

SOCIAL NOTES

Sunday evening the Altar society of the Holy Name Catholic Church held a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Cary from 7:30 until 9:00 o'clock, at which time all their church people of the Coos and Curry missions together with their friends were invited to be present and meet Rev. Father Roller and his mother, Mrs. Roller. Rev. Father Roller is the new priest of the mission, coming from North Bend to succeed Rev. Father L. E. LeMiller, who has been transferred to the North Bend parish. During the evening a number of musical numbers and some informal talks were enjoyed. Punch and wafers were served.

A delightful picnic supper was enjoyed by the Study Club members and their husbands Wednesday evening near the falls in the Fairview district. The evening was spent sitting around a large campfire. Attending were Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Rietman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Luckey L. Bonney, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Slack, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Leslie and George Jenkins.

Monday evening Mrs. James Brady was hostess to her club at her home on East First street, with bridge as the diversion. Attending were Mesdames A. B. Collier, John L. Aasen, M. J. Hartson, Fred McNelly, H. S. Norton, George Johnson and E. M. Kay.

Mrs. Guss Tillman is entertaining the O. D. O. Club ladies this afternoon at her home, with the following present: Mesdames Fred Kunz, John Jayes, C. W. Gano, H. G. Frey, Grant Wilcox, B. B. Sanders, Geo. Sherwood, L. A. Christensen and Lee Hand.

At the home of Mrs. W. E. Cross on the Fishtrap road members of the Needle Workers' club spent a very enjoyable afternoon together, with refreshments served late in the afternoon to the following: Mesdames Josh Ruble, C. C. Bonniksen, Swain Donsted, E. C. Yarbrough, Frank Schram, Fred Hickok, Jack Arnold, Ray Simpson, Ralph Taylor, Ed. Detlefsen, Harold Simmons, Frank Poak, E. A. Wimer and Georget Gilman.

Visits in Curry County

Mrs. Alice Perrott, while taking her vacation from the Sheriff's office, left last Friday to spend a week with her husband at Illaha, on upper Rogue river where her husband, Ernest Perrott, is engaged by Jergens, the Los Angeles millionaire, erecting a guest house and some other buildings at his summer resort there. Mrs. Perrott returned Wednesday evening, brown as a berry, and reports a most enjoyable trip and that the work on the, to ordinary people, very elaborate structures, is progressing satisfactorily and expects her husband home the latter part of July. Mrs. Perrott's two daughters, Jean and Carolyn, enjoyed a vacation at the same time, visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stanley, of this place, and all of them spent the week end at the Stanley cottage at Bandon.

Ferndale Visitor Here

Mrs. Joseph Bognuda, formerly Mrs. Marcela Genzoli, daughter of Andrew Smalley, who owns a large and valuable dairy farm above Arago, on the Coquille river, came up last week from her home in Ferndale, California, to remain a month or so looking after the farm and making some repairs and additions to the water system and like appurtenances to the place. She has her two sons with her. Her husband was here with her a short time ago, but his mercantile business in Ferndale requires his attention so that he could not come this time. The two sons are very much pleased with our climate and the farm and desire to remain permanently, but their mother wishes them to complete their schooling first.

Baptist Ladies Meet

The ladies of the Baptist Church and guests spent the day Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Frank Lane at Roy. At noon a lovely dinner was served by Mrs. Lane, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Althea Harrah, to the following: Mesdames R. B. Cummins, Stoddard, T. R. Rutledge, Harry Williams, Herman Hickam, Andrew Hatcher, H. M. Ross and Irene Williams, Jean Williams, Herbert and Helen Hickam, Arden Harrah and Mr. Lane. After dinner all enjoyed a short program, followed by a social hour.

Emanon Club Notes

At the last meeting the Emanon club members were entertained by Mrs. Alda Sloan. The pastime was sewing but it was somewhat slighted as it usually is when the summer months are ushered in. Refreshments were served later in the evening to Misses Gertrude Tway, Gertrude Lambrecht, Lena Williams, Agnes Newton, Edna Robison, Mesdames Frances Newton, Mildred McCune and the hostess.

Picnic or Sunday dinners are not complete unless you have a few of Leeper's 2-lb friers at 25c each. 2t

Next Week at the Liberty

Announced as a rich combination of laughs and romance, Ramon Novarro's latest M-G-M starring attraction, "The Barbarian," will be shown starting Sunday for three days on the Liberty Theatre screen.

The story is a particularly diverting one. Jamil is a handsome young guide to the sights of the Nile. Rich women tourists find him irresistible and pay him well for his services. One day there arrives in Cairo, Diana, young, English, beautiful, to marry Reginald Denny, a young aqueduct engineer. Jamil insinuates himself into her party. Diana finds him strangely charming, being particularly intrigued by an Arabic song he sings. She feels his appeal to be dangerous and abruptly leaves Cairo for Gerald's aqueduct with her own caravan and another dragoman. Jamil catches up with her, declares his love and is whipped in the face.

Enraged, Jamil leads her caravan to a point where she escapes, only to come to the oasis castle of Achmed, who has desired her. Jamil accepts pay for this service, and starts to leave, when Diana calls for him. Conscience-stricken, he contrives her escape and beats down their enemies. He makes love to her in the long days before they reach his tribe. There they are in the midst of the marriage service, when Diana shows her hatred of him by desecrating the tribal rites. He permits her to return to Cairo. As she prepares to be married to Gerald, she hears the song of the hunted Jamil. The call is too great and she goes to the man she really loves.

Bebe Daniels again sings in "Cocktail Hour," which will be shown at the Liberty on pal nights, next Wednesday and Thursday.

It was in the musical comedy, "Rio Rita," that it was discovered Miss Daniels possessed a beautiful voice. In "42nd Street," her last picture prior to "Cocktail Hour," she sang several musical numbers which were received with great enthusiasm. "Listen, Heart of Mine" was written especially for Miss Daniels.

Fatal Accident Last Friday

Too much speed on an unfamiliar road is the verdict of those who witnessed the scene of that fatal accident on the highway at New Lake, below Bandon, last Friday afternoon when one man was killed and two others were seriously hurt.

Probably the car did get into loose gravel at the side of the road when the driver attempted to negotiate that S turn, but it was on a level grade and thousands of cars make it safely every month.

Harry Gevurtz, the driver, allowed his car to get off on one side and then in straightening out, plunged across the road and half buried the car in the sand bank on the other side.

Alex Miller, of the Miller Clothing Co. at Portland, was fatally injured in the accident, dying at Bandon early Saturday morning. Harry Herzog, Portland architect, suffered a broken nose, cuts and bruises, and Harry Mittleman, contractor, was bruised and cut. Gevurtz escaped serious injury. Miller and Herzog are said to have been asleep in the rear seat when the accident happened. All four were from Portland and were on their way to San Francisco.

Probate Court Items

Chas. Metlin, of Marshfield, was last Saturday appointed executor of the will of Margaret A. Metlin, who died June 18, leaving an estate estimated to be worth $6,000. The appraisers appointed are Carl Everston, Andy P. Davis and Geo. F. Winchester.

Mrs. Mable Laird was yesterday named as administratrix of the estate left by her late husband, Jas. W. Laird, who died June 12. L. H. Hazard, O. C. Sanford and E. D. Webb are appraisers of the estate which is estimated to be worth $1,375 in personal property.

Marriage Licenses

June 26—Osborne Nulf, of Leneve, and Hazel Davis, of Coquille. They were married Tuesday by Rev. Irene Buckle, of Bandon.

June 27—Lawrence A. Christensen and Thora E. Walter, both of Marshfield.

Knife Hospital Notes

Mrs. Warren Herzog, of Bandon, underwent a major operation at the hospital Tuesday.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Thos. Cribbins, of Bridge, was admitted for a colic operation, and Mrs. John Zwick, of Coaledo, entered for heart treatment.

Unlawful Possession of Deer

Warren Cornell, of the state police, reports that Howard Tanner, of the Seven Devils country, for possession of venison during the closed season, and Fred West, of near Allogony, for possession of untagged venison, were each fined $100 and costs by Justice Bolt at Marshfield this week. They were paroled on payment of part of the fine, for one year.

Forest Closures Explained

by U. S. Forest Service

A timely bulletin from the U. S. Forester at Grants Pass gives considerable information as to the rules to be observed by those who enter national forests this year, as follows:

Special federal laws govern the tourists or campers who enter the national forests of Oregon and Washington. These special federal laws of regulations range from the simple restriction which calls to the attention of the forest users the need for care with fire, to the more serious restriction that closes certain hazardous areas to all use by the public.

The following violations are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, and are effective on all national forest lands during the period from July 1 to September 30 of each year:

1. Failure to secure a camp fire permit before building any camp fire on any national forest land (other than the Siuslaw National Forest) except in safe stoves, or at those forest camps where no camp fire permits are required, as shown by posted notices.
2. Going or being upon any national forest land, except at designated and posted forest camps (and on the Siuslaw National Forest), with automobile, other vehicle, or pack horses, with the intention of camping thereon, without being equipped for each vehicle or pack train, with the following fire fighting tools:

(a) One axe, with handle not less than 26 inches in length, and head weighing two pounds or over.

(b) One shovel, with handle not less than 36 inches long, and blade not less than 8 inches wide.

(c) One water container, capacity 1 gallon, or more.

3. Failure to stop when smoking while in timber, brush, or grass areas in national forest land, except on paved or surfaced highways (and on the Siuslaw National Forest.)

Other violations that are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, throughout the entire year, are as follows:

4. Building a campfire in grass, leaves, rotten wood, or other dangerous places, or in windy weather, without clearing around the fire pit and confining the fire to a hole.
5. Leaving any fire to burn unattended, or failure to totally extinguish a fire before leaving it.
6. Throwing or placing lighted cigarette, cigar, pipe heel, match, firecracker or other burning substances, or discharging fire works, in any place where they may start a fire.

The new law, enacted this year, makes it possible to close all national forest lands and all outside protective lands in Oregon and Washington under state law. This will mean that practically the same restrictions will be in effect over all national forests in Oregon and Washington, which will eliminate the many objectionable features of handling those closures under laws in the different states in Region 6. This will result in greater uniformity in handling closures throughout Region 6, and which will make it much more convenient to the forest public.

With this in mind, all lands within the Siskiyou national forest and all outside lands within the Protective Unit of the Siskiyou national forest will be closed, under the act of March 6, 1933, during the period from July 1 to September 30, and all minor violations will be handled under this act. A brief synopsis of the act of March 6 is as follows:

1. To refrain from smoking while traveling in such areas.
2. To secure a permit issued by the forester or a fire warden before building a camp fire other than at improved, designated and posted camp grounds on such areas.
3. To have, as a part of his or her equipment when using camp fires, except when traveling as a pedestrian and-or camping at improved, designated and posted camp grounds, tools as specified by the forester for extinguishing fires.

Any one entering any area designated hereunder and violating any of the conditions specified hereunder, excepting only upon such person's own land, or violating any provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of $250.00, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten (10) days nor more than sixty (60) days; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting free access to any area for the sole purpose of preventing or extinguishing fires.

State and federal forest officers have the responsibility of enforcing the above laws. Such work is disagreeable at best, and our sole thought in publishing these laws is to see, if possible, that all people are advised of their contents and meaning. This, we feel, will reduce violation to the minimum, and help the forest users as well as ourselves.

Registratoin for July Election

Total registration for the July 21 election, in Coos county, is 12,522, as compared with the 14,538 who were eligible to vote last November. The present registration is 7557 republicans, 4593 democrats, 259 independents, and 113 others. Each of these figures is less than last November's numbers, which then stood 8970 republicans, 5101 democrat, 324 independents, and 143 others.

Precinct registrations for this end of the county show the following entitled to vote three weeks from today: Benton 108, Coaledo 73, Beaver Hill 44, Cunningham 227, Fat Elk 160, Dora 151, Missouri 65, Leo 58, Coquille North 329, Coquille Southwest 280, Coquille Southeast 573, Riverton 123, Prosper 155, Bandon Southwest 280, Bandon Northwest 121, Bandon Northeast 153, Bandon Southeast 267, Two Mile 236, Parkersburg 107, Norway 118, Four Mile 69, Catching Creek 279, Myrtle Point North 317, Myrtle Point South 385, Broadbent 182, Powers 240, Enchanted 260, Rowland 197, Arago 217.

Well Known in Coquille

Sheriff Hess and Marshal Howell who were summoned to Medford recently as witnesses in the ballot theft cases there, have been subpoenaed for the second trial now coming up. Others also summoned are P. W. Culver, Robert R. and Jas. Watson. The point on which their testimony is desired is in connection with those ex-Coquille young men, Burley Sexton and his brother, who have been in the thick of that Medford mess, and are reported to have been the boys who stole and destroyed the ballots. When they were caught they squealed and implicated a dozen or more other citizens. The one so far convicted is Mayor Jones, of Rogue River.

The Sextons did not have the most savory reputation in Coquille.

Acrobatic Drum Majors Usually Get Good Hand

The gymnastic drum major was once a favorite feature of public processions, and these performers were often of national repute. Of recent years, however, there has been a more modest behavior at the van of the musical organizations, the time markers restraining themselves to sedate movements to guide the cadence of their followers. But old-style twisters of the baton came back into vogue and won the plaudits of the crowd.

People like to laugh, and they are quick to acclaim with mirth anything that is peculiar and out of the ordinary. The drum major who flings his baton high in the air while he executes a double shuffle, who struts with exaggerated pomposity and protruding chest, who cake-walks his way along the route, is sure of a "hand" from the crowded curbs. Certain bands cannot tolerate such behavior at their van, for they have reputations as musicians to maintain rather than as comedians. It has in the course of many years been noted that the drum major who wins the loudest applause usually leads the poorest band.—Washington Star.
