Coquille Woman's Club

Met Tuesday Afternoon

The October meeting of the Coquille Woman's Club was held Tuesday afternoon at the Episcopal Parish House. Mrs. J. E. Norton, president, was in charge of the meeting. Several of the chairman made splendid reports on the progress of activities which are under way. Mrs. H. E. Hess, head of the civic committee, told of plans in general for beautifying the Washington School grounds. Mr. Ward, superintendent of schools, had been interviewed by both civic and education committees and assured the ladies of his support in any improvement they might wish to make.

Mrs. R. A. Wernich, chairman of the civic committee, asked that $3.65 be allowed her committee to buy two much needed magazines for the school, American Boy and Child Life. These were mentioned by the superintendent as needed in the School Library. Mrs. Wernich announced the members of her committee as being: Mesdames R. L. Stewart, George H. Chaney, Lyman Carrier and J. A. Lamb.

Mrs. L. Compton, chairman of Library affairs, named her committee: Mesdames O. C. Sanford, George A. Ulett, R. A. Jed, E. A. Walker, C. A. Rietman and Geo. Bryant. In making her monthly report, Mrs. Compton told of her committee's plans for a book campaign, also for a card party which will be held at the Coquille Hotel November 18.

Mrs. Norton announced the Corn Show committee as follows: Mesdames C. V. Smith, J. A. Lamb, H. W. Pierce, J. L. Smith, L. H. Hazard, C. J. Fuhrman, Lyman Carrier. Mrs. Bryant asked the club to enter a float in the parade of which the B. P. W. club has charge.

After all business was attended to Mrs. Norton turned the rest of the afternoon over to the program committee. Mrs. Sanford introduced Mr. C. W. Kline of the United States Forest Service, who gave a very entertaining and interesting talk on "Native Trees." His talk included information on how trees are fed, just what part is the growing part of a tree, how to determine age, etc. He also told of the commercial, unusual and the more common trees. After this interesting talk the Eastern Star chorus sang two numbers, "Trees" and "The Minuet" and at the close Mrs. Covall, accompanied by Mrs. Rietman, sang "Pine Tree," all of which was in keeping with the speaker's subject for the day.

The refreshment committee, consisting of Mesdames Geo. Ulett, E. A. Woodyard, Pearl Ellingsen, Leland Peart, C. A. Rietman and Geo. Chaney, also carried out the idea and served sandwich cut in the shape of trees, these being very attractive. Those attending were Mesdames J. E. Norton, C. J. Fuhrman, H. E. Hess, E. L. Walker, George Leach, R. E. Boober, C. T. Skeels, M. O. Hawkins, C. L. Ward, W. H. Mansell, L. P. Maury, R. A. Jeub, E. A. Walker, E. W. Lorenz, J. W. Miller, F. S. Emery, K. P. Lawrence, Paul Van Scoy, Lyman Carrier, L. Compton, George Bryant, F. L. Greenough, R. A. Wernich, R. B. Rogers, S. V. Epperson, "Paul Walker, Geo. Johnson, H. W. Covall, O. C. Sanford, F. L. Rover and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kline.

Ag Boys Have Wiener Roast

The Ag Wiener Schnitzel Roast sponsored by the Smith-Hughes Agriculture, Coquille, Oregon, was a great success. There was a very good attendance of the "Ag Boys," including the Smith-Hughes instructor, Wm. Cuning. This party was held at the Earl Cross farm, on the Flehtap road. Logs and other debris that had floated into the fields last spring were gathered and a large fire made. Indeed the fire was so big that Mr. Cross had several telephone calls from the city inquiring about the blaze. Games were played until the fire had burned down sufficiently to permit the roasting of the wiener schnitzels.

It has always been the policy of the Smith-Hughes "Ag Boys" to get together for good times like the above and several more parties are planned for the future.

The next big party to be given will be the boys' annual Father and Son banquet. A definite date has not yet been set for the event, but it will be some time early next month.
