

YOUR BRAKES MAY GRIP But Will Your Tires?

On the slippery and darker roads of winter, you need the deep-biting, sure - holding grip of new Good-years — and you need protection from fire changes in the cold.

You can get that protection about as cheaply as a year ago—and still have tires almost like new next Spring because new rubber lasts longer on cool roads.

Be wise — invest now in new Good-years, ride safely, save money. This will be the 18th winter that more people rely on Good-years than on any other tire. Let us show you why!

The Sentinel's All-County Football Team for '33

is head and shoulder above his opponents in one phase of the play he might possibly gain a position through these channels, such as exceptional efficiency in blocking or generalship will often place a man, but generally all around ability is the deciding factor.

There is little use of going into detail in explaining the above selections. Most of the fans realize the respective ability of each choice, and because of the fact that steady, reliable work — yet outstanding performance coupled with the versatility—were the thought kept in mind in sifting the grideters, we believe that not too many changes could be made by other selectors.

Of the first stringers Plaep's inspirational defensive play while on an inexperienced, losing club gives him a slight edge over Steiner. The guards, McCue and Diehl, captains of their teams, overshadow the other candidates. Breuer, the pass-catching tackle, is also much better than any other who played that position, but at the other tackle quite a job in deciding on the final choice was encountered, the untiring Bullard getting the nod. Morris gave the first team ends a real run, but Hall's punting along with his other fine traits and Hansen's consistency move them ahead.

Many excellent backs graced the lineups of the clubs this fall. Of them Harrison, Marshfield's elusive, hard-running ball carrier, who started the season as a substitute, is perhaps the best. Davis met opposition, but here versatility is the point which give him the odds. He is, perhaps, the best defensive back in the county, as well as a punter, passer, and ball carrier, making him a quadruple threat, his diminutive size somewhat retarding him, however.

Marshfield's team was as inexperienced as any at the start of the schedule, and it is because Chan, the mite quarterback, commanded the champions so well that he gains the nod over Smith. Young is almost as good as Strom, but the versatility of the latter pulls him through. He can not only hit the line hard, as can Young, but can also run well in the open field, a department in which the Bandon smasher falls down.

On some mythical teams a player is sometimes shifted from one position to another. Football is one sport in which it is unjust to do this, and therefore, it should be noticed that every player on the teams named here is in the position which he played regularly all season.

A rating of the county teams by the sports department naturally gives Marshfield first place, while among the other squads, Bandon is second, North Bend and Coquille are tied for third and fourth, and Myrtle Point is fifth. Bandon is not far behind the leaders in actual ability, though North Bend and Coquille do not rank in a like comparison to Bandon. Of the twenty-two men placed, seven are from Marshfield, six from Bandon, four from North Bend, three from Coquille, and two from Myrtle Point.

Sport Briefs

(By Mark Seeley)

Actual organized basketball practice has not started as yet in the air of the Red Devil athletes, though for the past week Coach Hartley has been instructing those lads who were not out for football in the first fundamentals of the court game. This he hopes will enable the initial group to gain a physical condition somewhat equal to the others, while at the same time giving the footballists a much needed rest.

Monday evening, however, the following experienced performers will be together for rehearsal: Earl Morris, forward; Bob Collier, guard; Morse Stoncypher, forward and center; and Joe Davis, forward, all lettermen, the first three of the local squad last season and the fourth of the North Bend 1933 championship quintet. Added to this double brace will be a huge number of "B" squaders who will be making a bid for places on the "A" lineup. Collier will not be eligible until the mid term, leaving two spots to fill instead of one, though again, it cannot be predicted what might take place if some quick developing aspirant began to pre-empt a varsity member. Coach Hartley generally has his eyes on quality alone and is not a bit backward about making replacements.

The Hartley basketeers and quintets have met with high success since the Willamette University product came to Coquille. While attending the Salem institution he participated in all sports, particularly shining on the maple floor. It is natural, therefore, that he has mentored his Red Devil quintets with the greater ability. Every term since and including the 1930 five, his first, has been a one, two, three contender. On two occasions during this four-year stand, 1930 and last March, Coquille was one of the schools to be represented in the tournament finals. Success this winter depends largely on the development of a center to replace Linus Seeley, all-county and all-tournament performer, who graduated. The other vacancies left by graduation of first stringers saw the departure of Alvin Shaver, guard, and Jack McCarthy, forward, while on top of this three of the reserves used last season have also gone, they being Gus Gailas, Glas Gould and De Loe Shinn.

According to reports the Reedsport-Marshfield game last Saturday on Golden Field was one of the best played during the season. For three quarters the teams battled without scoring, Reedsport having an edge in the first half. In the final quarter, however, the Pirate clicked to the tune of two touchdowns and an extra point which decided the fray, 13 to 0.

I look at the Christmas Seal and say: "This friend who remembereth me, Hath also the thought of the sick to-day, Wherever they chance to be. And he giveth not only to cheer his own, But to all who hath need in his mercy shown."

DON'T GET UP NIGHTS

Lax the Bladder With Juniper Oil, Buchu, Etc. Drive out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder laxative, also containing Buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep. Hudson's Drug Store says "Bukets" is a best seller.
