

MINOR MENTION

Telling About People and Events in the City and County

Mrs. Chas. Upton was up from Lampa Wednesday and spent the day in town.

Safety First! Use Cow Bell Dairy's Pasteurized Milk and protect your health.

The B. P. W. Club will have a pot-luck dinner in their club rooms on Monday, November 7th, at 6:30 p. m.

There is but one old-time dance on the Corn Show program. It is for Saturday night. None is scheduled for this evening.

A number of the Pioneer Missionary society ladies attended the county Ladies Aid rally of the M. E. church at Marshfield last Thursday.

Henry Vetter was in town Monday from Arago to have his hand dressed. He had cut a chunk out of his left hand with an axe while chopping wood.

A girl's pocketbook was picked up in Coquille yesterday. A fountain pen in the purse was marked "Hazel Harrison." It awaits the owner at the Sentinel.

The Ladies of the Church of Christ will hold a bazaar Friday and Saturday, October 28-29, during the Corn Show, and a cooked food sale Saturday in the Odd Fellows building.

Perry E. Lawrence, who has been in the Veterans Hospital at Portland for the past two or three years, is expected to be home Sunday for a few days' visit at the home of his brother, K. P. Lawrence.

Prof. G. R. Hysop, of the extension service at O. S. C., is here today to act as judge of exhibits at the Corn Show. He will also confer with County Agent Jenkins on the certification of bent grass seed.

Next Monday is the last day on which Bargain Day subscriptions to the Oregonian can be received. To Sentinel subscribers the rate is $4.50 per year for the daily, and $6.50 for the daily and Sunday.

R. M. Knox, county gent of Curry county and 4-H club leader for Coos county, was up here from Gold Beach on Monday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Knox and their baby girl born Oct. 12, at Wedderburn.

Geo. Unsold, Coquille dry goods merchant, has opened a small branch store in a room in the Breakers Hotel at Gold Beach. He made final arrangements for the opening when down there last Saturday.

All straw votes do not point the same way, as we hear of one taken in Coquille this week, at a mixed gathering, which resulted, Hoover 13, Roosevelt 2, Thomas 1. Another matter voted on was the Zorn-MacPherrin bill, which lost by a 14 to 2 count.

So far we have heard of but two sportsmen who secured the bag limit for Chinese pheasants on the opening day—M. J. Hartson and Geo. T. Moulton. Others have had to be content with one, two or three, and all hunters report the birds as apparently quite scarce.

Wm. A. Stewart, popular local man, has become interested in the distribution of the Clark Improved Furnace and has for territory all south of Eugene to the California boundary. He is now going over the territory with the Clark Improved Furnace demonstration car and will spend considerable time in the territory demonstrating the furnace.

Marshal Howell expects to get back on duty tonight as night officer after an enforced lay-off of about 16 days. Some people, seeing Lewis English on duty at night, thought Mr. Howell was taking a vacation. Maybe it was a vacation but not an enjoyable one for he spent two weeks in bed suffering with a severe attack of the flu. He was able to get down town Tuesday for the first time.

Mining Location notices for sale at this office.

Mrs. Jennie Williams, accompanied by two friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Kennedy, arrived here yesterday afternoon from San Francisco for a few days' visit at the J. A. Lamb home and cottage at Bandon. After the Corn Show they will go to Medford, but Mrs. Williams plans on coming back a little later to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Lamb. They all went down to Bandon yesterday afternoon.

Arrivals at County Jail

Harley Jones, arrested here last Monday for possession of liquor, was fined $25 by Justice Stanley. He is serving it out in the county jail at $2 per.

Raleigh Haynes, whose auto struck W. P. Laws on the highway at Davis Slough last Saturday, covering him with hot asphalt and bruising him considerably, was fined $25 by Justice Bolt at Marshfield Wednesday on a reckless driving charge. He has not paid the fine and is in jail.

James Estle Lee, 26, and Bert Overman, a kid who does not look the 16 years he claims, were arrested Wednesday at Bandon, charged with stealing money from the creamery. The older man watched outside while the boy entered the building.

Jas. Triantas was brought over from from Marshfield last night and lodged in jail, charged with burglary not in a dwelling. His bail was set at $100 by Justice Bolt.

Huskies from Alaska

Not in a long time has an outside attraction come to Coquille which has aroused as much interest as did the arrival yesterday morning of Capt. Earl Hamilton and his bunch of huskies from Alaska. There were 17 dogs in the aggregation beside five pups and all were carried in the special car body and trailer in which Capt. Hamilton is making a tour of the United States. He has been in the government employ in Alaska, besides engaging in private enterprises, and is now on his way to Hollywood from where he will go east to Florida, thence up the Atlantic coast, across the continent and home.

Capt. Hamilton had no lecture engagement in Coquille but it did not take long for him to make one with Mr. Combs for his appearance at the Liberty last evening.

He Will Get a Big Vote

Attention is called to the advertisement of J. H. McCloskey, democratic candidate for representative in the legislature from Coos county. Mr. McCloskey is one of the substantial citizens of the Coquille valley, who numbers his friends by the hundreds all over the county. If he goes to Salem in January he will not wear the other legislators out with frequent speeches, but you can rest assured that he will always vote right and in the interest of the people and taxpayers. As honest as the day, a man of good judgment, well liked and one who does not make snap judgment, but considers all angles before he makes up his mind, Coos county can be sure of good representation at Salem if he is elected to serve at the next legislative assembly.

Has Not Promised the Job

George Winchester, republican candidate for county clerk, was a Coquille visitor Monday, and called at the Sentinel office to say that he had made no promises of any kind as to who would be employed in the clerk's office next year in case he is elected. There have been street rumors to the effect that this one or that one is to be named as deputy clerk but Mr. Winchester says he has not made up his mind as to the personnel of the office force and does not intend to until after the election ten days hence. It is a matter to which he is giving no consideration yet.

Alpine Coal delivered in Coquille for $5 a ton, cash. Phone 71. Helmkin & Son.

ATTENTION FARMERS HOME - OWNERS TAXPAYERS

Are you interested in lower and equalized taxes through economy? Charles Doane who seeks the commissionership of Coos County solicits your vote and co-operation in the general election, November 8th, 1932.

Two Days of Fun and Frolic at Corn Show

that they will be present. The contests and tournament will continue both days.

The Cornfield canaries have a very fine program arranged for Saturday evening, to be followed by the cow calling contest, the corn husking contests and the old-fashioned dance, with old-time fiddlers furnishing the music. Participation is without cost.

For the modern dance in Graham's Hall both evenings, jitney prices will prevail.

At the time of this writing the only thing that can spoil the Corn Show is a rain, and we can point to years in the past where the best times were enjoyed in an Oregon drizzle.

Making Extensive Campaign

W. J. Butler, of Eugene, candidate for congress from this district as an Independent, supporting Liberty party principles, was a Coquille visitor last Tuesday, having addressed the Liberty party meeting in the city hall the evening before.

Mr. Butler has travelled 16,000 miles on donated gas during the campaign, in his white car, decorated with a replica of the original Liberty Bell on the front, and says he has not passed up a service station, store, creamery, and but few houses in the six months he has been campaigning.

That a third party candidate stands but little chance in an Oregon district does not seem to dampen his enthusiasm in the least.

Visits After Year's Absence

David Gustavson, of Los Angeles, who is geologist for the corporation which Edward H. Crow heads, and which shipped up a lot of mining machinery a year ago when Doc Fitz Gerald was going to make Coquille the gold center of the world, same in yesterday and will spend about a week in Coos and Curry counties, part of the time on the Rogue fishing. He came up to sell what he could, and ship south the rest of the mining machinery which has been stored in the old Sitka mill west of town.

He says "Doc" skipped out many months ago and no one knows where he is now. The last he heard of Miss Fishbach, she was in Los Angeles, in straightened circumstances.

Candidate for Representative

Jno. G. Mullen, republican candidate for representative from Coos county, and Edgar McDaniel, editor of the Coos Bay Harbor and candidate for re-election as mayor, were here from North Bend, Tuesday. Mr. Mullen was making a trip over the valley, calling on the voters in the interest of his candidacy. Mr. Mullen has a good record as a public-spirited citizen during his more than two decades residence in North Bend and should be sent to Salem he will make a good record there. Coos county is fortunate in having as candidates two men of the type of those who are candidates for that office this fall.

Taking School Census

Keith Leslie, clerk of school district No. 8, began this week the enumeration of children in the district between the ages of four and twenty.

Twenty-one years' experience in surveying and engineering work, one-half of which has been spent in Coos county in various successful projects, is the history of E. L. Vinton, democratic nominee for county surveyor. Mr. Vinton's election will bring to the office a man who is a hard and conscientious worker, as well as one who will see that the men under him produce results. All the surveying and engineering work of the county can be combined under Mr. Vinton's management. (Paid Adv.)

Letter from Fred Von Pegert

Writing from Orland, Calif., to renew his subscription to the Sentinel, Fred Von Pegert, for many years a resident of Coquille, says:

"We have one more cutting of alfalfa to harvest which will make six cuttings this year and then the rush will be over until spring. Everybody here seems to be working but the pay is small."

If the taxpayers wish to save money let them vote for a candidate for county surveyor, who is capable of combining the work of the two or more engineering departments of Coos county. Such a candidate is E. L. Vinton, the nominee of the democratic party. (Paid Adv.)
