Baptist Young People's Party

Friday, February 3rd, was the date of the Coos County Baptist Young People's meeting, held at the H. K. Plaep home on the Bandon highway. Dr. St. Valentine and his efficient staff of nurses presided and initiated many ways and wiles of adjusting and mending all ailing hearts.

Many new and interesting games were played, with Phyllis Hall, and Dall Saunders winning the evening's prizes, after showing their skill in playing "Conversation." Dall knew all the latest data about Al Capone and Miss Hall was "all ears" when it was her turn to listen to each enthusiastic speaker.

At a late hour refreshments were served to the following: Yvonne Downs, Wanda Lee Hickam, Katie Plaep, Arlie Aasen, Olive Stewart, Priscilla Miller, Phyllis Hall, Sarah Gibbs, Marjorie McGuffin, Geneva Agostino, Eva Plaep, Wilma Jean Loree, Esta Stewart, Donald Ross, Summer Fish, Dall Saunders, John Leatherwood, Howard Hickam, Russell Martindale, Wallace Cunningham, Roy and Ernest Stewart, Teddy Miller, Herbert and Alfred Plaep, Erwin and Werner Plaep, Mrs. Flora Dunne, John Quick, Mrs. H. Hickam, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Randleman and infant son, Rev. and Mrs. D. Loree and Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Plaep.

B. P. W. Club Announces Convention Committees

The members of the Business Women's club enjoyed a "Pick Up" supper Monday night at their club-rooms, at which time each member turned in the earnings of her dime and told how these earnings had been procured. The sum of $15.50 was turned over to the convention fund in this manner and due to the absence of several members at the meeting, there will undoubtedly be more funds turned over at a later date.

Miss Frances Oddy, deputy in the county clerk's office, and Miss Gloria Getz, nurse at the Knife Hospital, were voted to membership in the club.

Announcement was made that the meeting on February 20 will be held at the Pioneer Hall at 8:00 p. m., with 25c admission charge. Mrs. Gertrude Graves Martin, of Portland who has spent seven years in India, will talk on the "Social and Political Life of India."

The president appointed the following convention committees, for the state convention of the Business Women's clubs to be held in Coquille on May 19, 20 and 21:

Next Week at the Liberty

The greatest number of stam ever cast together in a single picture play in "If I Had a Million," drama centering around an eccentric millionaire who distributes his fortune among nine persons whose names he has picked at random from a city directory. The picture comes to the Liberty Theatre Sunday for three days.

Fifteen movie players of starring rank have roles in the picture, one of the most ambitious undertakings ever to come out of Hollywood.

Boris Karloff, who won outstanding note in the title role of "Frankenstein," will be seen at the Liberty today and tomorrow, in an even more fantastic role as Dr. Fu Manchu in "The Mack of Fu Manchu," based on the Sax Rohmer thriller.

As the uncanny Oriental, Karloff is the center of a formidable combination of intrigue, strange crimes and fiendish punishments. There is, for instance, the mysterious laboratory where Fu Manchu hurls his mad-made lightning and his sinister "death day."

There is the weird torture of the bell, the reverberating notes of which drive men mad. The spectacular Feast of the Mongols, the adventures of the acrobats in the catacombs, the flight into the Gobi Desert and the final Asiatic uprising against the world are other thrilling incidents.

The Emanon Club

A successful meeting of the Emanon club was held last Thursday evening at the home of Miss Alda Sloan. Sewing is a pleasant pastime, as well as profitable, whether making pretty things for gifts, our homes or hope chests, or even darning socks. The girls all kept busy and a new member entered the group. Places were set for the following: Mesdames E. D. McCune, Stella Cribbins, Ethel Jackson, and Misses Gertrude Lambrecht, Lena Williams, Agnes Newton, Gertrude Tway, Edna Robinson and the hostess. All the members regretted that Miss Farrentine Swinney was unable to attend.

The crowd goes where there is good dance music. That's why Graham's Hall is so popular every Saturday night.

Calling cards 100 for $1.50.

SOCIAL NOTES

Neighbors of Mrs. Lloyd Oddy gave her a hearty welcome on Tuesday afternoon of this week when they gathered at her home on South Elliott street to welcome her into their neighborhood and city. Taukanko Club Notes

The Tauk-an-so club was entertained last Thursday evening by Mrs. Vance Weekly, at her home on the Marshfield highway. Cards and sewing made up the evening's entertainment. At a late hour refreshments were served by the hostess to Mesdames Tom Lane, Jr., Jack Leach, Robt. Waggoner, Carl Enesele, Henry Belloni, Wm. Peart, Walter R. Smith, M. Bennett, Jack Caetner, Earl Schroeder, Jack Page, Mart Sherrard, M. McGuffin, Floyd Price and Miss Mary Ann Schroeder. The club will meet February 23rd with Mrs. M. McGuffin at the Louie McGuffin home on Spurgeon hill.

Plague of Beggars

It has been stated that at the latest twelfth-year fair at Madras, the road from the city to the bathing place—a distance of 2 1/2 miles—was lined with religious beggars, sitting shoulder to shoulder. Each had an attendant sitting in front soliciting alms for his master.

Venerable Immigrant

Probably the oldest immigrant to arrive in this country among the colonial settlers was John Young (a name to offset his fame), born in the island of Burt, near Londonderry. He was ninety-five when he landed in Boston.

Blind Muezzins

In ancient Persia the muezzins were usually selected from among the blind, in order that they might not see what was occurring in the private lives of the Faithful. A minaret gave more than "a bird's-eye view."

Louisiana Parishes

Parishes in Louisiana correspond to counties. The word parish is used to designate a district separated and defined by local limitations for civil and political purposes.

Grange Endorsements

The Grange Council, which met here Wednesday afternoon, has finished its program of endorsing legislative matters and will not meet again until the fourth Saturday in May.

This week the Council expressed opposition to the County Unit Plan for schools, and approved the following bills:

House bill No. 9, the telephone bill; house bill No. 3, the state bank bill;
