Wheeler and Woolsey in "Diplomaniacs" at Liberty Theatre Tonight—"Mama Loves Papa" Coming Sunday

Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey in one of the smart song and dance ensemble numbers in "Diplomaniacs" their new RKO-Radio musical comedy disturbance which fetches merriment to a new high on the screen.

"Diplomaniacs," hailed as a hilarious burlesque on world problems of the present day, embroidered with musical numbers and nonsensical situations, opens tonight at the Liberty Theatre.

It is the first tuneful show to be based on the well-known ineffectualities of the Peace Conferences and the aggravated pomp of some of its less notable delegates.

Its outstanding cast in "Diplomaniacs" is headed by Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey, those irrepressible RKO-Radio Picture comics.

Saturday night preview presents Faye Wray, Gene Raymond and Claire Dodd in "Ann Carver's Profession."

Mrs. Morrison Surprised

Tuesday morning Mrs. A. T. Morrison was happily surprised by having two carloads of Pythian Sisters, from Coquille, drop in on her at her beautiful home near Bandon. At noon a potluck lunch was served, to which all did justice. The afternoon was spent with fancy work and a trip through the cranberry bog.

When it came time to go all were invited to come again and the invitation was accepted by all. Those attending were Mrs. Morrison and daughter, Lois, Mesdames Frank Schram, Earl Cross, Ed Detlefsen, Fred Hickok, Blanche Davis, Roy Pettengill and Neil McGilvery.—Press Correspondent.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. Gertrude Lambrecht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Maiden, and William C. Ulett, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ulett, were quietly married at the Pioneer Methodist parsonage last Sunday morning, September 17, at 9:15 o'clock by Rev. P. D. Hartman. The ceremony was read in the presence of only members of the immediate families. The bride wore a becoming suit of a rich blue with steel gray hat and accessories of the same color. After the marriage a wedding breakfast was served at the Ulett beach cottage at Bandon with the bridal couple leaving immediately afterwards on a trip to northern points. Mr. and Mrs. Ulett will make their home in Coquille, where Mr. Ulett is employed in the Smith Wood Products plant.

Miss Jacqueline Holloway, bride-elect of Harold Carver of Myrtle Point, was complimented with a shower party given by a number of her friends yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. Carver's grandmother, Mrs. Arnold of Myrtle Point. A number of Coquille ladies attended the affair.

The Episcopal Guild ladies met Wednesday afternoon at their parish home with Mrs. Bert Folsom and Mrs. E. W. Lorenz as hostesses. Other members attending were Mesdames George Lorenz, E. L. Vinton, L. H. Hazard, Louis Charneski, H. E. Hess, Geo. W. Taylor Sr., Annie J. Robinson, C. T. Selbig, Murl Pettit and W. H. Mansell.

Members of the Just-amere club were pleasantly entertained at one o'clock luncheon yesterday by Mrs. Nelj Osmundson at her home on East Second street. On the luncheon table bouquets of marigold were used. Covers were laid for Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, H. A. Young, Bert Folsom, J. L. Smith, W. S. Sickels, Lyman Carrier, J. A. Lamb, F. L. Greenough, O. C. Sanford, H. W. Pierce, L. H. Hazard, Sarah Wickham, Paul Van Scoy and Mrs. E. E. Johnson, of Marshfield. In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. Van Scoy.

Last evening a group of Junior girls of the local high school met at seventy-three at the home of Esther Mansell. Games and conversation were the evening's diversion. In the group were Misses Gretchen Neal, Maxine Johnson, Alfreda Harry, Audrey Kendall, Anne Van Scoy, Harriet Webb, Faye Hurrel, Geraldine Minard, Helen Pinkston, Norene McKeown and Margaret Purvance.

Monday evening Mrs. C. A. Machon was given a little surprise party at her apartment by a few friends who knew that she was observing a birthday that day. The guests also presented her with a small token in honor of the occasion. Mr. Machon provided for a delicious midnight lunch, which was enjoyed by those present: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fortier, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Claver.

Mrs. Fred Hickok pleasantly entertained the Needle Workers club at her home Thursday afternoon with refreshments served to the following who attended: Mesdames Swain Donsted, E. C. Yarbrough, E. A. Wimer, Ray Simpson, Josh Ruble, Geo. Gilman, Jack Arnold, Ralph Taylor, Ed Detlefsen, W. E. Cross, Frank Pook and two extra guests, Mrs. Maurice Corthell and Mrs. Harold Simmons.

Cody Carlson Wins Case

The case of A. E. Seaman, of Marshfield, against Clyde Carlson, of Bandon, was tried in Justice court here Thursday before a jury composed of R. B. Knife, E. A. Walker, Keith Leslie, S. M. Noeler, Mrs. Margaret Steamer and Mrs. Maud Howell. Mr. Seaman appeared in person and was assisted by Horace Byler, who made his maiden speech before a jury. Grant Orby was for the defense.

The case arose over an insurance policy written by John Neilson, of Bandon, for Mr. Carlson and which Mr. Carlson claimed to have told Mr. Neilson beforehand that he did not want. The claim had been assigned to Mr. Seaman and the action was brought in his name as the nominal plaintiff, although Mr. Neilson was the real party in interest. The amount involved was only $8.35.

The jury was out but a short time when it brought in a unanimous verdict for Mr. Carlson.

Wesley Seaman appeared of record as the attorney for his father in this case, but he had just knocked down a four point buck up at his South Coos river ranch that morning and was not in condition (undoubtedly a severe case of nerves) to try this case, so the father was compelled to try his own case.

B. & P. W. Entertains Teachers and Others

A very pleasant reception for the lady teachers and other business and professional women of Coquille was given by the Business & Professional Women's Club last Monday evening.

The dining room of the hotel had been artistically decorated with greens and large baskets of flowers for the occasion. The Research committee, composed of Inez Chase, Bertha Norton and Ruth Beyers, greeted the guests as they arrived at the hotel. Each guest was given a corsage, these being pinned on by Katherine Jane Hassler, Clara Bosserman, Ula Leach, Laura McLeod and Jennie Lindros.

The Reception committee was composed of Belle Gould, president, and Leona Bryant and Bertha Smith, past presidents.

Inez Rover played the piano while guests were arriving and were being seated. Mrs. Chase, chairman of the Research committee, presided for the following program:

Greetings—Belle Gould, president.

Piano Duet, "Moon Rocket, a March" and "Shooting Stars."

"Vocation Plus Avocation" was given by Leona Bryant, past president.

Mrs. Lyman Carrier, accompanied by Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, sang the following solos: "May Day Song" and "Night Wind."

"The Ten Year Objective," the plan now being followed by the National Business and Professional Women's Club was discussed by Bertha J. Smith, past president.

"Requiem" and "On the Road to Mandalay" were given by Heinz Huebner, accompanied by Mrs. E. A. Woodyard.

A brief talk on "How and Why This Club was Organized" was given by Ruth Beyers, our first president.

Mrs. E. A. Woodyard, accompanied by Edythe Farr, gave the following selections, "Wings of Night" and "Little Grey Dove."

After the program punch and wafers were served by Inez Chase and Bertha Norton and the following fortune tellers told the future: Ida Owen with fortune telling cards; Ruth Beyers with playing cards; and Maude Woodyard by reading palms.

The following guests attended: Jeanette Pook, Elizabeth Pierce, Gertrude Tway, Bernice Eggleston, Mrs. C. M. Hodgdon, Mrs. Annie Robinson, Anna Jersyk, Edythe Farr, Mrs. Lyman Carrier, Mrs. Geo. A. Ulett, Mrs. E. A. Woodyard, Mrs. Lela Elrod, Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, Mrs. Lafe Compton, Mrs. Wood, Hazel Adams, Letta Wallace, Rosabel Shone, Mrs. Edith Walton, Mrs. Mae Waggoner, Mrs. J. S. Barton, Charlotte Andrews, Dean Harding, Mrs. Marie Stewart, Florence Hill, Jean Hill, Phyllis Hall.

Members were present as follows: Mesdames Ruth Beyers, Clara Bosserman, Leona Bryant, Saima Caughell, Inez Chase, Belle Gould, Vivalene Jackman, Ula Leach, Martha Mulkey, Viola Newton, Bertha Norton, Ida Owen, Jennie Price, Georgia Richmond, Bertha Smith, Isabel Unsoeld and Misses Harriet Gould, Katherine Jane Hassler, Jennie Lindros, Kathleen McClintock, Laura McLeod, Frances Oddy Edna Robinson, Inez Rover and Helen Stanbrough.

Preceding the reception the following short business session was conducted:

Laura McLeod, one of the club members, was chosen by unanimous vote as the candidate for queen for the Harvest Festival Dance by the Business and Professional Women's Club.

According to the finance committee plans for the dance are progressing nicely.

The name of Marguerite Agostino was presented to the club for membership.

A note of thanks was ordered written Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Compton, who so generously let the club use the hotel rooms as a meeting place during the summer months.

Printed programs were ordered bought giving the date of each meeting and the committee responsible for the evening for the ensuing year.

Honors Friend With a Dance

A very pleasant dancing party was that given by Harlo Call in I. O. O. F. hall, Tuesday evening, in honor of Heinz P. Heubner who has spent the summer with him here.

There were fifty couples present and for those who did not dance, jigsaw puzzles and bridge were available.

A four-piece orchestra provided the music for the brilliant affair, and several vocal numbers were rendered by Mrs. E. A. Woodyard.

Decorations consisted of baskets of flowers and fern and the splendid floor, beautiful decorations and excellent music made the time pass all too quickly.

Refreshments consisted of ginger ale and orange sherbet punch and cookie wafers.

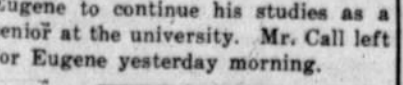

Mr. Heubner, who is a native of Germany, expects to leave Oct. 1 for Eugene to continue his studies as a senior at the university. Mr. Call left for Eugene yesterday morning.

Pioneer Missionary Society

A very pleasant and profitable meeting of the Pioneer Missionary society was held at the home of Mrs. C. T. Skeels Thursday afternoon. The devotional lesson, "Christ's Attitude toward Women," was led by Mrs. Lee Neeley and Mrs. E. Purvance.

Mrs. Lyman Carrier, who was one of the group attending the Northwest Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South at Troy, Idaho, last August gave during the lesson hour a comprehensive and entertaining sketch of the great work that is being accomplished by the Woman's Missionary Society of that body. It was a very fine report and was listened to with rapt attention. Mrs. P. D. Hartman, Mrs. E. Purvance and Mrs. Jas. Richmond, who were in attendance at the conference, also added a few words of information. The lesson hour was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Hartman.

During the afternoon a ladies' quartette consisting of Mesdames Lyman Carrier, Paul Walker, J. L. Aasen and Birdie Skeels sang two beautiful selections, "De Coppa Moon" by Shelley and "Strumming" by Wood, much to the delight of all. Mrs. M. O. Hawkins was the accompanist.

Later tea was served by the hostesses, Mesdames G. H. Tillman, Kenneth Lawrence, S. M. Nosleg and J. L. Smith, to those attending: Mesdames P. D. Hartman, J. S. Houch, M. W. Way, B. A. Davis, James Richmond, Henry Ellis, E. Purvance, Frank Leslie, R. E. Boober, A. T. Morrison, Geo. Wilkins, W. E. Thompson, Kenneth Thompson, Lee Neeley, Alex Peterson, J. L. Aasen, R. B. Rogers, Lyman Carrier, Paul Walker, M. O. Hawkins, Miss Bonnie Gage, Mrs. Alfred Winder, of Waterloo, Iowa, and Mrs. J. P. Gould, of Harlan, Iowa, and the hostess, Mrs. Skeels.
