Mrs. Alice Clapinski underwent an appendicitis operation Friday in the Mast hospital. She is doing nicely.

Milton Hoffman, 41, passed away at his ranch home on the Powers road Monday afternoon at three o'clock. Mr. Hoffman was kicked in the head by a horse about two months ago; complications set in and from the first the doctors gave him no hopes. Mr. Hoffman was born in Myrtle Point in 1892, and has lived here all his life. Surviving relatives are: his widow and five living children, Viola, Wilmot, Howard, Delose and Wanda. His mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoffman, of Myrtle Point, also survive him and two sisters, Mrs. Roy Epperson and Mrs. Jas. Parry, and four brothers, E. F. Hoffman, George and Charles Hoffman, of Myrtle Point, and Walter, of Arcadia, California. He also leaves to mourn his death many other relatives and a host of friends. The deceased was a devout member of the Baptist church. Funeral services were held at that church at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Wolfe officiating and assisted by Rev. Mr. Wiley. Interment took place in Norway cemetery.

News Notes From Powers

The executive board of the P. T. A. met Monday P. M. in the sixth grade room. Mrs. Geo. Stewart, Mrs. Olin Lay and Mildred Fisher were appointed on the nominating committee. Election of officers will be held on the third Friday in May, the 19th. School closes May 26.

The L. O. O. F. of Powers will celebrate their 114th anniversary on April 26th, with a short program and dancing party, followed by a midnight lunch.

Ed Bryant has several mining men at his claim on Salmon Mt. looking over the diggings. An outsider who saw what they took out the first of the week was very much impressed with the amount of gold in sight.

The Royal Neighbors will entertain their mothers on May 8th, with a Mothers' Day program and luncheon.

Men, who were put to work for the Forest Service, were laid off and it is understood that the Reforestation Army will do this work. If so, it will certainly be a handicap to those in this vicinity who have forsaken so many callings, thinking their work was secure with the Service. With very little hopes of the Coos Bay Lumber Co. starting, this last resource was taken from this community when this ruling was made. This army of men should have been extra men put to work in place of taking the work from experienced men.

With snow in sight on the mountains, the Easter weather in Powers was almost one continuous hail shower.

Mrs. Saidee-Orr Dunbar spoke in the Fellowship hall Sunday at 11:30 on "Child Welfare" to a large crowd. Mrs. Dunbar, a pleasing speaker, was well received by the audience. The only regret was that a larger number of people could not have heard her.

Irvin (Slim) Thompson was called to Roseburg Wednesday when he received the news of the death of his uncle, Joe Thompson, an old pioneer of Coos and Douglas counties.
