

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. Caroline Lorenz enjoyed a pleasant day last Friday, August 25, which was her 84th birthday anniversary. Many of her friends dropped in for a few minutes during the afternoon to congratulate her and in the evening a family dinner was enjoyed with all her children around her but one daughter, Mrs. S. S. Norton, of Redding, Calif., who is expected here for a visit some time soon. Seated at the dinner were Mrs. Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hartson, Mr. and Mrs. George Lorenz, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Rietman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. Muri Pettit, Misses Avis and Virginia Hartson, Randolph Lorenz, and from Bandon, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore, Mr. Chas. Lorenz and Harry Lorenz.

On Monday Mrs. J. L. Aasen was hostess to the Ecadrien club members with Mrs. Frank Thrift and Mrs. Arthur Fish as extra guests, besides the members, Mesdames Roy Neal, Geo. Johnson, Willard Bosserman, Earl Nosler, J. E. Axtell and E. A. Walker.

A delightful luncheon party was given today by Mrs. O. C. Sanford and Mrs. Lloyd Rosa at which time they invited a group of Bandon ladies and a number of their daughters. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Sanford on South Elliott street. Those included were Mesdames R. H. Rosa, C. Y. Lowe, E. Capps, J. E. Walstrom, Lowell Simpson, L. J. Radley, Archie Rosa, H. E. Thrift, Thos. Robinson, Otto C. Shindler, W. J. Sweet, C. D. Garoutte, Robt. Norton, A. E. Walstrom, Misses Florence and Katherine Thrift, Helen Sweet, Leville Walstrom, Betty Rosa, Blanche Radley, all of Bandon, Miss Kate Rosa, of Portland, and Miss Evelyn Sorensen, of San Francisco.

On Wednesday Mrs. Julius Ruble, worthy matron, and Mr. Lafe Compton, worthy patron, of Beulah Chapter of Eastern Star Order, entertained with a luncheon party for the officers of the lodge and a few grand officers, at the home of Mrs. Ruble at 309 East Third street. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Monnie Hauser, grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon. The day was also Mrs. W. V. Glaisyer's birthday and she was greatly surprised when given a lovely handkerchief shower. Yellow marigolds were used in large clusters about the room, also in centering the large dining table where all the guests were seated. Those attending were Mesers. and Mesdames George A. Ulett, W. E. Bosserman, Lafe Compton and Mesdames W. V. Glaisyer, Hal Pierce, Bert Folsom, E. A. Woodyard, Theodore Clinton, R. E. Booher, E. A. Walker, C. W. Gano, Dop Estes, Roy Neal, C. A. Rietman, Julius Ruble and Miss Edna Robison. Guests from out-of-town were Mrs. Monnie Hauser and Mrs. Pearl Pratt, both of Salem.

Today Mrs. Frank L. Greenough and Mrs. Paul Van Seyo are entertaining at luncheon for the pleasure of Mrs. Caroline Harnden, of Story City, Iowa, who is expecting to leave for her home in a few days. Sewing was the diversion for the following invited ladies: Mesdames Caroline Harnden, Geo. Chaney, Nels Osmondson, F. S. Emery, Lafe Compton, R. A. Wernich, Roy Neal, H. E. Hess, C. J. Fuhrman, George Ulett, E. M. Kay, J. A. Lamb, C. J. Fuhrman, Bert Folsom, J. E. Paulson, Oliver Spires, H. A. Young, J. S. Barton, Henry Lorenz, and out-of-town guests, Mrs. Geo. Ulett and Mrs. Caroline Yutten, of Boston, Mass.

Wednesday evening of this week at the Young home the Pirate club girls enjoyed a dinner party given by Miss Carol Young, who is one of the members. It will be only a few days until a number of these girls will be leaving to attend out-of-town schools. Covers were laid for Misses Anna Barton, Elizabeth Pierce, Sarah Margaret Nye, Margaret Paulson, Beryl Uncoeld, Betty Glaisyer and Audrey Aasen.
