

TRADE IN your old tires for new 1933 GOODYEAR ALL-WEATHERS

DON'T drive on thin, risky tires. With tire prices so low it doesn't pay to take chances. Come in—get our liberal offer for your old tires. We'll do everything we can to help you get those thin, risky tires off your car. We'll make a proposition to you on the world's greatest tire for safety, long life and economy—the Goodyear All-Weather. Don't take chances on thin, risky tires. Come in—see us.

Coquille Service Station

Phone 133

Live News From Arago

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Collier and children and Mrs. G. A. Collier motored to Englewood Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Henry Collier's mother, Mrs. Roy Douglas.

A large crowd turned out Tuesday evening, to enjoy the thrills of the "Yellow Shadow," presented by the high school students at the gymnasium. The pistol shots, weird sounds and the disappearance and reappearance of members of the cast kept the audience in a nervous strain throughout the play. The proceeds went to the Boys Athletic association to help defray the expenses of their trip to Ashland. The characters were: Nell Travis, housekeeper, Joan Milani; Herbert Manis, hero, Freddie Milani; Mr. Wright, lawyer, Price Schroeder; Mildred Marvin, heiress, Ethel Collier; Hazel Wayne, 32 and psychic, Ruth Keltner; Alice Perkins, friend of Mildred, Leola Robinson; Miss Jennie Steel, coroner, Lola Robison; Sheriff MacKlin, county sheriff, Farm Patrick; Jed Travis, a trifle off, Lee Collier; Wong Song, a Chinaman, Willie Sinko; director, E. E. Root.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cusic spent Sunday at Parkersburg with Mr. Cusic's mother.

Sam Root, of Grenada, Calif., will drive up Saturday for his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Root, who have been visiting friends and relatives here the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Watkins, accompanied by A. C. Hicks and children, Marie and Bobbie, motored to North Bend Sunday and visited Mrs. Hicks, who is in the Mercy hospital there following a major operation last week. She is recovering very satisfactorily.

Mrs. S. C. McAllister is a victim of the flu this week.

The Arago boys played one of the best games of the season at the tournament Thursday evening, with Coquille as their opponents. It brought to the minds of many the final game of the tournament a few years ago, when Arago and Coquille battled for the honors of the county, Arago winning by one point in the last few seconds of play. The game Thursday night ended in much the same way, only Coquille was the winner, 35 to 34.

The grade boys were defeated by the Myrtle Point Scouts, 16 to 17, Friday evening.

Mrs. Dan Miller has as guests this week Mrs. Belle Vosberg and Elsie Royer, of Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Randleman and family, of Myrtle Point, have rented Mrs. Sarah Barklow's place and are moving down this week. Mrs. Barklow is living with her sister, Mrs. Ralph Noah, of Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ayers and Miss Gertrude Borgard attended the rural meeting held at the Myrtle Point grade building, for the benefit of rural teachers, last Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Root, of Grenada, Calif., who have been visiting friends and relatives in Arago and vicinity the past three weeks are returning home Saturday. A group of about fifty friends and relatives enjoyed a potluck dinner with them Sunday after church services at the gymnasium.

Mrs. Minnie Clinton, of Coquille, returned home Sunday after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Clinton.

Dr. Mattie B. Shaw returned to her home in Ashland Sunday. She spent the past week here visiting her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Shaw.

Prof. G. W. Ayers left with the basketball boys for Ashland Wednesday morning to attend the Southwestern Oregon tournament to be held there this weekend. They carried away the honors there last year and have high hopes of doing as well this year. Those going were Currie and Collier as forwards, Patrick as center, M. Griffin and R. Griffin as guards, Schroeder and McAllister as subs. J. L. Burtis accompanied them.

Bridge Happenings

The Glenn Pigsley family, who had resided for some time on Rock Creek, moved last week to Myrtle Point.

Mrs. Elsie Lamp and Miss Alma Larkins were business visitors in Marshfield Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Culver and children, Lynn, Tommy and Edson, and Mrs. Lucy Culver were entertained at dinner Sunday at the Fred W. Corpe home.

All of the teachers and a large number of students attended the funeral of Don Zinn in Myrtle Point Tuesday afternoon. Don was killed almost instantly Sunday when he fell from a tall tree, while on a hike through the woods with a group of friends. He was twelve years old and was a member of the eighth grade class of the Bridge school. The funeral was conducted by T. B. MacDonald and interment was at Norway. The pall bearers were high school boys, while his 8th grade classmates were honorary pall bearers. The large crowd at the funeral and the profusion of flowers testified to the esteem in which he was held.

Mrs. Wm. R. Brown attended the teachers' meeting in Myrtle Point Saturday. She was accompanied to town by Mrs. Clarence Billings and daughter, Bonnie Jean, who visited at the home of Mrs. Billings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Houser.

The Wm. Norton family has moved here from Curry county and is living for the present in the Shields house on Salmon gulch.

Ionella Curtiss will have charge of the Christian Endeavor meeting next Sunday evening, the subject of which is, "What is Jesus' Estimate of Human Life?" The C. E. is planning a sunrise service for Easter morning, to be held outdoors if the weather is favorable, and a program will be presented at the church in the evening, preparations for which are under way.

R. A. Cribbins who has been in poor health for a long time has been much worse lately.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace G. Evernden are leaving this week for Standish, Calif., where Mr. Evernden will have employment on a dairy ranch.

Mert Wellman and Fred Williamson, from southern Washington, were over-night guests at the James Morrison home last week.

G. W. Scott again filled the pulpit of the community church here Sunday and Monday evening.

Miss Lottie Williams, of Portland, who has been visiting the past week with her brothers, Lewis and Norman Williams, in Myrtle Point, was a dinner guest Wednesday at the home of her uncle, W. A. Lett. She also called at Hooton's Haven.

Calling cards 100 for $1.50.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Mrs. Mary Bennett has returned home from Gravel Ford, where she has been helping care for her brother, F. S. Bunch.

Miss Lottie Williams, of Portland, arrived home last week and will spend several weeks at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Williams.

Miss Aileen Dunham returned to her home after spending the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jelling.

Miss Zona Kelley and Paul Preston returned to Portland, after spending the week-end at the home of Miss Kelley's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bunch, of Rink creek, were Myrtle Point visitors Saturday.

Dr. Reynolds, of Eugene, visited his daughter, Mrs. Gant, over the week-end.

Mrs. Ralph Kring was hostess to two quilting parties recently. One was given last Friday afternoon when Mrs. Theodore Clinton, Mrs. John Arnold, Mrs. John Belloni, Mrs. Bud Emery and Mrs. Florence Guerin were guests. The other was on Monday afternoon of this week, the guest list including Mesdames R. Lemon, John Arnold, John Belloni, Bud Emery, A. C. Chase, W. Wolridge, Florence, Guerin, M. Charneski. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of each afternoon's needlework for the hostess.

Geo. Parker has charge of the Moon store during Mr. Moon's absence, while he is in Portland receiving medical care at the Veterans Hospital.

Mrs. L. A. Braden returned to her home in Hubbard after spending two weeks here helping care for her father, R. C. Dement, who has been ill with pneumonia.

Miss Gladys McCormack returned to her home in North Bend after a few days' visit with her friends, Mrs. A. Sawyer.

Miss Bessie Bunch arrived home last week from Paradise Valley Sanitarium and will help care for her father, Elder F. S. Bunch, who is critically ill at his home at Gravel Ford.

Mrs. John Arnold was able to be over town Friday from her new home in West Myrtle Point. She has been having an attack of flu.

Mrs. Dolly Barre and daughter returned to their home in Petaluma, California, after a few days' visit in Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weekley have moved from Bridge to their home in Myrtle Point on C street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Rose returned to their home at Tule Lake near Klamath Falls, after a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. Rose's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roselle, at Broadbent.

W. H. Bunch arrived home Tuesday evening from Southern California. He had been spending the winter at the home of his son, Elder T. G. Bunch, at Loma Linda, Calif.

Arthur Bennett is confined to his home this week with an attack of the flu.

Viola Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoffman, entered the Mast Hospital Thursday and submitted to an appendicitis operation. She is reported as getting along nicely.

Mrs. Claude Moon was able to leave the Mast hospital Sunday and return to the home of her father, N. G. W. Perkins.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mrs. L. Clinton Wednesday afternoon. After the usual business meeting, refreshments were served and a social time spent together.

Mrs. Frances Guerin entertained at Sunday's dinner for Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Stover, Ray Morrison, Luke Pierson and Roy and Katie Guerin.

Mrs. L. L. Sumerlin, who has been in the Mast hospital the past two weeks, submitted to an operation Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dennison went to Portland the last of the week to visit relatives. They returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. W. A. King entertained at a quilting party Monday afternoon at her home on the Roseburg road. The guests were Mesdames W. W. Deyoe, Cora Mulkey, Lizzie Adams and the hostess. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCloskey returned home Friday after a two-months' stay in Salem, where Mr. McCloskey attended state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Laird and Marguerite were Norway visitors Saturday.

News Notes From Powers

The road work was started again Monday morning, after being closed but a few days. It is the understanding that this work can only be continued until the middle of the week.

Mrs. Harold Summers is ill at the Mast Hospital in Myrtle Point where she has been for several days.

Mrs. Olin Lay who has been ill with the flu is able to be up, and her son, Pay, has pneumonia. He is better at the present time, (Wednesday.)

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Lapp were at Coos Bay Monday, attending the funeral of the little Chard girl.

Mrs. Hazel Lewis, who has been ill, is now able to be down town.

The Juniors gave a dance in the gym Saturday night and the unem-

Fresh Vegetables Supply Increasing and Quality Improving

FRESH ASPARAGUS - GREEN ONIONS - RADISHES
GREEN PEPPERS - TOMATOES - CELERY - LETTUCE
NEW POTATOES - CAULIFLOWER - BUNCH TURNIPS
CARROTS - PARSNIPS - FRESH RHUBARB

Phone Orders Given Careful Selection

WELLMAN COFFEE
Fine Full Flavor—Vacuum Packed
1 lb can 33c

DOG FOOD
Gold Cup or Bench Brand
3 cans 25c

DATES
2 1-lb Cellophane Bags
Only 15c

Fancy Florida GRAPEFRUIT
Large Size
3 for 25c

For the maker of Light Bread we recommend

CUPID FLOUR

Make no mistake—This is

Better Flour

For fifteen years we have been selling this High Grade Flour to Coquille Valley's best Bread Makers. There is a reason. It's Quality—always the same. When you use Cupid you take no chance, because if you are not satisfied with results we refund your money. It has to be the best. IT IS THE BEST.

Phone
69

Busy Corner Grocery

Free
Delivery

played gave a dance in the Liggett garage. A good crowd attended both dances.

The Senior Ball will be Saturday evening, March 25th, at the gym.

Mrs. Dot Miller is visiting at the home of Mrs. Clyde Brewster and Dick Smith.

The fill at the new bridge below Powers is almost completed, the bulldozer and scraper are working every day. The road is still open.

Allison Roberts, who has been seriously ill, is able to be in the store again. Mrs. Roberts is very much better. Helen Hughes, of Myrtle Point, is nursing her.

The Coos Bay Lumber Co. is clearing the road to Eden ridge. The mountains are still covered with snow.

Brewster Valley

Carl Laird and Kenneth Taylor are hauling myrtle wood timber to Marshfield. They take turns on the trip.

Paul Bunch, of Gravel Ford, was a caller in the valley Sunday.

Clyde Lett, of Yakima, Wn., who has been visiting at the E. A. Wilson home returned to Myrtle Point Saturday.

The regular meeting of the Ladies Myrtle Club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stella Crowley. Roll call was answered by each member giving the meaning of her name. It was decided that the club here would go Thursday to McKinley where they had been invited to spend the day. Those to enjoy the delicious luncheon of fruit salad, cake, sandwiches and coffee were: Mrs. Elsie Hicks, Mrs. Belle and Mrs. Daisy Laird, Mrs. Flossie Wilson, Miss Florence Mead, Mrs. Mildred Benham, Mrs. Zilphia Krewson, Mrs. Hilda Durell, Mrs. Doris Ackerman, Mrs. Phoebe Harry and the two hostesses, Mrs. Stella Crowley and Mrs. Florence Groat; visitors being Eloise Crowley and Eloda and Velma Krewson.

Those to spend Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Krewson were: Fern and Betty Nickason, Virginia Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Benham, Polly Nickason and Florence Groat and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hicks and son, Claude, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Laird spent Saturday in Coquille on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Christensen and daughter, Christina, made a business trip to Marshfield Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Baker and daughter, Wanda, from Langlois, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perley Crowley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson and children, Charles and Burton and Minor and Florence Mead were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mead, of Gravel Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bridges and son, Jackie, spent Thursday in Coquille.

Kenneth Laird has been acting on the jury at Coquille the past week.

Severt Iverson, of Gravel Ford, was a Sunday caller at the Krewson home, where he purchased some calves.

Miss Genevieve Crowley attended teachers' institute held at Myrtle Point Saturday.

The cast for the play, "The Spite Fence," is giving a free dance here Saturday at the community hall. The music will be furnished by the Gravel Ford orchestra.

The students in the local school are taking up the study of birds and are making bird houses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Laird and family spent Tuesday visiting in Coquille.

Jimmy Laird made a business trip to North Bend Tuesday.

Mrs. Mayre Laird has been quite ill at her home with spinal trouble.

News From Lee Section

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Miller and family, Miss Phyllis Hall, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Oddy and family, all of Coquille, and Milton Schroeder, of Myrtle Point, spent Sunday visiting at the Lloyd Leatherman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Norland Gant and Miss Lois Gant visited Wednesday evening and Thursday at Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Crosby's. Thursday Mrs. Gant and Lois visited the Gravel Ford ladies' club, returning home that evening.

Miss Thelma Parry, of Broadbent, has spent a few days' visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ben Gant.

Miss Olga Sandine and Miss Cora Bullock attended the teachers' institute in Myrtle Point last Saturday.

The Lee School has a new Victrola. The school published a paper and charged each pupil two cents a week to raise funds in order to get it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gant and Eula Mae spent Sunday afternoon at the Ed Hoffman home in Broadbent.

D. R. Lewis has not been well this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gasner spent Sunday at the Dan Lewis home.

George Clinton had the misfortune to cut his hand with an axe, but it is some better and he can use it.

Wednesday Mrs. Ben Gant entertained with a quilting. Those present were: Leila Crosby, Mrs. Jeff Crosby, Lizzie Clinton, Mrs. Lloyd Leatherman, Bertie Willson, Connie Willson, Lola Summerlin, Lena Anderson, Helen Mast, Marie Mast, Maud Mast, Emma Ingram, Virginia, Lois and Mrs. Gant.

Saturday evening a birthday dinner was given in honor of Wiley Summerlin. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson, Ina Davis, Wm. Harmon, Jerry Clinton, Mrs. Will Austin, Lewis West, Wm. Mast, Mr. and Mrs. Petterson, Kelley Clinton and the Wiley Summerlin family.

Mrs. Will Austin, of Norway, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lola Summerlin, for the last few days.

Jerry Clinton and Lewis West, of Hood River, visited at Harmon's last week. Jerry brought a load of grain on his truck.

Those to enjoy a birthday dinner Thursday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mast and son, Willie, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Mast, Mrs. Ina Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson and family, Kelley Clinton and the Harmon family. The occasion was in honor of Mr. Harmon.

Mrs. Otho Terry, Mrs. J. F. Young, Mrs. Edna Pointer and Mrs. Dora Culbertson, of Coquille, spent Tuesday visiting at the Ben Gant home.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Owen Willson and Mr. and Mrs. Thed. Perry, of McKinley, visited at the A. F. Willson home.

Mrs. Clarence Johnson underwent a major operation at the Knife hospital. She is reported as getting along nicely.

Mrs. Bud Ingram and daughter, Maxine, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mast at McKinley.

Mr. and Mrs. Norland Gant are staying at the Jeff Crosby home while Mrs. Crosby has gone to the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Jimmy Shell, in California. She is quite ill with pneumonia. Mrs. Crosby was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Crosby.

Knife Hospital Notes

Discharges from the Knife Hospital the past week were: Mrs. Wm. Fish, of Bridge, on Monday; Mrs. Harvey James, of Ophir, on Tuesday; Louise Cunningham last Friday, and Mrs. Geo. Davis yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Byrd Nosler entered the hospital last Friday for treatment, and Rev. R. G. Sumerlin, who had been visiting in Myrtle Point from Portland, came to the hospital Sunday for treatment. He suffered a slight heart attack recently.

Jack Page, front street barber, underwent an operation for hernia at the hands of Dr. Richmond last Monday, and J. L. Bean, of Bandon, underwent a similar operation yesterday morning.