FORCED

A Statement By Mr. Geo. Unsoeld

This is a frank admission! We over-estimated the amount of spring business we would do—and now we're so heavily overstocked we are FORCED TO UNLOAD . . . absolutely regardless of cost. This is a serious situation. It calls for Plain Talk only. Never in the history of this community have such values been offered. In order to avoid disappointment it's up to you to make early selections! You have to see for yourself, compare the sale tags and by all means DON'T MISS IT!
