ankles, but when the strings are cinched around the shoe tops the stripe will become narrower.

The jerseys and playing pants have an hourglass effect, that is to say, v-shaped gray portions on the uppers and lower meet at the belt in both the front and back.

The old saying says that "clothes don't make the man." Earl Morris and Joe Davis, forwards; Jim Robinson, center; and Bob Collier and Morris Stonecypher, guards, realize this only too well. Tuesday night this quintet and the reserves, Bob Bailey, Louie Donaldson, Harry Kelley, Jess Barton and Don Hickam, are going to let Myrtle Point and the fans admire the attire. The hoopsters are going to admire only the art of hitting the basket.

There will be the usual preliminary between the "B" teams, starting at 7:00 p. m.

Coquille's second encounter will be with Marshfield on January 19, and again on the home floor. C. H. S. is getting a break by this arrangement in that the boys will have the advantage of their home court and be able to shake off the early season uncertainties before going out of town.

B. P. W. Meeting January 15

The next regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club will take place at the Coquille Hotel, January 15th, at 8 p. m. The Legislative Committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Bertha Smith will have charge of the program and a very special one has been arranged. Every member is urged to bring a guest as this meeting has been designated as Guest Night.

Bargain Rates on the Journal

Bargain Day rates on the Oregon Journal start next Thursday and continue until Feb. 3. During that period we will accept subscriptions at the following rates—daily and Sunday $6.30; daily only, $4.50; Sunday only, $2.25. These rates are for one year each, and for mail subscriptions only.

Chadwick Lodge, A. F. & A. M.

A special communication of Chadwick Lodge No. 68, A. F. & A. M., will be held in Masonic Hall next Tuesday evening. Work in the master's degree.

Quelling Noise

The tranquility of a home is dependent upon many things according to whether this peacefulness is of the mind or the body. It is also true that disturbance in either realm affects the other. Unnecessary chatter, for example, is annoying and distracting alike. It lags the nerves and turns the attention from what one is doing, or diverts a train of thought which may be arriving at an important decision or discovery.
