J. FARRELL MAC DONALD and MARION DAVIES in
"PEG O' MY HEART"

Marion Davies will be seen starting Sunday at the Liberty Theatre in "Peg O' My Heart." As the little Irish girl who inherits an ancestral estate in England and falls in love with the young lawyer who arranged for her entrance into society, Miss Davies is considered to have given the finest performance of her entire career.

For the role Miss Davies adopted an Irish brogue, obtaining a charming and natural dialect from an old hotel doorman in Los Angeles whose Celtic accent she used to mimic. In the first part of the picture she appears in the typical "Peg" costume with her frowsy dog, Michael. Later she blossoms forth in creations designed for her by Adrian, noted film stylist.

A musical background adds charm to "Peg O' My Heart," the picture featuring two new songs, "Sweetheart Darlin'," and "I Remember."

Oswald Stevens makes his debut as a leading man in this picture, after first winning screen attention as the playwright in "Once in a Lifetime."

At the Liberty Tonight

Stuart Erwin, Fred Kohler, Raymond Hatton and Verna Hillie head the cast of the picture version of Zane Grey's "Under the Tonto Rim," 27th of the noted author's stories to reach the screen, which comes to the Liberty Theatre tonight and Saturday.

"Under the Tonto Rim," while it has all the qualities of excitement and romance that have made Grey's other novels successful pictures, has, in addition, a large element of humor. It is the story of Erwin, a cowboy who just can't do anything right. Failing at all other branches of stock-raising, he is finally set down in a cattle corral to guard the stock against theft. But he fails at that too—the cattle are stolen from under his very nose.

Disgusted, he accepts the advice of a couple of cronies, and invests a small inheritance in a hog-raising enterprise. But he hates his work so much that the cronies decide the only thing that will keep him at it is a wife. So they inveigle him to a border-town saloon, where, unknown to him, they spread the report that he is a notorious desperado. This brings the women flocking around him, but keeps the men at a safe distance. He is soon exposed as a no-good cowboy, however, and the daughter of his former boss, who had been deeply impressed, turns on him in scorn.

The scorn has the effect of making Erwin as bad as the bad-man he had been portrayed as being. He returns to the saloon, cleans out the place, and carries off the boss' daughter.

The picture reaches a breathless climax as he is cornered, on the one hand, by a posse which has set out to "get" him for abducting the girl, and, on the other, the band of cattle rustlers who had been the original cause of his troubles.

Extension Specialist in County

Groups of women in three communities in Coos county are meeting with Mrs. Azalea Sager, extension specialist in clothing and textiles at the State College, where subjects relating to dry cleaning and remodeling of clothing will be considered. The meetings were arranged through the county agent's office in co-operation with women's clubs and grange home economics committees.

The first meeting was held at the Gaylord community hall on Tuesday with Mrs. H. D. Bones, president of the Women's club at Gaylord, in charge of the program. Many helpful points in dry cleaning were demonstrated by Mrs. Sager and a great deal of interest was shown by those attending in the clothing work presented.

Similar meetings were held at the Fairview church and Grange hall on Wednesday and at the home of Mrs. Eugene Hamblock at Parkersburg, yesterday. In each case luncheon was provided by the women in charge of the program.

SOCIAL NOTES

At the home of Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman on Spurgeon hill on Tuesday afternoon of this week Mrs. Fuhrman, Mrs. J. A. Lamb, Mrs. Nels Osmundson, Mrs. W. S. Sickels, Mrs. A. J. Sherwood, Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mrs. Hal W. Pierce and Mrs. Paul Van Scoy together entertained for luncheon several of the Justamere club ladies who a few weeks ago had delightfully entertained them. Covers were laid for the following beside the hostesses, Mesdames O. C. Sanford, Emma, Lyons G. R. Wickham, F. L. Greenough, H. A. Young, Bert Folsom, Jane Williams and Mrs. E. E. Johnson and Miss Mary Esther Johnson, of Portland.

Mrs. George McClellan, nee Eleanor Folsom, who was married a couple of weeks ago, was the inspiration for a shower party given by a group of friends Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. A. Lamb. Sewing and conversation were the evening's diversion with refreshments served late. Attending besides the honored guest were Mesdames M. J. Hartson, Henry Lorenz, Edw. W. Lorenz, Lloyd-Ross, A. N. Gould, C. T. Skeels, J. E. Norton, George Lorenz, F. L. Greenough, H. A. Hazard, R. A. Wernich, W. S. Sickels, Hal W. Pierce, Nels Osmundson, H. A. Young, Bert Folsom, J. L. Smith, Paul Van Scoy, C. J. Fuhrman and J. A. Lamb.

Mrs. A. B. Collier was hostess Monday evening to her Bridge club at which time she included as extra guests Mrs. H. W. Pierce and Mrs. R. F. Miller beside the regular members, Mesdames J. L. Aasen, E. M. Kay, H. S. Norton, M. J. Hartson and James Brady.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Neal, who are living on a farm in the Fairview district arranged for a surprise party for their son, Harold, who was celebrating his 15th birthday anniversary. The affair was held at their home Wednesday evening, with about forty young folks from around that vicinity attending. A large bonfire was built and around it refreshments and a marshmallow roast were enjoyed.

Mrs. Florence Seeley complimented Miss Frances Eggleston and Raymond Detlefsen, one of Coquille's popular couples who are to be married home time this month, at a waffle breakfast served at her home on North Henry street Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Included were Misses Frances and Bernice Eggleston, Gladys Williams, Mrs. Stanley R. Oldland and Raymond Detlefsen, Belmont, Ireland and Everett Seeley.

Monday for luncheon Mrs. Roy Neal entertained the Ecadrian club ladies with covers laid for Mesdames Geo. Johnson, W. E. Bosserman, E. A. Walker, Earl Nosler, J. E. Axtell and Mrs. Eva B. Neal, of Hanford, Calif.

Mrs. Frances Eggleston, bride-elect of Raymond Detlefsen, was given an interesting miscellaneous shower Thursday evening by Misses Dora and Glenada Kendall and her sister, Bernice Eggleston at the Kendall home on Spurgeon hill. Guests attending were Misses Marjorie Knight, Ruth Brant, Florence Folsom, Lodema Cross, Yvonne Cross, Katherine Jane Hassler, Maxine and Lorraine Simpson, Gladys Williams, Carol Young, LaVerne Knife, Margaret Paulson, Beryl Unsold, Anne Barton, Elda Gilman, Virginia Tillman, Madeline McKeown, Rose Matney, Geneva Agostino, Jessie Lawhorne, Ula Minard, Vera Gailin, Hazel Mansell, Gweneth Waters, Barbara Richmond, Laura McLeod, Robelle Oederkirk.

Mrs. Anna Rooney was pleasantly surprised Thursday evening when a number of her friends gathered at her home while she was attending the first show and greeted her when she reached home. A handkerchief shower was also given her, the occasion being in honor of her birthday. The guests also arranged for the refreshments which were served later in the evening. Those taking part in the affair were Mesdames F. C. Hudson, M. Earl Wilson, Roy E. Boober, Iris Elrod, C. G. Caughell, J. W. Laird, J. S. Beyers, Alton Grimes, A. B. Collier, T. B. Currie, Ida K. Owen, H. W. Pierce, R. F. Miller, Bertha Smith, Sadie Jayes, Misses Bess Maury, Marguerite Agostino, Jennie Lindros, Blythe Cousins, Edna Robison and from out of town were Mrs. P. W. Culver, of Myrtle Point, and Miss Georgianna Johnson, of Marshfield.

Last evening a group of girls enjoyed a few hours at the home of Miss Alfreda Harry on Spurgeon hill, with a no-host lunch served at the close of the evening. Present were Misses Audrey Kendall, Margaret Purvance, Harriet Webb, Gretchen Neal, Faye Hurrell, Helen Pinkston, Maxine Johnson, Anne Van Scoy, Ether Marshall, Geraldine Minard, Norene McKeown.

This afternoon Mrs. H. G. Prey is entertaining the O. D. O. club ladies at her home on East Fourth street. The afternoon's diversion was sewing with refreshments served afterwards to the following: Mesdames Guss Tillman, Geo. Sherwood, Fred Kunz, L. A. Christensen, Lee Hand, Grant Wilcox, B. B. Sanders, C. W. Gano, John Jayes and Ralph Lucas.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Ed Detlefsen was hostess to the Needle Workers club ladies at her home on the Fishtrap road.

Rebekah District Convention

The 23rd annual Rebekah district convention was held in Bandon last Saturday evening.

Every Rebekah lodge in District No. 13 was well represented and many visitors from other districts were also in attendance.

The valuable instructions, so pleasingly given by Esther Bond, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, was greatly appreciated by the members.

The address of welcome by Anna Erdman, of Bandon, made those in attendance feel they were truly welcome and the response by Mrs. Jennie Bennett, of North Bend, expressed the sentiment of all members and visitors.

During the afternoon session two papers, "The Good Derived by District Meetings," by Marian Whitaker, and "How Visiting Committees Can Create Interest in the Lodge," by Mrs. Elliott, of North Bend, were presented and very much enjoyed by all.

Election of Noble Grand from floor and reinstatement of members by Chapter No. 231: Examination and introduction of visitors and Issuing and Receiving Cards and Admission of Members by Transfer, was shown by Una No. 120; Favorable and Unfavorable Ballot, by North Bend No. 143.

The moment of silent prayer in memory of the deceased sisters and brothers caused the members to realize more fully how much the absent members are missed.

The evening session was opened by a short but much enjoyed program rendered by members and visitors of Ocean No. 126.

The exemplification of Rebekah Degree was very beautifully given by Mamie No. 20 and received many compliments from officers and members. Ocean No. 126 and Chaparell No. 231 presented Mrs. Bond with beautiful gifts.

The following elective convention officers for 1934 were then seated by Western Star No. 27:

Chairman—Minnie King.
Vice Chairman—Mabel Barklow.
Secretary—Cora Leggett.
Treasurer—Florabelle Boober.
Mrs. Minnie King, from Powers, gave a very pressing invitation for the next district convention to meet with Chaparell No. 231 and it was accepted.

A delicious banquet was served at 6:30 p. m. in the banquet rooms to those present, and at midnight the members of Ocean lodge served coffee and cake to all officers and members. Much credit is due to Mary Copple, convention chairman, for a most successful district convention.

B. P. W. Hear Good Talks

At the postponed meeting of the B. P. W. club, held in the hotel Monday evening, a district picnic, to be held in Bandon on the first Sunday in August, was discussed, and the secretary was instructed to ascertain if that date would be agreeable to the Coos Bay and Roseburg clubs. The club voted $5 toward the expense of fitting up the tennis courts opposite the high school.

Delegates named for the quarterly conference of B. P. W. clubs, to be held in Crescent City, July 29 and 30, were Leona Bryant, Harriet Gould, Bertha J. Smith and Cora Mackey.

The Miller System of Better English course which some of the members are considering, was discussed by Mrs. Bertha Smith, who said that the rate was $5 for an individual, $4 each for a class of five, $3 each for ten, and $2.50 each if twenty or more are in the class.

Mrs. Saima Caughell gave a talk on her visit to the Century of Progress Exposition and discussed some of the things that were particularly interesting. The one outstanding thing she noted was that in the States building, Oregon was not represented while California and Washington were more than represented.

A sight-seeing bus which took them all over the 424 acres in the fair grounds required an hour and a half to make the trip without stopping.

She told of the "House of Tomorrow," which is of glass and without windows. It was beautifully furnished in modernistic furniture as were all of the new homes shown.

She told of boys from Portland, who had a myrtlewood booth in one building, about eight feet square, for which they had paid $1,000. The boys told them that on their best day they had taken in less than $50.

Mrs. Alma M. Wilcox, of the Stephens-Colmer Studio of Portland, spoke to the ladies briefly on the Portland club and its activities and more in detail on her study work with the Delphian Club. She, through that organization, is taking a six-year course which is supposed to be as broadening as a four year college course. The first two years they discuss Travel and Nationalities and after that are to take Literature, Art, Dramatic Art and Travel again. She also discussed her work and invited any of the Coquille members when they visit Portland to come to the studio and she would be glad to make their stay in Portland enjoyable.

The next meeting of the club, to be held on the 17th of July, will be a potluck dinner to be held in the grove, with the executive committee in charge.

McKinley Notes

Dennis McCarthy, of Marshfield, was a business caller in McKinley Monday.
