

Why buy any second-choice tire when a GOODYEAR costs no more?

The experience of tire-users is that Goodyear Tires give greatest value at every price—every year the public buys MILLIONS more Goodyears than any other make. That's a pretty definite indication of superior value.

But also it's important to get tires of the right type and size for your particular driving. Here's where our Tire Experience helps you save more money. We study your needs, advise you expertly, then expertly apply new tires and shift old ones for you. You'll get lowest cost tire satisfaction by using Goodyears backed by our Tire Experience. Come in, we'll prove to you that you can save money here.

Trade your old tires for new GOODYEAR ALL-WEATHERS

200 Millionth Tire Built by Goodyear September 12th
Greater Volume gives you Greater Value when you buy Goodyears

COQUILLE SERVICE STATION

Phone 133.

Live News From Arago

The Arago Bull Dogs will meet the Lakeside squad at Lakeside Friday, January 13.

Miss Mary Brown, of Seattle, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward.

Mrs. Winnie Paul and Mrs. Everett Lafferty, of Myrtle Point, called on Mrs. Gordon Fleming Thursday afternoon.

Ethel Collier spent the week end at Bunker Hill visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Bloyd.

Basket ball fans in the Arago vicinity were treated to a full evening of basket ball and volley ball Friday evening. The Bridge teams were the opponents. The Bull Dogs won by the one-sided score of 25 to 5. The Junior team also took the lead early in the game, ending with a 30 to 4 score in Arago's favor. The girls' volley ball game proved to be the most interesting of the evening, each side scoring alike but Arago girls finally winning by a score of 18 to 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hampton enjoyed a visit over the week end with their little grandson, Allen Earl Lafferty, of Myrtle Point.

O. H. and L. M. Aasen are improving after a week's attack of influenza. Milo Griffin has been doing chores for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hampton, Mrs. J. D. Carl and Mrs. Naomi Robison attended Pomona Grange at Fairview Tuesday.

The Arago Christian Endeavor was represented at the Myrtle Union meeting at North Bend Sunday by Miss Alice Scott and Rev. J. B. Moomaw.

G. W. Ayers and wife and Miss Ethelyn Root were unable to reach Arago until Wednesday of last week, owing to high water. They had spent the holidays with their folks at Seio and Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lafferty and daughter, Janice, spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Guerin, of Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Miller and daughters, Maline and Colleen, and Miss Winnie Paul, of Portland, returned home Friday after spending two weeks here visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Juliet Munford passed away at the home of her son, Robert Munford, last Wednesday night, following a year's illness. The end finally came following a light stroke. She leaves to mourn her loss, one son, Robert; two sisters, Mrs. Ellen Teters, of Fairview, and Mrs. H. Culver, of Marshfield; and one one brother, Steven Benham, of Marshfield.

News Notes From Powers

The flu has been bad in Powers for the last ten days. Ben Crawford was taken to the Mercy Hospital Tuesday. C. H. Crew is ill at his home. Ray Boulson and son are quite ill and there are perhaps fifty cases all told.

Vic Larsen, accompanied by a brother and sister, were in Powers Wednesday looking after Ernie's property.

The West Coast Telephone Co. has been repairing the Myrtle Point toll line.

Mrs. Lily Johnston, of Port Orford, and Mrs. Lucy Miller, of Gold Beach, were in Powers Saturday for the Carey golden wedding. They are sisters of Mrs. Carsey, and attended the wedding in 1888. Mrs. Ruby Northrup, a daughter, of Port Orford, and a son, Frank, were also in attendance.

Lloyd Wilson, of Coquille, was in Powers Tuesday for the night.

Mrs. Floyd Eaton has been quite ill with the flu.

Ethel Littler, R. N., has returned to her duties as school nurse.

Mehl Lewis, of Grants Pass, was in Powers, in the interest of the Forest Service.

Raymond Ball was brought in from Iron Mt. on horseback Tuesday with the flu. He is very much improved.

Bridge Happenings

Bernard Corpe is able to attend school this week after being absent for a week with tonsillitis.

Mrs. Roy Doney gave a delightful party Saturday afternoon in honor of the eighth birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Betty. After a jolly afternoon of games, Mrs. Doney served cake, punch and candy to the children. Those present were Vivienne and Virginia Lake, Bonnie Jean Billings, Evelyn Morrison, Florence and Ruby Johnson, Evelyn Shields and Betty Doney.

Miss Pearl Roselle, of Broadbent, and her sister, Mrs. Ivan Rose, and children, Harry, Frances and Marvin, of the Tule Lake district, who are visiting at the Roselle home, were dinner guests at the A. O. Hooton home Thursday evening. Miss Dorothy Hooton, of Maet hospital, was also at home for the evening.

Mrs. C. B. Frayer, who has not been well lately, became worse and left Tuesday for Portland, where she will be under the care of a doctor. As the Frayer car was out of commission, Wm. R. Brown took her to Portland in his car.

The Henry Huff family has moved into the house that was formerly occupied by the Bartleys.

Mrs. Elise Lamp and Miss Alma Larkins were guests at the Fred Scofield home the past week end.

The Grangens enjoyed a pot luck supper Friday evening before the meeting. The first and second degrees were given to Mrs. Frank Porter and it is planned to exemplify the third and fourth degrees at the next meeting. A roll call was given "for the good of the order" and nearly every member responded with a helpful suggestion or two for making the Grange work more successful in 1933. The Lecturer, Beth Culver, was congratulated upon receiving a state prize in the recent booster night contest, the prize being a medal issued by the National Grange.

Twin sons arrived last Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Magill.

Mrs. Stanley Lake, who has been confined to her bed since Sunday with pleurisy, is improving now. Mr. Lake, who returned after Christmas to his work at Oakridge, has been quite ill with sinus infection since going back.

Miss Lorraine Shilts, of Glendale, was an over-night guest of Miss Ruth Huff one night the first of the week.

J. W. Barnett, of Arago, filled the pulpit of the community church here Sunday for his brother, Jess, who was unable to come because of illness in his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fish and nephew, Al Smith, were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Culver.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Mrs. May Bright and little granddaughter, Barbara, of Gravel Ford, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Mary Bennett from Friday until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bunch of Rink Creek, were Myrtle Point visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Banks and son, Billie, of Portland, arrived Saturday morning, called here by the serious illness of Mr. Banks' father, J. D. Barklow.

Mr. Williams left Saturday of last week for Oakland, California, to consult a specialist.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Morrison returned Thursday from a business trip to Crescent City.

Mr. and Mrs. Merie Kenyon are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl born early Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ball returned to their home at Cottage Grove after a few days' visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. Hayes.

Mrs. R. H. Lemon returned home from a week's visit in Seattle.

Mrs. Lester Dement returned home from a trip to Corvallis, taking her daughter, Elizabeth, back to school. Word comes from the bedside of S. S. Endicott that he is improving very satisfactorily from his recent operation.

Jean Pressler returned to Golden, Colorado, after a week's visit at the home of his mother, Mrs. Walter Sykes.

Austin Hall returned to Eugene after a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hall, at their home at Bandon.

The Garden Club held its annual exchange party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Russell Tuesday evening. The members brought seeds or bulbs or plants from their own flower gardens for exchange. A pleasing program was enjoyed by those attending.

Miss Mollie Warner returned to Portland after a few days' visit at the home of her mother. Miss Mollie is in nurses' training at the Good Samaritan Hospital.

Mose Endicott left early Saturday morning for the Eckley country where he has employment for a few weeks, repairing fencing on the Guerin estate.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lafferty and daughter, Janice, of Arago, were dinner guests at the T. D. Guerin home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Schroeder returned to their home at Tillamook after a few days' visit with relatives in Myrtle Point.

Mrs. W. E. Lundy, who sprained her ankle some time ago, is getting along nicely but is still using crutches.

Miss Carolyn Schneider came in from Salem Wednesday afternoon called here by the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Chas. Butler.

Bill Mullen, who was hurt several weeks ago at Crescent City in the Morrison Camp, was able to return home Thursday but it will be some time before he will be able to go back to work.

Merle Kenyon has had a relapse from the flu and is confined to his bed again.

Mrs. Myrtle Button entered the Mast Hospital Tuesday for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Northrup, of Spring is just around the corner

Early Garden Seeds Are Here

PEAS:
Blue Bantam
Stratagem
Tall Telephone
Dwarf Telephone

PACKAGE SEEDS
All Kinds
SWEET PEAS
Plant Now

Orchard Grass - Rye Grass - Red Clover
Seed Oats - Vetch
Prices Very Low

FIRST GRADE HAMS

15c lb

Good Quality

BREAKFAST BACON

Medium Weight - - - 18c lb

Extra Choice Grade

SWEET CORN

Per Can - - - 10c

while it lasts

BULK LARD

and

SHORTENING

3 lbs. - - - - - 25c

Flour has advanced

at the mill—our price will not be up for a few days.

Phone 69

Busy Corner Grocery

Free Delivery

Port Orford, spent a few days this week visiting at the home of her sister. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Northrup and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bellshaw and family attended the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Carey at Powers.

W. A. Roberts was able to leave the Mast hospital Wednesday and return to his home in Powers.

The first meeting of Elgin Chapter, O. E. S., for the new year was held in the Masonic hall Thursday evening with the new officers in charge. After the business meeting bridge was enjoyed until a late hour when delicious refreshments were served.

Ferris McRay returned home Friday from Cushman, where he spent a week visiting at the Christensen home.

L. S. Martin returned home from Portland, where he spent the past month in the Veterans Hospital receiving medical treatment.

The Lions Club met in Hamm's Cafe Thursday evening and enjoyed a banquet, after which they held their business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Schneider, of Ilhabe, are in Myrtle Point this week, called here by the death of Mrs. Schneider's mother, Mrs. Charles Butler.

Miss Pricilla Deyoe, who has been confined to her home for two weeks with flu and ear trouble, is able to be out again but will not return to her school work at O. S. C. until next semester.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Rose, of Lakeview, arrived the last of last week, called here by the illness of Mrs. Rose's mother, Mrs. Roselle, of Broadbent, who is in the Mast hospital. Mr. Rose returned home the first of the week but Mrs. Rose remained for a longer stay.

Henry Huntley is suffering from a relapse of the flu and is again confined to his home.

Jas. McCulloch, who has been confined to his home with an attack of flu, is able to be out again.

There will be a basketball game at the high school auditorium tonight between the North Bend and the local teams.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian Church will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. D. Guerin. All members are urged to be present as this is the time for election of officers.

Miss Irene Pratt returned to Mouth after an extended visit in Myrtle Point.

Mrs. N. Raptor returned to her home in Long Beach, after a short visit at the home of her sister, Mrs.

W. R. Oeheltree.

Roy Henry returned home from Reedsport, where he was employed for home time.

Guy Mode is still in the Mast hospital suffering from heart trouble.

Brewster Valley

Brant Taylor, accompanied by Mrs. Julius Benham, were callers in Myrtle Point and Coquille Wednesday.

Kenneth Laird went to Coquille Wednesday where he spent several days receiving medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Benham attended prayer meeting in Myrtle Point Thursday.

Leslie Groat made a trip to Remote Thursday to see his wife, who is ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. Charley Homes, with the flu.

Mrs. Stella Crowley and daughter, Genevieve, spent Saturday in Coquille visiting among relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. William McClure, of Marshfield, spent Sunday and Monday visiting with Mrs. McClure's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Krewson.

Those to enjoy Sunday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Laird were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nickason and two daughters, Betty Jean and Fern Marie, and Mrs. Carrie Nickason.

Mrs. Elmer Wilson spent Friday in Coquille having dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Benham and Albert Christensen attended the funeral services of Arthur Baird at Bandon Sunday.

Mrs. Albert Christensen and daughter, Christina, made a trip to Coquille Tuesday. Miss Christina will receive medical treatment there.

Lester Mayse was a business caller in Myrtle Point Monday, making the trip on the mail stage.

Mrs. Oscar Durell, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Alford, were Myrtle Point and Coquille callers Monday.

Mrs. Zilphia Krewson spent Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Lela Lawhorn, helping quilt.

Mrs. C. M. Wilson, who has had the flu is still confined to her home as a result.

The regular meeting of the Myrtle Leaf club was held at the home of Mrs. Zilphia Krewson Thursday. Everyone present answered roll call by singing their favorite song. New officers were elected. Stella Crowley was re-elected as president, Mrs. Lela Lawhorn vice president and Polly Nickason secretary and treasurer. Anna Lou Taylor was taken in as a new member. It was decided that the club should form a new branch, called the "Ladies Aid," for the help of the poor and needy.

Elmer Wilson had to take the mail stage to Coquille Monday to have some work done on it. He was accompanied by Minor Mead, of Gravel Ford, who is visiting at the E. A. Wilson home this week.

Grant Harry left Sunday for Coquille to see his wife, who is ill at the home of relatives.

McKinley Notes

Mrs. C. A. Miller has been very ill at her home for several days. She suffered another set-back after attending her mother's funeral and was threatened with pneumonia. Dr. R. H. Maet was out to attend her Saturday. Her husband and son, Kenneth, have also been down with hard cases of flu.

Dr. Maet also was called to treat Mrs. Chas. Gill, who is quite ill at her home.

Ira Shields is another of the flu victims at McKinley.

Mrs. R. H. Lawhorn spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alva Brown while the young people attended the Young People's meeting.

Mrs. R. W. Brown was appointed Home Economics chairman in the Grange for the coming year.

Lyman King has gone to Bandon to assist his brother, Elmer, in some trucking contracts. Every bit of work is more than welcome these days.

Ernest Conlee had his car quite badly damaged when a blast went off at the McCarthy camp last Friday. No one was injured.

Mrs. J. H. Freeman accompanied her mother-in-law, Mrs. Chas. Freeman, back to Lakeside for a few days' visit.

The men are busy today (Wednesday) at the community hall tidying up the house and grounds and getting in a wood supply.

Miss Jessie Lawhorn held her last cooking class at the Holmstrom home. Making sandwiches was the lesson for the day. Jessie is proving to be quite a capable teacher and loves the work she says.

Mrs. H. L. Hansen and Miss Lorna Harris drove to Coquille Monday. Mrs. Hansen went to seek medical advice concerning the gall bladder infection that has not seemed to respond to treatment for the last four months.

YOUNG GIRL TAKES IRON GAINS TEN POUNDS

Bertie Grove age 12, was badly underweight. After taking Vinol (iron tonic) she gained ten pounds. It gave her appetite and rosy cheeks. Children like Vinol. Hudson's Drug Store.