SOCIAL NOTES

In compliment to Mrs. Roy Neal, who was observing a birthday anniversary on Monday of this week, Mrs. W. V. Glaisyer and Mrs. Willard Boersman invited a number of ladies to the home of the former, where they not only surprised Mrs. Neal but also gave her a handkerchief shower. Mrs. Leonard Hagen, of Tacoma, Wash., sister of Mrs. Glaisyer, was given also a guest prize at the same time. Mrs. Boober and Mrs. Woodyard received prize gifts for high and low score in Bridge, which was the evening's diversion. Attending were Mesdames Roy Neal, James Brady, J. L. Aason, A. B. Collier, H. W. Pierce, F. S. Emery, R. E. Boober, Geo. A. Ulett, Lafe Compton, F. C. McNelly, E. M. Kay, Julius Ruble, C. K. Norcott, Geo. Chaney, E. A. Woodyard, J. E. Axtell, E. A. Walker, O. T. Gant, Geo. Johnson, Earl Nosler, Paul Van Scoy, and Leonard Hagen.

Mrs. Joe Knight gave a birthday party Monday afternoon for her youngest daughter, Joan, who was celebrating her seventh birthday that day. During the afternoon the children were entertained with games until time for the refreshments, which were served at a long table, prettily decorated with favors for each guest. Mrs. Knight was assisted by her daughter, Hallie. Guests present were Betty Lou and Phyllis May Christensen, Jessie Sherwood, Ruth English, Geraldine Cole, Patricia Brady, Patricia Barnes, Joan Williams, Ardella Shelley, Anna Lee Mannelin, Wanda Lee Bell, Laura Emily Ruble, Ivanelle Jackman, Kay Lealie, Agnes Dunkle, Maxine Knight and Rheo Walker.

There was an attendance of 25 or 30 garage operators and truck men at the "brake school," conducted by representatives of the Multibeston brake lining company at the Geo. F. Burr garage Wednesday evening. They were here from all parts of the county and the interest shown in the demonstrations and explanations indicated that the brake company was rendering a real service in conducting these schools.

Mrs. Caroline Harnden, of Story City, Iowa, but formerly of Coquille, was honor guest at a luncheon party given by Mrs. H. E. Hess at her home this afternoon. Guests included were members of the Justamere club of which Mrs. Harnden was a member before leaving Coquille. Those attending beside Mrs. Harnden were Mesdames J. A. Lamb, C. J. Fuhrman, Lyman Carrier, H. A. Young, Bert Folsom, J. L. Smith, Nels Osmundson, R. A. Wernich, F. L. Greenough, Paul Van Scoy, W. S. Sickels, and Mrs. E. E. Johnson, of Portland.

Thursday the Needle Workers club members and their children enjoyed an all-day picnic at Gerlach grove on the Fishtrap road, with about thirty attending. Several ladies from the Norway district enjoyed the day with them.

This evening a group of girls are meeting at the home of Miss Audrey Kendall on Spurgeon Hill. The guests are invited to come in costume.

It Was Suicide at Reedsport

Through fingerprints taken at Las Vegas, Nev., three years ago, the body found floating in the Umpqua at Reedsport early last week has been identified as that of Carl Johnson. The coroner's jury found it to be a case of suicide.

B. P. W. Meeting Monday

The regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club was held Monday evening in the Coquille Hotel.

A discussion of the lowering of dues for our local club was held and it was voted to leave dues for this year as they have been in the past.

Mrs. Leona Bryant and Harriet Gould spoke on the conference of clubs of Northern California, which they attended July 29 and 30, at Crescent City. They report there were many interesting speakers and that they gained much from attending the meeting.

Geo. Ulett, Jr., and Fred Fuhrman spoke to the club on their trip to and from The Century of Progress Exposition. Fred illustrated their talks with pictures he had taken. The boys certainly are well versed on the subject and the members present thoroughly enjoyed their resume.

Surprise Shower for Mrs. Close

A miscellaneous surprise shower was given at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Gregg, in honor of Annie Peart, last Friday. Many useful and pretty gifts were given her. Refreshments were served in the late afternoon to the following guests: Mesdames Millie Child, Jack Page, Madeline Bennett, Jackson, Jerry Peart, Grover McQuigg, Ernest Battey, Leland Peart, Joe Peart, C. Dondono, Clarabel McCool, Ira Chase, John McNair, Roy Tennant, Floyd Smith, Earl Schroeder, Mary Schroeder, Lloyd Gregg, E. W. Gregg, and the guest of honor who became the bride of Mr. C. E. Close last Saturday.

4-H Clubs to Try Out

4-H Clubs having demonstration teams desiring to try out for the State Fair will meet in the office of the county superintendent at 9:30 a. m. on the morning of Aug. 31st. This has been made necessary since the State Fair precedes the County Fair this year.

No 4-H Home Economic exhibits will be sent to the State Fair through the county superintendent, but those clubs desiring to send their exhibits direct may obtain rules, entry sheets and correct address from office of county superintendent. Since the State Fair convenes first this procedure was decided upon.

Clinton Family Reunion

A reunion of the Clinton family, the first time they had all been together in 28 years, was held at the Theodore Clinton home at Johnson Mill last Sunday, and was preceded by a dinner party at the John Belloni home in Myrtle Point the evening before. Those present were: Jas. D. Clinton, Mrs. A. J. Nussell of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nicholson and children, Jim Clinton and Geraldine Cole of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. John Belloni and Dolores, Bob, Phyllis and Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knight and Marjory, Hallie, Maxine and Joanne, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Clinton, Jack and Gretchen, and Alvin Shaver.

4 Injured, Car Drops 60 Feet

The four young women who were injured when their car skidded on the wet pavement of the bridge to Eastside last Saturday night, crashed through the railing of the approach and dropped sixty feet to the mudflats of Coos Bay, are all improving. The girls are Mrs. Mary Witty Bauer, of Milwaukie, Misses Hilda Alto, Impi Tapio and Catherine Witty, all of Eastside.
