SOCIAL NOTES

The Eadrien club ladies enjoyed Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. V. Glaisyer, with sewing as the diversion after luncheon, which was served at one o'clock. Mrs. H. S. Norton was an additional guest that day. The following members were present: Mesdames Earl Nosler, Roy Neal, E. A. Walker, J. E. Axtell, J. L. Aasen and Willard Bosserman.

On Tuesday afternoon at her home, Mrs. Harry A. Slack was hostess to the Study Club group. Luncheon was served at one o'clock with places provided for Mesdames Keith Leslie, C. D. Walker, Luckey L. Bonney, C. A. Rietman, George Jenkins and Raymond Jeub.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Folsom were hosts to the Senior "500" club on Tuesday evening, with the club members entertained at the F. L. Greenough home on the Marshfield highway. The ladies' and gentlemen's prizes were won by Mrs. Ed. Lorenz and Mr. Barton. Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames L. H. Hazard, H. E. Hess, Hal W. Pierce, F. L. Greenough, J. S. Barton, J. E. Paulson, R. A. Wernich and Miss Eleanor Folsom.

The Mothers' Club of the Roy District spent a very pleasant afternoon on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Elmer Shull on the Fishtrap road. The club is planning a play, which will be given in the near future and at this meeting the cast was selected and given their parts. At the close light refreshments were served to Mesdames Irving Willard, Frank Lane, Allie Miller, George Burr, W. E. Cross, Stanley Stevens, Aurora Willard, James Avery, Rock Robison, L. S. Robison, Roy Tenant, Albert Tomlinson, Harry Aber, Don Aber, O. K. Rakestraw, Cora Mackey, C. C. Bonniksen, Thos. Anderson and Miss Ida Oerding.

Misses LaVerne Knife and Carol Young were joint hostesses to an evening party on Wednesday at which they entertained the Lucky Thirteen Girls. The party was given at the H. A. Young home on South Beach street. A variety of table card games were arranged, also several jig saw puzzles, which are quite popular at the present time, furnished ample amusement for the evening. Refreshments were served to the following: Misses Elizabeth Pierce, Helen Robinson, Florence Folsom, Ula Minard, Ethel Davis, Cloris Hatcher, Bonita Huntington, Myrtle Murphy, Ferry Hughes, Yvonne Cross and Robelle Oederkirk.

At the Parish house Wednesday afternoon the Woman's Guild of the Episcopal Church met for their weekly meeting. The Guild ladies are doing relief sewing and anyone who wishes to come and help will be welcome. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. A. J. Sherwood and Mrs. L. H. Hazard served tea to the following: Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, C. T. Selbig, Muri Pettit, E. A. Woodyard, H. E. Hess, R. L. Stewart, M. R. Thomas, W. H. Mansell, J. W. Laird, C. D. Walker, E. L. Vinton, Edward W. Lorenz, Bert Folsom, Geo. Lorenz and Louis Charneki.

Mrs. C. K. Norcott entertained her contract club for dessert luncheon at her home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Vinton held high score and received a lovely prize. Attending were Mesdames R. E. Boober, Jack Le Fevre, J. E. Axtell, Roy Neal, J. E. Paulson, E. L. Vinton and F. C. Hundson.

Mrs. A. B. Collier invited a few friends to her home for an evening which was pleasantly spent in sewing. A no-host lunch was enjoyed later in the evening by Mrs. H. W. Pierce, Mrs. E. M. Kay, Mrs. A. O. Walker, Mrs. R. F. Miller and Mrs. Collier.

Yesterday at the home of Mrs. R. A. Wernich the members of her contract club met with her for dessert luncheon and afternoon which was spent in cards. Present were Mesdames W. S. Sickets, L. H. Hazard, J. A. Lamb, F. L. Greenough, F. S. Emery, Paul Van Scoy, R. L. Stewart, Miss Catherine Wernich assisted her mother in serving.

Pioneer Missionary Society

The Pioneer missionary society met yesterday at the home of Mrs. W. V. Glaisyer for their regular silver tea, which is held the third Thursday of each month. The devotions were in charge of Esta Ellis. A dramatization, depicting missionary work in various fields was given by a group of ladies. Two pleasing vocal numbers were given by Betty Glaisyer, accompanied by Edythe Farr, at the piano.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames P. D. Hartman, J. L. Smith, W. E. Bailey, W. A. Ireland and W. V. Glaisyer, who served dainty refreshments to the following: Mesdames E. Purvance, K. P. Lawrence, Carl Ensele, F. G. Leslie, Birdie Skeels, Esta Ellis, Chas. Oerding, L. Peterson, Lyman Carrier, J. A. Houdyshell, H. W. Pierce, J. L.

"Down With Prices... and Out With Lagging Stocks!"

A drastic order—but necessary to solve our problem. We must make room for new Spring stocks now at our doors and clamoring to get in!

Price tags are already revised—and how! They're shouting VALUE. Their job in this sweeping clearance is to put actual dollars and cents in your pockets! You'll find them on a wide variety of things. On Fall and Winter apparel of many kinds. On discontinued lines! On broken sizes!

Truly great savings—while quantities last, of course! And that won't be long! This town's too-value-wise to let such an opportunity slip by. This mid-winter clearance is an event—and January is dollar-saving time at Penney's!

Anniversary Tea

A splendid program was enjoyed at the Woman's Christian-Temperance Union thirtieth anniversary tea held at the home of Mrs. C. C. Farr, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. P. D. Hartman conducted a beautiful devotional service, using the national slogan as her subject, "Advance, Not Retreat." A review of conditions thirteen years after prohibition was given by a large group of women. A song, "Observance and Enforcement" was sung, followed by a reading by Mrs. Roy Boober, "A Parody on the Night Before Christmas." Mrs. Farr spoke on "Legislation," and emphasized "Advance, Not Retreat." The following resolution was adopted and sent to senators and representatives:

"Whereas, the opponents of the Eighteenth Amendment are proposing to legalize beer and repeal or modify the Eighteenth Amendment and

"Whereas, the effects of beverage alcohol are the same whether it is sold legally or illegally, and

"Whereas, we have no reason to believe the violators of the Eighteenth Amendment would obey the restrictions, which of necessity must be a part of such legislation,

"Therefore, be it resolved, that we ask our United States, our congressmen-at-large, and our own congressman to vote against all legislation intended to nullify, weaken, or repeal the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act, and to vote instead for adequate appropriations for law enforcement and a campaign of education in law enforcement and a campaign of education in law observance.

"We call upon the public today to obey willingly the letter and spirit of the law."

Cake and coffee were served by the hostesses for the afternoon, Mrs. Jas. Richmond, Mrs. Frank Leslie and Mrs. Farr.

The next meeting will be on Friday, January 29, at the Jas. Richmond home. This will be a Children's Farm Home meeting. Come prepared to sew.

Pastors Welcomed Home

A special Welcome Home service was held last Sunday evening at the Four-square Church for the pastors, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Jackman.

The orchestra, under the direction of Tracy Leach, rendered several special selections. A number that greatly enjoyed was "Home Sweet Home," as played in several different countries. The orchestra and choir gave an ensemble number, called "Our Director." Clyde Gage and Ray Peart played a beautiful violin duet. Mr. Jackman reports that the convention this year was the greatest ever held in the history of the church. The great auditorium, seating 5,300, was packed to capacity throughout the convention. The special convention speakers were Dr. Chas. Babcock, nationally known Nazarene evangelist, and Dr. A. P. Gouthie, nationally known Presbyterian.

Knife Hospital Notes

Mr. and Mrs. A. Combs are occupying a room in the hospital, he having undergone an appendix operation last Friday, and she a major operation Monday. Both are doing well.

Mrs. Don Noah, of Powers, brought to the hospital Monday for treatment for flu, was able to return home yesterday.

Mrs. Orvil Weekly, of Myrtle Point, was dismissed from the hospital Sunday, and Mrs. Harry Couper, of this city, was able to return to her home yesterday.
