. The boys have had some fine compliments on their sportsmanship throughout the season.

Miss Jessie Lawhorn and Miss Alice Mist gave a chicken dinner honoring the baseball team, also the umpire, R. H. Lawhorn; manager, Geo. Glenn; scorekeeper, A. M. Shepherd, and Ivan Mast, the little mascot. The dinner was served at the Lawhorn home Wednesday night.

The So-So club met at the community hall Thursday, instead of at Mrs. Maiden's home as scheduled, on account of Mrs. Maiden's recent bereavements in the loss of her sister, Mrs. Strong. Those present were Mesdames C. O. King, Lyman King, I. J. Bennett, Teddy Bennett, Lee Mast, Nevy Heller, Reuben Brown and Miss Arla Jenkins as visitor.

Plans for the annual bazaar were discussed and it was decided to hold it on the 4th of December with the usual features, a play and, if the audience wished, dancing later.

H. L. Hansen and R. H. Lawhorn were called as witnesses in the C. B. L. Co. vs. Pat Geaney case in Coquille Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mast and his father, "Larkie" Mast, all of Coquille, were out visiting relatives and friends Sunday.

Miss Beulah Jenkins and Miss Isal-bee Stevens, from Lakeside, are visiting with the Conless, Freemans and Benettas for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hickok, of Coquille, came out to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Bennett, Sunday, for berries and a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Frye and infant son returned to Coquille Tuesday, after a two weeks' visit at the George Glenn home. Mrs. Glenn is Ivy's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Marrior and sons, Stanley and Frank, with Jim Elsea and Max Blevins were out to call on Mrs. Minnie Harris at the W. W. Lawhorn ranch. J. Ellis Loreman, the geologist, interested in the Fat Elk oil well, was also out. We wonder if the fact that Mrs. Harris saw the big elk on the old Coos Bay wagon road a short while back isn't what is drawing so many to McKinley in the hope of getting a glimpse of them.

One of them had seven prongs on his antlers but in the excitement she didn't take time to count the other's but it had horns. It has been many years since a band of elk has been seen here.

The genial George has been around lately promising a game Sunday with the "Yinnegan" on the home diamond. He promises it will be one of the most exciting of the season, so anyone interested in real baseball had better be present and get a thrill.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Loebhaug arrived Wednesday night from Azalea to be with their daughter, Mrs. Reuben Brown, for a while. She will go to Coquille where Mrs. Brown is at present.
