Mrs. Phoebe Harry, of Coquille, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Alford.

Bridge Happenings

The Bridge Grange participated in the nation-wide Booster night contest, by putting on a very interesting program Saturday evening, Sept. 30, to which a number of guests had been invited. A pot-luck dinner was served at 7:30, in the attractively decorated dining room. The tables were prettily decorated with pumpkins, hollowed out and filled with peaches, apples, grapes and other fruit. After the meal the following program was presented in the hall:

Grange Booster song, led by Marvel Brode.

National Master Taber's Speech, read by the lecturer, Beth Culver.

Piano solo, "A Delightful Day," by Marjorie Van Alstein.

Talk by the Grange Master, Henry Brownson.

Reading, "Encouragement" by Constance Knight.

Zither solo and encore, by Mrs. H. Koch.

Whistle and song number, by Mary Louise Culver and Lynn Orilee Culver.

Talk, "N. R. A. and its Effect on Agriculture," by Chas. F. Gilroy.

Group of songs by Marvel Brode.

Reading, "My Dad," and encore, "I Love Oregon," by Alvin Allen.

"Dissertation on Silence" by Dwight Culver and Harold James.

Group of readings by Lou Hooton.

Debate, "Resolved, A man should be boss in his own home." Affirmative, Henry Brownson; negative, Elise Lamp. The negative won.

Reading by John Koch.

A number of hilarious contests completed the evening's entertainment. The next regular meeting of the Grange will be held on Friday evening, Oct. 6.

Miss Winifred Clayton, who is attending high school in Myrtle Point and staying with Mrs. Sarah Williams, visited Sunday with her folks at their home on Rock Creek.

Mrs. Wm. Brown, who spent the latter part of the summer at Powers where her husband is employed, returned Saturday to her home here.

Mrs. Elise Lamp, primary teacher in the Bridge school, arrived Thursday of last week from Oswego, Oregon, where she spent the summer with her mother and her little daughter. Mrs. Lamp is boarding at the Fred Scofield home this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnett and niece, Miss Esther Barnett, of Arago, were dinner guests Sunday at the Dwight Culver home. In the evening the two families motored to Empire where they spent the night and dug clams Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Laswell returned to Bridge last week from Lebanon, where they spent the summer vacation with Mrs. Laswell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Walker. They are living again in the Clarke house which they occupied last winter. Mr. Laswell is principal of the Bridge school.

Miss Dorothy Hooton has been employed on private duty at the Mast Hospital in Myrtle Point, since Sunday morning.

As there will be no church service next Sunday the Christian Endeavor meeting will be held after Sunday School, instead of in the evening.

Ray L. Beckett is building a house on his property, adjoining the O. W. Heath place.

News Notes From Powers

Mrs. George Dwyer and the children have returned to Powers for the winter. Mr. Dwyer is engaged with the local 3-C camp. The children entered school Tuesday.

Pat Dillon, who came in from Johnson creek, for Dan Martin's funeral, remained with friends in town for the week.

Kenneth Kendall was painfully hurt while working on Eden ridge for the C. B. L. Co. Tuesday. He was taken to the hospital. He received a bad cut on his chin.

The different committees are busily engaged arranging for the Coos County Federated clubs convention, which will be held in Powers Wednesday, Oct. 11. The club session will be held in the Gym, and the luncheon will be at the Fellowship hall. Dressing rooms will be provided at the same place, which is just across the street from the Gym.

The Royal Neighbors are giving another dance Saturday evening in the Gym. Neighbors from all over southern Oregon will be in attendance.

The Powers Woman's Club met in regular session Wednesday, with Mrs. Floyd Eaton and Mrs. Henry Moe as joint hostesses. After the regular business meeting at which the first vice president, Mrs. Clare Lemonowsky, presided. A very interesting program arranged by Mrs. Albert Powers was given. The subject, "Marriage" was handled in a very interesting manner. Mrs. Bill Marsee then played a wedding march. Later each member told where she had met her husband and how long she had been married. Mrs. Ida Mathews had been married 44 years, while Mrs.

Allan Smith was the bride of two and one-half years.

Jack Wilson, of Bandon, who visited in Powers last week, went to Wilson Prairie to visit his birthplace where in 1860 he and his twin sister, Clara Lee, were born. They moved from there to Calf ranch when they were six years old. This is the first time he had ever visited the place of his birth. Some of the old logs, white cedar by the way, of the old cabin are still there in place. And the rocks from the fireplace are still there, where they were placed by the builder over seventy years ago.

The Junior High basket ball team were out for practice in force Monday evening. Howard Varney, the fourth grade teacher, will coach this team. We will give you a line-up later.

The old Hut building is now the home of the 3-C camp. The boys are working on the river road. There are five trucks graveling the new road bed. Gravel is being taken from the Tom Hayes place.

The Forest Service is now sending crews into the mountains for the winter work.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Delp died at Eden Valley. This was the first white child ever born in Eden valley. Although a rugged, nine-pound baby, he contracted pneumonia and died before it was possible to have a doctor. He was buried in Eden Valley.
