THE 1ST THING I'M GOING TO BUY—IS A MAYTAG

"With prices going up I want to buy a lot of things. But not another thing till I get a Maytag. Because with a Maytag, I can save money to buy other things."

- That's sensible buying. Because it is buying quality you can use—quality that pays a weekly return on your money.
- The Maytag washes clothes faster, washes them more thoroughly, more gently and at lower cost per washing because it is a better designed, better built washer.
- Select your Maytag at today's low prices.

The Maytag Company
Manufacturers
Founded 1895 NEWTON, IOWA

You can still buy a Maytag for as little as $74.50

For homes with out electricity, this Maytag may be had with General Motors Motor at slight additional cost.

Bridge Happenings

Miss Dorothy Hooton is employed this week at the Mast hospital in Myrtle Point.

The Loyal Temperance Legion held an interesting meeting Saturday afternoon at the Hatcher home, with Miss Mae Hatcher in charge. At the close, refreshments were served to those present, who were Virginia and Wilda Beckett, Betty Doney, Bonnie Jean Billings, Anna Culver, Mary Alice Corpe and Mary Louise Culver.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hooton were honored Sunday with a dinner, given by their daughters, in honor of their 38th wedding anniversary. Seated around the table were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roselle and daughter, Miss Pearl, of Broadbent; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lett and son, Orlin; Mrs. B. F. Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Hooton and daughters, Lou, Maude and Dorothy. Evening guests at the home were M. O. Hooton and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Hooton and children, Beth and Kenneth, of Coquille, and Junior Bartlett, of Bridge.

The Grange met Friday evening for their regular meeting. It was decided to put on a booth at the Corn Show next month, and the members are asked to bring their non-perishable exhibits to the next meeting, Nov. 3, and the perishable articles will be gathered up later. The program theme was "Neighbors" and the following numbers were presented: Grange song, with "grand right and left" march and hand shaking. Roll call, "My idea of a good neighbor." This brought forth many humorous, clever and helpful thoughts. An interesting book review on "Red Bread" by Hindus, was given by the lecturer, Beth Culver. Original poems and reminiscences, by Chas. F. Gilroy, in his usual pleasing manner. An interesting letter to the Grange, from a former member, Miss Alma Larkins, was read by Mrs. Wm. R. Brown. Song, "The More We Get Together." Refreshments were served by Mrs. H. A. Hatfield and Mrs. Wm. R. Brown. The serving committee appointed for the next meeting is Beth Culver, Lavina James and Velma Johnson.

Harry Brownson, Mrs. M. Brownson and Mrs. Carrie Benham spent Sunday with the Tom Benham family at Fairview.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Billings and daughter, Bonnie Jean, were here from Crescent City the past week-end.

Mrs. Stanley Lake is appointed to lead the Christian Endeavor meeting next Sunday, the topic being "Commerce and Mission—Allies or Enemies?"

Notes From Norway

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. J. H. McCloskey, of Norway, entertained the Norway community club and also the Arago community club at a very pleasant shower for a young Norway bride-to-be, Miss Norma Lett. There were about 45 ladies present and Miss Lett received very many beautiful and useful gifts. The living room was very beautifully decorated for the occasion. A table of flowers, with a miniature bride, was placed at the front and a large basket at the foot wherein the many gift boxes were held. A very delicious lunch was served after everyone had seen all the gifts.

Thursday afternoon the Myrtle Point-Coquille Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. Ray Rickman, of Myrtle Point. Five tables of bridge were played after a delicious dessert luncheon had been served by the gracious hostess.

Teachers' Institute Today

The County Teachers' Institute convened in the Armory in Marshfield at 9:15 this morning. State Supt. Howard and Dr. Norman F. Coleman, of Reed College, are the outside speakers. Mr. Howard spoke on "The Effect of Recent Federal Legislation on the Schools," and Dr. Coleman showed motion pictures of Russia. During his second period Dr. Coleman's subject was "Dictatorship at Close Range."

J. H. Fasnacht, of Bandon, presided at the business session, as president of the county division. Guy Mauney, of North Bend, is secretary and Ida Gamble, vice-president.

Pioneer Missionary Society

Mrs. James Richmond opened her home for the Pioneer Church missionary tea last Thursday afternoon which was attended by over fifty ladies. A tinge of sadness pervaded the meeting as all realized they must soon part with their pastor and his wife, who had labored so faithfully among them for more than two years but whose failing health necessitated his removal to a higher altitude.

Mrs. J. L. Aasen, James Wheeler and James Richmond, hostesses for the tea, served a delicious luncheon. Before departing for their homes the ladies presented Mrs. Hartman with a lovely gift as a token of their love and esteem. The gift was accompanied by the following lines:

A little gift for one who's been so faithful and so true.
You've proved to be a friend, indeed.
We're all so fond of you.

We hate to have you leave us.
You've grown right in our heart,
But as the old, old saying goes,
The best of friends must part.

May God's richest blessing
Abide with you both alway,
And may we hope to meet again
In not too distant day.

Mrs. Hartman responded in an appreciative way and expressed her regret at having to leave the church and friends here.

Those present during the afternoon were Mesdames B. A. Davis, W. E. Thompson, J. S. Houck, O. O. Lund, C. W. Gano, W. A. Ireland, Warren Davis, Alex Peterson, Henry Belloni, Emma Martindale, J. S. Houdyshell, R. E. Boober, Julius Ruble, Charles Oerding, T. Stevens, L. W. Oddy, Lee Neeley, D. D. Dale, Birdie Skeels, Kenneth Thompson, E. Purvance, Henry Ellis, Geo. Wilkins, R. B.
