Tribal Traits
Ireland is the only country where men are expected to live longer than women; the Maoris of New Zealand are the only people who carve but three fingers on their staves; and the Yaghs of Tierra del Fuego comprise the only tribe which has a rich vocabulary of about 30,000 words and cannot count over five—Collier's Weekly.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. J. A. Lamb and Mrs. Paul Van Scoy entertained guests with a dessert luncheon and contract bridge last Saturday afternoon at the Lamb home on South Willard street. A profusion of yellow daffodils and greens were in evidence about the rooms, also small bouquets of the same flowers were used on the luncheon tables. Prizes were won by Mrs. Sickels and Mrs. Lawrence. In serving Mrs. H. A. Young and Miss Mary Ella Cary assisted the hostesses. Invited were Mesdames Kennett Lawrence, Roy Neal, J. S. Barton, R. C. Stewart, H. E. Hess, M. Earl Wilson, George Bryant, J. E. Paulson, F. C. Hudson, C. A. Rietman, E. A. Walker, W. H. Mansell, R. E. Boober, Edward W. Lorenz, George Lorenz, C. K. Norcott, Louis Charneski, M. J. Hartson, Lloyd Rosa, Orvin Gant, Henry Lorenz, Luf Compton, Muri Pettit, Oliver Spies, H. A. Young, F. S. Emery, Geo. A. Ulett, F. L. Greenough, Ray Thomas, W. S. Sickels, R. F. Miller, Bert Folsom, E. L. Vinton, R. A. Wernich, Leo J. Cary, A. E. Bradford and Mrs. Lloyd Brooks, of Portland.

Last Saturday evening a group of the younger set enjoyed an evening party given by Miss Laura McLeod and Miss Gweneth Waters at the home of the latter. After the guests had all gathered at the home, bridge was first played then in a group they attended the dance for a couple of hours, later returning to the Waters' home where refreshments were served. In decorating, balloons were used which helped carry out the aerial scheme which was used in both invitations and place cards. Prizes in bridge went to Helen Belloni and Edell Bryant, who held high score. Low score prizes went to Grace Ellingsen and Joe Clark. Enjoying the affair were Misses Grace Ellingsen, Helen Belloni, Katherine Jane Hassler, Alta Brandt, Elda Gilman and Denton Ellingsen and Graydon Anderson. Out of town guests were Miss Boniva Volkmar, Norman Williams and Clyde Lett, of Myrtle Point; Edell Bryant, of Bridge; Leonard Gilley and Joe Clark, of Marshfield; and Carl Lorenz, of Bandon.

On Monday for luncheon and sewing, Mrs. John L. Aasen entertained the Ecadrien club members at her home on South Coulter street. Peart, Carl Ensel, and Mesdames Helen Belloni, Margaret Belloni, Muriel Davis, Marjory McGuffin, Virginia Page and Patricia Peart. The club will be entertained by Mrs. Mart Sherrard at her home on Sanford Heights, April 6th.

Next Week at the Liberty

A romantic "Western" team which won its first laurels in the recent picture version of Zane Grey's "Heritage of the Desert" is reunited to play in "Wild Horse Mesa," another Zane Grey story, coming to the Liberty Theatre tonight and Saturday.

Women called her "sinner." Men called her "siren." He called her "sweetheart"—but the world called her "Child of Manhattan."

Such is the role portrayed by Nancy Carroll as the star of the Columbia picture, "Child of Manhattan," opening at the Liberty Theatre Sunday night for three days. The picture is a screen version of the stage success of the same name by Preston Sturges, in intriguing story of a New York City dance hall hostess who finds herself ensconced in a palatial penthouse and very much in love.

As adapted for the screen, "Child of Manhattan" is replete with heart-throbbing romance, dramatic situations and striking contrasts. It is a story of two lovers who defy a leering world to think what it will. The story called for lavish backgrounds as settings for its many colorfully dramatic scenes. Everything about "Child of Manhattan" fairly exudes "class."

BUS, PUSH-CHAIR, BOAT, PLANE, FOR TOUR WITHIN FAIR

The last word in sight-seeing buses will carry the millions of visitors to A Century of Progress over the many acres of Chicago's 1933 World's Fair grounds.

Also awaiting the guests will be the luxury of the boardwalk push-chairs familiar at Atlantic City, and more modern electric chairs.

"Goeh, Ma, I washed in the tub last Saturday," Pop Larkins.

"Then wash again, I ain't goin' to pay out money fer nothin'."—Ma Larkins.

Smith-Hughes Ag Notes

The Ag. boys of Coquille high school continue to be very active. In line with their custom, the boys are again, this spring, doing work on the school grounds. They have worked the ground up to a good seed bed and will sow the lawn as soon as the weather permits. Lyman Carrier, of the Cocos Seed Co., donated the seed.

The Smith-Hughes boys have done some work of this kind every year. The first year they built the retaining wall and concrete driveway at the high school; the next year they put in a drain system around the Lincoln School and later built the agricultural shop, and planted rose bushes and ivy in the parking and terraces.

The Ag. quartette and officers of the Future Farmers of America, accompanied by W. M. Cunningham, local Smith-Hughes agricultural instructor, went to McKinley last Saturday to put on the Future Farmers' opening and closing ceremony before the McKinley Grange. The officers are: Bill Floten, president; Cedric Cross, vice president; Leonard Lawhorn, secretary; Sidney Cadman, treasurer; and Darrell Anderson, reporter. The following songs were sung by the quartette: "I'll take you home again, Kathleen," "Aunt Jemima," "Kentucky Babe," "Pals," and their theme song, "We got a cow down on our farm." Miss Edythe Farr played two delightful selections on the piano. Lewis Donaldson played three numbers on the harmonica and had to respond to several encores.

The quartette consists of Russell Martindale, Jim Robison, Bill Floten, Delbert Donaldson and Ernest Cooper. This quartette is made possible only through the co-operation of Dr. J. J. Leslie. J. J. always tries to find time for this work and through his training the boys are steadily improving.

The Ag boys have been more active than successful in athletics, having played two games of basketball with Bandon, losing one and winning one. The first and second teams played Myrtle Point and lost both games. They are now working up an indoor baseball team and are eager to schedule games.

Spellers to Receive Prizes

Winners in county spelling contests will receive gift books from J. K. Gill of Portland. These books have been received in the office of the county superintendent and are very attractive. The spelling contest will be held in the Lincoln school, Coquille, on April 22nd.

4-H Cooking Club of Marshfield, under Mrs. S. W. Bentley, has finished up one hundred per cent. These girls have the honor of being second as to time of completion, the first club being that at Prosper. Officers and members of Marshfield Club are: Marie Birkes, president; Nina Mae Dodge, vice president; Evelyn Bentley, secretary; Billie Burke Holden, Coralea Moody, Fern Cain, Thelma Cheney, Arlie Caderette, Beth Williams, Jean Morgan, Billie Banish, Patricia Baer.

Pleasant Anniversary Party

A little party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson Thursday evening in honor of their wedding anniversary. Cards were played during the evening and a nice lunch was served the following: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Perrott, Mr. and Mrs. Victor McCallister, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Wimer, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Barklow, Mr. and Mrs. Beach, Lavell Heather, Austin Clinton, Phyllis McCallister, George Johnson and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson.

Emanon Club Notes

The last Emanon Club meeting was really a handkerchief shower and farewell gathering in honor of Miss Farrentine Swinney, who has been unable to attend the club for some time and is now visiting indefinitely in Grants Pass.

Although some couldn't attend during the whole meeting, all came to extend best wishes. Later in the evening refreshments were served.

Thos present were: Misses Lena Williams, Gertrude Lambrecht, Gertrude Tway, Agnes Newton, Aida Sloan, Farrentine Swinney, Edna Robinson, Mrs. Ethel Jackson, Mrs. Mildred McCune and the hostess, Mrs. Stella Cribbins.

Gives Party for Her Son

A lovely birthday party was given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Jack Thompson for her son, Robert, at their home on the Marshfield highway. A birthday cake with four tiny candles graced the dinner table and dishes of ice cream were served each little guest. Those present were Mrs. M. R. Dunham and son, Donald, Mrs. W. O. Trerry and daughter, Louise, Mrs. H. V. McGrew and son, Harold, Mrs. A. O. Culbertson and son, Harold, and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and Robert Thompson and Mrs. Howard Pointer.
