

Why Buy Any Second Choice tire First Choice costs no more?

Right now you car-owners are "sitting pretty." - - - You can buy more safe, comfortable, troublefree mileage for a dollar than in any previous year. You don't have to put up with second-choice tires for reasons of economy, because first-choice tires cost you no more! - - - Goodyear Tires—the kind we sell—are first-choice here, throughout the state, throughout the nation, by more than 2 to 1! - - - They out-sell all others not because of any trick guarantee, or phony inducements, or special deals, but simply because they give people the biggest money's worth, and people know it! - - - Don't be argued out the benefits to be had from the leading tires and our service.

GOOD YEAR

Coquille Service Station

Phone 133

Bridge Happenings

Harold James is getting along nicely, following an operation last week at the Veterans' Hospital in Portland.

The high school students are working now on the senior play, "Helen Preferred," which will be presented at some date in the near future. The cast of characters is as follows: Geo. Gay, an attorney at law, Ralph Scarborough; Peter Latham, Ardmore's rising real estate broker, Ovid Bryant; Helen White, one of George's clients, Maxine Holmer; Sadie Lane, a stock actress, Donna Knight; Ned Lane, her husband, Warren Cribbins; Mrs. Bloomer, a mother, Ionella Curtis; Irene Bloomer, her daughter, Winifred Clayton; Mrs. Blackwell, another mother, Elva Cribbins; Sue Blackwell, her daughter, Erma Jennings; Albert Jones, a drug store clerk, Elbert Wehmann.

Mrs. Matilda Hill, of Coquille, moved last week to Bridge to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. A. O. Hooton.

Bridge lost one of her pioneer residents last week when R. A. Cribbins passed away on Thursday forenoon, following a long illness. Funeral services were held in Myrtle Point Saturday and interment was at Enchanted Prairie cemetery.

The Home Economics club met at the Grange hall again last Wednesday for an all day quilting. A potluck dinner was served at noon. Those present were Mesdames Rose Jewett, Anna Wilson, Velma Johnson, Nellie Culver and Irene Hatfield. Four of the school teachers, Mrs. Elise Lamp, Mrs. Ruth Brown, Mrs. Marie Allen, and Miss Alma Larkins, were also present during the noon hour, and the group was joined in the afternoon by Mrs. Estella Porter, Mrs. Beth Culver and Mrs. Hattie Hatcher.

Death came to the Ehrig home Saturday evening when Fred Ehrig succumbed to cancer of the stomach from which he had suffered for many weeks. He is survived by his widow and three sons: Arno, of Los Angeles; Bernhard, of Berkeley; and Karl, who lives at home, all of whom were with their father when the end came. Two cousins and Mrs. Arno Ehrig were also present, having come in response to word of his illness. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in Myrtle Point.

Harry Brownson was a Marshfield visitor Saturday. He was accompanied as far as Coquille by his mother, Mrs. M. Brownson and his niece, Miss Mae Hatcher.

The Intermediate Christian Endeavor of the Coquille Church of Christ, presented a splendid three-act play to a large crowd at the church here Tuesday evening. Those in the cast were Vada Swinney, Julia Hickam, Robert Bailey, Everett Seeley, Tom Stevens and Ellis Davidson.

Marilyn, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Davis, who was ill last week with flu is recovering nicely.

Safety First! Use Cow Bell Dairy's Pasteurized Milk and protect your health.

Brewster Valley

Kenneth Laird has purchased a new Chevrolet truck and is trucking hay from Klamath county into Coos.

The Brewster Valley basketball team met the Myrtle Point boys here Friday evening at the gym. The game was very interesting and close, the final score being 28-32 in favor of Myrtle Point.

Mrs. Polly Nickason and Mrs. Flossie Wilson gave a surprise birthday dinner Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wilson in honor of Miss Florence Mead. At noon a delicious chicken dinner was served. The cake was beautifully decorated with pink and green. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wilson, Mrs. Ivan Laird and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nickason and daughters, Betty and Fern, Mrs. Carrie Nickason, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson and family, Minor Mead and the honored one, Miss Florence Mead.

Mrs. Myrtle Christensen was taken suddenly ill Friday and as the seriousness of her condition was unknown, she was taken to Coquille Saturday for medical aid. She is reported doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lawhorne and daughter, Anna Lou Taylor, spent the week end visiting at the home of Mr. Lawhorne's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Rathliff Lawhorne, of McKinley.

Joe Laird made a business trip to Myrtle Point Sunday to visit with his son, Gene, who is home for a short visit.

Mrs. C. M. Wilson has been quite seriously ill at her home with liver trouble, being confined to her bed all the past week. At present time she is able to sit up a little.

Mrs. Jake Bohlander is suffering with a bad cold and a gathering in her head.

Mrs. Julius Benham, accompanied by Miss Florence Mead and Mrs. Ethel Abernathy, of Dora, spent Monday in Marshfield.

Robert De Boer, of Gravel Ford, was a Tuesday evening caller in the Valley.

Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Abbott, of Myrtle Creek, were prospecting and panning in the valley several days of this week. They succeeded in finding a few rubies.

Miss June Chandler, of Dement Creek, who has been visiting with Miss Hazel Taylor the past week, returned Monday to her home.

Mrs. Jean Smith is helping at the Albert Christensen home during the illness of Mrs. Myrtle Christensen.

Mrs. Florence Groat spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Lawrey, of Dora. Mr. Lawrey has been very ill with the flu.

Brunette's Future

Dr. C. F. Pabst says that outdoor life and indulgence in athletics, together with the intermingling of the dark-skinned race of southern Europe with our own, will produce a brunette as the reigning beauty of the future.

Alpine Coal, lump $4.50, 2 tons $8.50, nut coal $3 per ton. E. M. Briner, phone 71.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Miss Priscilla Deyoe left early Sunday for Corvallis, where she will attend O.-S. C. this term.

The Myrtle Point high school is putting on a Carnival Friday evening, March 31. The program will be broadcast to the crowd from station M. P. U. H. S. Many of the famous radio stars will be on the air, some of them being Kate Smith, Rudy Vallee, Baron Munchausen and Charlie Luther Barker will be the announcer for station M. P. U. H. S. Glen Neideigh's orchestra will play several numbers. Some of the alumni, who are known as the "Hill Billy" quartet, will sing several numbers. Billie Lund and June Barker will give a tap dance and sing. A rooster dance will be featured on the program. "The Municipal Davenport," a one-word playlet, will be put on by two students. Some of the girls from the physical education club will stage a tumbling act and a group of students will put on an amusing vaudeville skit. The Richfield news reporter will be on the air some time during the evening. The auditorium will be decorated as Chinatown and everything will be Chinese featured. There will be booths with cartoonists in them, ready to draw your picture and there will be a booth where you can have your palm read or one where some one will tell your weight. Some of the booths will have hot dogs, candy, confetti, serpentine and paper hats. And those of your who enjoy playing "horse" may play all evening. The admission at the door will be ten cents. The program is free. The doors will open at 7 p. m. Come early and enjoy yourself.

Milton Hoffman, who was kicked by a horse several weeks ago and suffered an abscess to the brain, is much improved.

The county speaking contest will be held in the high school auditorium April 21. Wilma Johnson will represent the interpretative reading and Luther Barker the extemporaneous speaking for the boys.

Margaret Garret and Delbert Steel spent Saturday evening in Powers, where they attended the senior prom.

V. V. Hagedorn spent Saturday afternoon in Marshfield on business.

Miss Katie Furman, of Gold Beach, spent the week-end in Myrtle Point visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watzling have moved from the A. E. Baker property on Fourth street into the James Endicott property on Sixth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Ireland, and children, Colleen and Donald, moved the last of the week to Roseburg, where Mr. Ireland will be employed by an oil company operating in the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nelson and two children from Drain have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Nelson of Myrtle Point, and other relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. V. V. Hagedorn, who underwent an operation at the Mast hospital last Monday, was able to be moved to the M. J. Morrison home Tuesday. She is doing nicely.

Miss Alice Alverdes, commercial teacher in the Myrtle Point high school, received honorary mention for her paper, "Motivation in Typewriting," which was published in a national shorthand magazine.

Gene Kinnicut sailed Thursday for Juneau, Alaska, to work with his uncle, E. C. Guerin, in the government survey in that section.

W. H. Fearnley motored to Eugene Sunday to take his daughter, Florence, back to school.

Mrs. Birdie Hazelton received word Monday from Eugene, which informed her of the death of L. L. Hazelton. Mr. Hazelton was well known in this vicinity.

Ernest Pearson has moved his family to the house on Spruce street hill, owned and recently vacated by Maurice Roy.

Miss Dolores Belloni and Stanley Furman spent Saturday evening in Powers.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rickman moved into the house on Sixth street, which was formerly owned by Clark Fensler.

Miss Adeline Gurney left Sunday morning for Grants Pass, where she is a teacher. Miss Gurney spent spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gurney.

Mrs. Lloyd Keene has been visiting her mother, Mrs. John W. Flanagan, of Marshfield.

Milton Schroeder, Robert Clarke and Julia Myrl Leatherman returned home Sunday evening from Portland, where they attended the ping-pong tournament. They reported a very good trip.

Mrs. Roy Oeburn is spending a week in Gold Beach, visiting her husband, Roy Oeburn, who has employment there.

Mrs. Mervin Moller left last week for San Pedro to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Cordill, for a month.

Miss Carolyn Schneider left Sunday for Salem, where she is attending Willamette University. She spent spring vacation with her aunt here, Miss Emma Schneider.

Miss Katie Guerin received word from Forest Grove Thursday that her but we have a few of those March Bargains left — and then we are told that prices are going to advance. That will be all right, too, but we need the money now.

Well, March is About Gone!

TUNA FLAKES White Meat
1/2's	15c
8 oz. Bottle Vanilla	65c
4 oz. Bottle Vanilla	Free
2 oz. Bottle Lemon	Free

Desert Sweet GRAPE FRUIT
No. 2 Cans	2 for 25c

Small White NEW POTATOES
No. 2 Cans	2 for 25c

BREAD & BUTTER PICKLES Special Saturday
2 Large Jars	25c

RITTER'S CATSUP
14 oz. Bottle	15c
Good Catsup

CALIFORNIA RIPE OLIVES
Tall Can Only	10c
They are good

SAUERKRAUT Trupak 2 1/2 size
2 Cans	23c

SPECIAL! while they last
Southern Sweet Navel
ORANGES

Large Size 2 doz. for 35c

Phone
69

Busy Corner Grocery

Free
Delivery

grandfather, O. S. Coleman, was much improved. Mr. Coleman suffered a stroke a week ago.

Richard Alonzo Cribbins, 77, passed away last Thursday following an illness of three years at his ranch home in Bridge. The funeral was held Saturday in Schoreder's Chapel. Interment was at Enchanted Prairie.

W. Lee Ray underwent a major operation Tuesday morning in the Mast hospital, Dr. R. C. Keizer, of North Bend, being his surgeon. At present Mr. Ray is much better.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Morrison were in Coquille Saturday on business.

Riverton News

A party is to be given tonight by the gold side, or losers in the high school Curtis Publishing company contest, for the green side, or winners. It is to be given in the gymnasium and each one is asked to bring one friend with them.

The high school baseball boys are practicing daily upon a "Smoker" to be given next month to help defray some of the expenses of their trip to Ashland.

Mrs. May Holbrook has been ill at her home the past two weeks due to a bad attack of flu.

Miss Lavelle Walstrom, of Randolph, spent the week-end with Miss Eleanor Heilman.

Miss Wilda Houser, of Leneve, spent the week-end with Miss Cleo Bush.

Mrs. Smart, of Eugene, spent several days this week with her daughter, Louise, of Coquille. Miss Smart is commercial teacher in our high school.

Word has been received from Sumner of the marriage of George Smith to Pearl Norris and of Mildred Smith to Vernon Goodale. George and Mildred are brother and sister of Mrs. Fred Sell and both were former Riverton students. Pearl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Norris, former residents of Riverton.

Mrs. J. D. Donaldson has just returned from California, where she had spent several weeks with her son, Louis.

Mrs. Fred Beck and Mrs. C. W. Martin sponsored a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Ansel Hayward, Wednesday afternoon, given at the latter's home. Mrs. Hayward received many beautiful and useful gifts. Besides the hostesses, those present included Mesdames Lee Atkinson, Adolph Moltu, Jim Watson, Lester Clausen, W. T. Alpine, W. A. Bean, A. C. Dye, Jack Cooper, C. M. Hartwell, H. J. Berry, Mrs. Flora Haan,

Mrs. Mettie Peterson, Miss Edith Hull and Miss Violet Morris, all of Riverton, and Mrs. E. L. Clinton, Mrs. Christy and Mrs. A. C. Christensen, from Myrtle Point.

Bonita and Lubert Bemetz and Retha Watson were visitors in Marshfield Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gilbert are the parents of an 8 1/2 pound baby boy, born Monday. They have named him Gordon Allan.

News From Lee Section

Mrs. Effie Adams and daughter, Mrs. Marie Mast, and Mrs. Maud Mast were business callers in Marshfield last week.

Those to enjoy Sunday dinner at the Owen Willson home were: Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Willson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Willson. Mrs. Owen Willson and children returned home with Mrs. A. F. Willson and is visiting a few days.

Miss Lois Parry returned home Saturday after a long visit with her sister, Mrs. G. B. Reed, of Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Clinton have been confined to their home with the flu the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Clausen are the proud parents of a baby boy born Sunday at the Pinkston hospital. This is their second child, the other being a little girl.

Lawrence Coleman, Adrian Schroeder and Mrs. Walter Schroeder spent Sunday with Mrs. Paul Bunch, who returned with the Schroeders as an over-night guest.

Walter Schroeder accompanied Paul Bunch to Klamath Falls, after a load of hay. They went out Saturday, returning home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Lloyd Mast entertained for her eighth wedding anniversary last Thursday evening with a delightful dinner. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chet Peden and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lewellen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Santy Weekly and family, Guy Bruer and the host and hostess.

Mrs. Lola Sumerlin and Mrs. Emma Ingram were joint hostesses for the Lee ladies club last Friday. An all-day's quilting and a delicious potluck dinner were enjoyed by the following: Mesdames Mack Baker, Will Willett, Ben Gant, A. F. Willson, Norland Gant, McCann, Norman Ingram, Dan Lewis, Martin Gasner, Hugo Michel, Henry Hervey, Carl Anderson, Maud Mast, Chawning, Will Austin, Clarence Petterson and Misses Lois Gant, Norman Johnson, Sadie Harmon and Helen Mast.

Calling cards 100 for $1.50.

Live News From Arago

Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson motored to Roseburg Sunday to take their son, Houston, that far on his way to Eugene, where he is attending the university.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Aasen, daughter, La Vaun, and son, Stephen, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hoffman, of Myrtle Point, Sunday. La Vaun remained over night and Monday morning went on the Ashland where she is attending school.

Mrs. E. J. Myers entertained as dinner guests Sunday Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Halter, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodward and son, Gerald.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lett and son, Ernest, of Bridge, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carl.

Mrs. J. L. Burtie has been a victim of the influenza the past week and is still confined to her bed.

Frank Sinko drove to Ashland Monday, taking his brother, Joe, back to school, after a week's vacation at home.

G. W. Ayers and wife and daughter, Dorothy, spent the week-end with Mrs. Ayers' brother at Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Poland, of Myrtle Point, and Miss Agnes Poland, of Idaho, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Aasen Wednesday.

Jean and Mary Helen Watkins entertained as guests Wednesday night Misses Leola Robinson, Lois Schroeder and Beanie Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Dunwoodie and daughter, Patsy, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Wallen, Mrs. Chester Root and daughters, Alice and Lois, of Myrtle Point, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Clinton and daughter, Jean, spent Sunday with Mr. Clinton's mother, Mrs. Minnie Clinton, of Coquille.

Miss Edith Woodward returned to Eugene Sunday where she is attending the university.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Johnson and sons, Bob and Richard, of Powers, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Aasen Thursday.

Walter Barklow accompanied Aldon Butler to Salem Sunday. They took Caroline Schneider and Margaret Morris to the Willamette University after a week's vacation at home with their folks.

Gordon Fleming started to work in the Arago cheese factory Monday as helper.

"If this doesn't come to pass, Odessa, I will order you to be boiled in oil at dawn."—Ruth.