

TRADE IN your old tires . . . for new 1933 GOODYEAR ALL-WEATHERS

DON'T drive on thin, risky tires. With tire prices so low it doesn't pay to take chances. Come in—get our liberal offer for your old tires. We'll do everything we can to help you get those thin, risky tires off your car. We'll make a proposition to you on the world's greatest tire for safety, long life and economy—the Goodyear All-Weather. Don't take chances on thin, risky tires. Come in—see us.

Coquille Service Station

Phone 133

Live News From Arago

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Shaw are enjoying a visit with Mr. Shaw's mother, Dr. Mattie B. Shaw, of Ashland. Misses Laura Milani, Lois Schroeder, and Pricilla Hickam were week end guests of Misses Yvonne and Lodema Cross.

Mary Robison was able to return to school Monday, after a few weeks' absence following an appendicitis operation.

Mr. Filmore and son, Robert, returned to their home in Sacramento, Calif., Friday after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barnett.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Sneed and family, of Marshfield, visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lillie and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Doyle Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister returned home from Portland Saturday. They brought with them Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Little and children. Mrs. Little is a sister of Mrs. McAllister. On Sunday John Haberly, a brother living in Portland, stopped over for the day and they, in company with Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Aasen, went to Bandon and spent the day with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. Haberly. Mr. and Mrs. Little returned home Monday.

Melba Purser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Purser, returned home Tuesday from the Mast Hospital, having undergone an appendicitis operation last week.

The Arago Bulldogs met another defeat Thursday night when they played the Powers team at Powers. Arago started out in the lead, converting five foul shots in the first quarter and two field baskets, making nine to Powers' three. In the second quarter Powers had several lucky breaks and built up a 19 to 14 lead. They were still five points in the lead at the end of the third quarter. Arago got going in the last quarter and tied the score 28 to 28, but Powers, with a few lucky throws, again took the lead and won by a 36 to 31 score. The girls' game was in Arago's favor 21 to 5. The Independent game was also in Arago's favor.

Misses Lodema and Yvonne Cross, Pricilla and Irene Hickam, Iola Robison and Leola Robison were entertained as dinner guests of Miss Lois Schroeder Sunday.

Word was received last week that a ten-pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fish, of Culver, Oregon, February 23. They have named him Donald Robert. Mr. and Mrs. Fish were formerly of Arago, having recently moved to Culver.

The Ladies Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Gus Schroeder Friday afternoon. This being World Prayer day, the program was in keeping with the day, with a few special numbers to vary the program. Rev. E. G. Ranton, of Myrtle Point, who is ever willing to help out with his violin, played several selections. Misses Jean Watkins, Iris Barklow and Rohama Stinson sang a special song. Those present were Rev. J. S. Root and wife, of Grenada, Calif., Rev. Mr. Ostrander and wife and Rev. E. G. Ranton, of Myrtle Point. Mesdames G. W. Ayers, S. L. Lafferty, Alma Halter, Adrian Halter and son, George Allen, Gordon Fleming and son, Donald Gordon, Ernest Watkins, Fred Lafferty, Everett Lafferty and son, Allen Earl, Norman Halter and Norman Jr., C. E. Schroeder, J. S. Root, C. A. Keltner, E. J. Myers, Wayne Woodward, Marvin Shaw and daughter, Patty, J. L. Burtis, Albert Gulestrom, Naomi Robison, J. D. Carl, Ernest Weibe, Stanley Halter, David Root, Misses Rohama Stinson, Iris Barklow, Jean Watkins and Frieda Schroeder and the hostess.

The Arago grade boys were defeated for the first time this season Friday when they played the Myrtle Point Junior squad at Myrtle Point. The Junior team led by a few points throughout the game, which ended in the final score of 16 to 13 in Myrtle Point's favor. They will play the return game Friday, March 10, at Arago.

The Coos River-Arago game Friday was the most important game of the season for both teams. Arago started out with a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Coos River managed to score two field baskets in the next quarter to Arago's one, making a 9-4 score at the half. Arago was well in the lead with 16 to 8 in the third quarter. Coos River scored but were unable to overcome the lead of the Bulldogs. The final score was 19 to 16. Christensen, star guard for Coos River, was unable to play, being crippled from a game the night before. As a result of this game Coos River was eliminated from the county tournament being held this week. The lineups were for Coos River: Bjerke and Edwards, forwards; Brunell, center; Schultz and Russell, guards; substitutions, Christensen, Smith, Oxenrider and Morgan. Arago: Currie and Collier, forwards; Patrick, center; M. Griffin, R. Griffin, guards; substitutions, Schroeder and McAllister.

Mrs. Stanley Halter entertained as guests Monday Rev. and Mrs. John Root, of Grenada, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodward and son, Gerald, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Myers enjoyed Sunday afternoon on the beach at Bandon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Lafferty, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lafferty and Willie Strong were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lafferty Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carl and sons, Herbert and Wallace, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bender, of Norway Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Collier received a bad cut with the axe on the left wrist Monday. It required three stitches to close the wound.

As a result of the game at the Army in Marshfield Friday evening when Arago defeated Coos River team 22-13, Coos River was eliminated from the county tournament and Arago went to Port Orford Saturday to play in the sub-tournament. They met and defeated the Bandon squad, thereby entitling them to play in the district tournament at Marshfield this week-end. They drew Coquille as their opponents in the second game. A basket dinner will be held at the Arago community church Sunday in honor of Rev. J. S. Root and wife, who are visiting here from Grenada, Calif. Everyone is welcome.

Chas. Schroeder is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carl.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tomlinson, of Coquille, have rented the Chas. Genzoli place and intend to run a large dairy herd. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Delman, who had been on the place for several years, have recently moved to Coos River. It is a 75-cow dairy ranch.

Calling cards 100 for $1.50.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Morrison returned Thursday evening from a trip to Salem.

N. G. W. Perkins entered the Mast hospital Saturday for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burnett, of Bandon, visited at the W. W. Deyoe home the last of the week.

Miss Melba McCoy, of Coquille, visited over the week-end with her friend, Miss Lola Ray.

Mrs. Roselle was able to leave the Mast hospital Wednesday afternoon and return to her home in Broadbent.

Mrs. Walter Huff returned home the first of the week from Portland, where she spent a few days with her daughter, Marjory, who is receiving medical treatment in the Shriners' Hospital.

Mrs. J. H. McCloskey returned to Salem after a short stay in Myrtle Point. She came to attend the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Wagner.

Mrs. Claude Moon is confined to her home with illness. Miss Mary Harris is taking care of her.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Handerson, of Sumas, Washington, will spend several months at the home of Mr. Handerson's grandmother, Mrs. Leola Handerson.

Mrs. Reuben Hartley returned to her home in Salem after a short visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Katie Arnold.

Mrs. Al Goodman returned to her home in Oakland, after a week's visit at the home of Mrs. Mann.

Miss Frances Fearnley and her friend, Miss Katherine Masten, returned to Eugene after spending the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fearnley.

M. Charneski returned home from a business trip to Illabe.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Schlies returned to their home in Stayton, Oregon, after a several weeks' visit with relatives in Myrtle Point.

Friends of Miss Velma Hamilton received word that she has been elected president of her sorority at the U. of O., which entitles her to attend the national convention of this sorority to be held in Massachusetts in the early summer. Miss Hamilton will also visit relatives in Chicago and will attend the World's Fair there.

Mrs. L. L. Sumerlin is still in the Mast hospital. She is reported improving but will not be able to return home for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pearson have moved on to a ranch at Myrtle Creek in Douglas county. They have many friends here who wish them much success in their new home.

Miss Lois Ray has accepted a position as night nurse in the Mast hospital. Miss Dorothy Hoodin, who has been night nurse for some time, returned to her home at Bridge and will attend business college in the near future.

A large crowd enjoyed the benefit card party of the Masons and Eastern Star members Friday evening at the Masonic Hall.

Miss Esther Guerin was able to leave the Mast hospital Friday afternoon and return to her home. She is recovering from an emergency operation for appendicitis.

R. C. Dement, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Fearnley, is slowly improving.

John Watzling, of Roland Creek, is spending a few days in town this week.

W. R. Endicott returned to Alturas, California, after a short visit with friends in Myrtle Point.

Mr. Tomlinson, of Arago, was a Myrtle Point business visitor Wednesday. Jack Carey, of Marshfield, visited relatives in Myrtle Point the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hayward, of River-ton, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Snyder.

Friendly Class Surprise Member

Tuesday afternoon the Friendly Class of the Pioneer Church celebrated Mrs. Alex Peterson on the occasion of her birthday. The class met at the parsonage and proceeded in a group to the Peterson home. The affair was in the nature of a surprise and Mrs. Peterson was completely nonplused but was soon able to extend them a hearty welcome. It was a happy coincidence that the birthday of Mrs. James Richmond occurred on the same day and although not a member of the class she was included as an honor guest. The afternoon passed pleasantly with sewing, conversation and music and later the company sat down to a dainty collation of which two beautiful birthday cakes were the center of attraction. Covers were laid for Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Richmond, the honor guests, and Mesdames W. E. Thompson, E. Purvance, Emma Martindale, G. H. Tillman, A. T. Morrison, Birdie Skeels, R. E. Boober, R. B. Rogers, Henry Belloni, J. A. Houdyshell, B. C. Minard, Geo. Wilkins and Mrs. F. G. Leslie, leader of the class, and other guests including Mesdames P. D. Hartman, Geo. Maas, R. Maas, Clyde Minard and Misses Eleanor and Hester Peterson and Margaret Purvance.

There Has Been No Moratorium Declared

On Your Appetite

and to satisfy it you must eat

We are prepared to take care of your requirements from Soup to Nuts.

If you have anything that looks like circulating medium from Twenty Dollar Gold pieces to Checks on Swift & Co. or Warrants, bring them in and perhaps we can make a trade. Our goods and our conversation are both of the best and we'll enjoy meeting you.

Come and let's support the administration and do something.

Phone
69

Busy Corner Grocery

Free
Delivery

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. L. W. Oddy was hostess to her Thursday sewing club at a pot luck luncheon at her home on South Elliott, yesterday afternoon. This is a club of which Mrs. Oddy was an active member while living in Marshfield. Mrs. Lloyd Rosa, of Coquille, was an extra guest besides the regular members: Mesdames Marvin Lyons, W. W. Langworthy, Franklin Birch, Richard Burgwald, A. B. Woodworth, R. C. Dunham, Geo. Bradburn, David Nelson, Paul Morgan, J. Lee Brown and Howard Savage, all of Marshfield.

For the pleasure of Mrs. L. P. Branstetter, Mrs. L. Prescott Branstetter and Miss Sybil Walker, of Capetown and Ferndale, California, and in order that they might have a little visit with more of their friends in their short stay in Coquille, Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman invited a few ladies to her home for luncheon and afternoon on Monday of this week, with covers laid for the three honored guests and Mesdames F. L. Greenough, R. A. Wernich, L. W. Oddy, J. S. Barton, J. A. Lamb, Emma Lyons, Paul Van Scoy, J. E. Norton, Leo J. Cary, and Mrs. Marvin Lyons, of Marshfield.

On Sunday Mrs. Marvin Lyons, of Marshfield, entertained with a dinner party at which she invited relatives, in honor of her daughter, Mrs. L. Prescott Branstetter, Mrs. L. P. Branstetter and Miss Sybil Walker, who left Thursday morning for their home at Capetown, after a few days' visit in Marshfield and also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lamb here in Coquille. Motoring over from Coquille to enjoy the day together Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lamb, Mrs. Emma Lyons, Fred and Rolfe Fuhrman.

A pot luck luncheon was enjoyed yesterday at the home of Mrs. Paul Van Scoy, at 433 Knowlton avenue, with covers laid for Mesdames O. C. Sanford, J. L. Smith, F. L. Greenough, Bert Folsom, H. A. Young, W. S. Sickels, J. A. Lamb, Nels Osmundson, R. A. Wernich, Lyman Carrier, H. W. Pierce, M. O. Hawkins, L. H. Hazard and C. J. Fuhrman.

The O. D. O. club ladies are being entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Sherwood on East Third street, at which time she included a few extra guests: Mrs. J. R. Bunch, Mrs. C. W. Gano, Mrs. L. P. Sherwood and Mrs. John Jayes. Members attending were: Mesdames

Lee Hand, Guss Tillman, Fred Kunz, B. B. Sanders, H. G. Frey, Grant Wilcox, and L. A. Christensen. During the afternoon the ladies sewed and some worked on the jigsaw puzzles. About four o'clock delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. H. S. Norton entertained her evening bridge club on Monday at her home on the Cunningham road. Mrs. James Watson was an additional guest that evening. Members attending were Mesdames M. J. Hartson, A. B. Collier, George Johnson, Fred C. McNelly, E. M. Kay and James Brady.

Mrs. Lafe Compton and Mrs. F. S. Emery entertained with a tea on Monday at Mrs. Compton's apartment in the Coquille hotel, complimenting Mrs. George A. Ulett, who recently returned with Mr. Ulett and their son, George, from a ten weeks' visit in the east and abroad, and Mrs. Lloyd Brooks, of Portland, who is a guest of Mrs. Compton for a month. Mrs. Brooks has made previous visits to Coquille and has many friends both here and in Marshfield. At the delightful affair officers of Beulah Chapter of the Eastern Star and a few additional guests were included.

Mrs. Theodore Clinton, whose home is on the Myrtle Point highway, was hostess to her bridge club for desert luncheon yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Rickman carried away the high score prize for the afternoon play, while Mrs. Wilson received the consolation. For their next meeting, which will be in two weeks, Mrs. Barnes will entertain. Attending were Mesdames C. P. Zumwalt, Joe Knight, George Johnson, E. L. Wilkison, Richard Barnes; Mrs. Ray Rickman, of Myrtle Point; Mrs. Herman Tedsen and Mrs. Henry Detlefsen, of Norway.

St. James Episcopal Guild ladies met Wednesday afternoon at the Parish house with Mrs. Pettit and Mrs. Selbig as hostesses. In attendance were Mesdames E. A. Woodyard, Annie J. Robinson, Jas. Watson, E. L. Vinton, George Lorenz, Edw. W. Lorenz, Chas. Hodgdon, W. H. Mansell, Bert Folsom, Lloyd Rosa, C. J. Fuhrman, Nels Osmundson, L. H. Hazard and Geo. W. Taylor, Sr.

The Needle Workers club members enjoyed yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank F. Schram at which time conversation and sewing were the diversions. Refreshments were served later in the afternoon to Mesdames Ralph Taylor, W. D. Simons, Frank Pook, Geo. Gilman, Fred Hickok, E. C. Yarbrough, C. C. Bonniksen, Josh Ruble, W. E. Cross, Swain Donsted, Ray Simpson. On the same afternoon Mrs. B. A. Davis, mother of Mrs. Schram and who lives near her daughter, entertained at her home several mothers of the club members, while their daughters were enjoying the afternoon with Mrs. Schram. They also were served refreshments at a late afternoon hour. Present were Mesdames Sam Arnold, Sr., T. C. Zosel, John McCue, Allen McLeod, and Mrs. Sanders.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Hudson were hosts at their home to Mrs. Hudson's contract club members at which time they also included the husbands, making guests for three tables. Mrs. Hudson served a delicious lunch at the close of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hal W. Pierce were extra guests besides the regular members: Mesdames C. K. Norcott, Claire Gray, R. E. Boober, J. E. Paulson and Oliver Spire.

At the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Rietman Wednesday evening members of their dinner club were very enjoyably entertained, starting the evening with a seven o'clock dinner and followed by bridge, with Mrs. Bonney and Mr. Slack winning high score prizes. On the dinner table and about the rooms were bouquets of daffodils and greens. Covers were laid for Messrs. and Mesdames J. Arthur Berg, Luckey L. Bonney, Harry A. Slack, Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Gant, of Marshfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Muri Pettit, who were extra guests for the evening.

Mrs. A. E. Bradford was hostess to guests for two tables, at luncheon and contract bridge, which followed, at her home on East Third street Wednesday afternoon of this week.

Those enjoying Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Jean Young were members of "Strictly Fems" bridge club, with the following attending: Misses Avis Hartson, Marietta Hufford, Fredah Baxter, Harriet Gould, Kathleen McClintock, Beatrice Morris, and Marvin Jane Hawkins. The prize for the evening was won by Miss McClintock.

See "George in a Jam," at the Library, April 4.

Calling cards 100 for $1.50.