Senior Girls Enjoy Party

A potluck supper was given by Hazel Mansell Tuesday evening for the senior girls of the high school. The girls were given complimentary tickets by the B. P. W. club and went to Miss Mansell's for a five o'clock dinner and after which they attended the show in a body. After the show the girls returned with Hazel for another feed. After the girls had been taken home Miss Mansell was surprised by Ernie Cooper, Delbert Donaldson, Russell Martindale and Jim Robinson, who came up for a bite to eat. Everyone had a very nice time.

The girls attending were: Carol Young, Laverne Knife, Elizabeth Pierce, Robelle Oederkirk, Yvonne Croes, Bonita Huntington, Yula Minard, Madeline McKown, Maxine Collins, Lorraine and Maxine Simpson, Marie Marshall, Gail Hufford, Gwynne Martindale, Margaret Stanger, Olive Tillman, Viola Johnson and Hazel Mansell.

Pioneer Missionary Society

Forty ladies, members and friends of the Pioneer Methodist missionary society, met on Tuesday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Birdie Skeels. After the regular weekly Bible study, conducted by Mrs. Frank Leslie, the ladies listened to a most interesting and illuminating talk on China and the life of a Chinese woman, by Mrs. B. A. Roberts, of Fairview, who spent sixteen years as a missionary in that country. The Pioneer group are using as a study, "Lady Fourth Daughter of China," and the splendid address furnished a fine background for that study. At the conclusion of the program a light lunch was served by Mesdames Skeels, Nosler, Hartman and Minard.

SOCIAL NOTES

A potluck luncheon was enjoyed on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Lyman Carrier by members of her Sunday school class of the Pioneer church. During the afternoon the ladies enjoyed sewing. Attending were Mesdames L. M. Daniels, Julius Ruble, C. W. Gano, Wm. Peart, Orvil Haga, Geo. W. Taylor, Jr., Lloyd Oddy, J. F. Young, Clyde Minard, M. O. Hawkins, Wm. Bailey, Lee Peterson, Carl Ensel, Mrs. Culbertson and Mrs. Carrier.

Mrs. Julius Ruble honored Mrs. Jennie Adams with a surprise party, which was held at Mrs. Ruble's home on East Third street Monday afternoon. Mrs. Adams is leaving Sunday for her home at Union, Oregon, after having spent the winter here in Coquille with her daughter, Miss Hazel Adams, who is an instructor in the Washington grade school. The ladies sewed during the early hours, after which refreshments were served. In serving Mrs. Geo. Taylor Jr. assisted. Enjoying the affair with Mrs. Adams were Mesdames S. M. Nosler, Mary Gage, Geo. W. Taylor Sr., Lyman Carrier, W. E. Thompson, C. T. Skeels and Geo. W. Taylor, Jr.

The Entre Nous club members motored to Myrtle Point Tuesday, where they were guests of Mrs. Otto Davis, with the evening pleasantly spent in Bridge. Mrs. Estes won the high score prize and Mrs. Ruble consolation. Mrs. Davis included beside the regular members, Mrs. Richard Barnes, of Coquille, and Mrs. G. L. McRay, of Myrtle Point.

On Monday evening Mrs. James Brady entertained her bridge club at her home on East First street, with the following members present: Mesdames J. L. Aasen, M. J. Hartson, H. S. Norton, E. M. Kay, Fred McNelly, Geo. Johnson and Mrs. G. Earl Low, of Grants Pass, who was an extra guest at the gathering.

This afternoon Mrs. Grant Wilcox is entertaining the O. D. O. club at her home on Sanford Heights, including Mrs. C. W. Gano, Mrs. W. E. Bailey and Mrs. Earl Nosler as additional guests, besides the regular members: Mesdames Lee Hand, Geo. Sherwood, L. A. Christensen, Gues Tillman, H. G. Prey, B. B. Sanders and Fred Kunz.

The Woman's Guild of the Episcopal Church met Wednesday afternoon at their Parish house. Mrs. George Lorenz and Mrs. E. W. Lorenz served tea late in the afternoon to those present: Mesdames E. A. Woodyard, Muri Pettit, C. T. Selbig, C. K. Norcott, Geo. W. Taylor, Sr., Bert Folsom, Jas. Watson, C. J. Fuhrman, L. H. Hazard and E. L. Vinton.

After the show, "George in a Jam," which was presented by the Monotony Killers Tuesday evening for the benefit of the state convention fund of the B. P. W. club, Mrs. George Bryant, Mrs. Bertha Smith and Mrs. A. N. Gould invited the entire cast of the play, the C. H. S. Ag. quartette boys and Miss Inez Rover, pianist, to the Bryant home on Knowlton Heights for the rest of the evening and refreshments, which were greatly enjoyed.

At the home of Miss Harriet Gould Wednesday the Strictly Fems club enjoyed a very pleasant evening which was spent in Bridge, with Miss Hartson winning the high score prize. Easter decorations were used for that evening. Attending were Misses Fredah Baxter, Jean Young, Kathleen McClintock, Beatrice Morris, Avis Hartson, Marietta Hufford and Marvin Jane Hawkins.

Mrs. A. T. Morrison, who at various times had extended an invitation to the Friendly Sunday school class of the Pioneer Church of which she is a member to come to her home which is near Bandon to spend a day, was somewhat surprised Wednesday when the ladies of the class walked in on her. The affair was arranged by Mrs. F. G. Leslie, who is leader of the class. After the ladies had provided for a potluck luncheon which they took with them, they met at ten o'clock at the home of Rev. and Mrs. P. D. Hartman, where cars were waiting them. All the ladies who attended felt they had had a very delightful day. Motoring down were Mesdames F. G. Leslie, P. D. Hartman, Guss Tillman, Alex Petersen, B. C. Minard, Clyde Minard, and son, Donald, E. Purvance, Maude LeRoy, B. Neeley, C. T. Skeels, George Wilkins, Geo. Piercy, Mary Gage, Frank Martindale, J. A. Houdyshell, and Dave Perkins, of Redlands, Calif.

Knife Hospital Notes

Dismissals from the Knife Hospital the past week were Mrs. Dow Lancaster, of Remote, on Sunday; Lucille Riddle on Monday, and A. Combs on Wednesday.

Mrs. H. W. Covalt is recovering very satisfactorily from the operation she underwent last week.
