

MANY OF OUR CUSTOMERS Say

"Your New
Goodyear Pathfinder is the best buy on the market"

• We've made a lot of friends by sizing up their driving needs and recommending the new improved Goodyear Pathfinders. In many cases they provide all the tire service a driver can use—and if that's our opinion for your car,
we'll honestly say so.
Come in and talk it over, no obligation.

High Quality at Medium Price

4.40-21	$5.55
4.50-21	6.30
4.75-19	6.70
5.00-19	7.20
5.25-18	8.10
5.50-19	9.40

Other sizes in proportion. Tires expertly mounted free.

Prices subject to change without notice and to any state sales tax

Coquille Service Station

Phone 133

Live News From Arago

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barklow were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Butler, of Coquille.

Mrs. Grover McQuigg and son, Alvin, of Coquille, visited friends and relatives on Fishtrap Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Knabe entertained as dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Laakey, of North Bend, and Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Cornwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beal, of North Bend, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Collier.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lane, of Coquille, were dinner guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Myers.

A delightful day was spent at the Arago community church Sunday. After the morning services, a potluck dinner was enjoyed by a group of 150, the occasion being the regular executive meeting of Myrtle Union, which was held in the afternoon, with the president, Mrs. Myrtle Benham, as chairman.

About sixty members from other churches were present, representing practically all Christian Endeavors of the county. Very satisfactory reports were given by the delegates and a general business meeting followed. The next meeting will be held at the Presbyterian church in North Bend March 11.

The ladies of the Aid and Missionary societies of Arago community church met at the home of Mrs. Albert Lillie for a union meeting one day this week. Sewing for the Aid and a potluck dinner was held at noon. In the afternoon the regular business meeting of the missionary society was held. The meeting was opened with a scripture reading by Mrs. Ernest Watkins. Reading of the minutes then followed by the secretary, Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward, and a prayer by Rev. Mallory Flanagan, of Coquille.

A solo by Mrs. S. C. McAllister was followed by readings on foreign missions by Mrs. Ernest Weibe, Mrs. Nile Miller, Mrs. Naomi Robison, Mrs. C. E. Schroeder, Mrs. Mallory Flanagan. Those present were Mesdames Ernest Weibe, Chas. Webb, C. E. Schroeder, W. B. Farrier, A. L. Billings, Albert Gulstrom, George Hampton, Mary Kribbs, S. C. McAllister, C. A. Keltner, J. L. Burtie, J. D. Carl, O. H. Aasen, Mallory Flanagan, Naomi Robison, M. B. Mix, Nile Miller, Alma Halter, Ernest Watkins, S. L. Lafferty, Tyrrell Woodward, Turner MacDonald and Messrs. Nile Miller, T. B. MacDonald and Rev. Mallory Flanagan.

Mrs. E. E. Schroeder and grandson, Kent Hickam, are spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Burbank, of Johnson Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Clinton and daughter, Jean, enjoyed the Bandon beach Sunday afternoon.

The birthdays of Mrs. Gordon Fleming and Lois Schroeder were the inspiration for a handkerchief and tea towel shower at the Schroeder home Friday afternoon, February 10. Handkerchiefs were given Miss Schroeder and tea towels to Mrs. Fleming.

Those present were Mrs. Lloyd Oddy, Mrs. Orville Newton, Mrs. Earl Cross, Lavern Knife, Lodema, Yvonne and Wallace Cross, of Coquille, Mrs. J. L. Burtis, Mrs. Naomi Robison, Mrs. Albert Gulstrom, Mrs. O. H. Aasen, Mrs. Ruth Shaw, Freida Schroeder, Alma Fleming, Lois Schroeder, Mrs. Emily Hickam, Mrs. Mary Kribbs, Mrs. Frank Burbank, Mrs. Gordon Fleming and Mrs. C. E. Schroeder.

William Petty, of Eugene, was an overnight guest Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. George Zinslerling.

Mr. and Mrs. Colestead, of Coquille, are visiting at the Jesse Robison home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnett and niece, Esther, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George Hermann, of Broadbent.

Frank Burbank, Luke Myers, Harvey Myers, and Oliver Myers spent Sunday trying their skill at archery at the A. C. Chase home in Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fleming and son, Donald, Alma Fleming and Frieda Schroeder were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schroeder.

George Hampton left Wednesday for La Grande where he will attend the forty-first annual meeting of the Oregon Dairymen's association, February 16 and 17.

Legion Auxiliary Initiates Seven

The American Legion Auxiliary's regular business meeting was held Monday evening. Seven new members were initiated, making a total of fifty-two, or nineteen over last year's membership. New members are Pearl Ruble, Bessie Cooper, Ruby Woodward, Marie Painter, Vera Pook, Thelma Dale and Billie Green. Elsie Cunningham forfeited the attendance prize of $5.80.

Rose Johnston, Americanism chairman, sponsored a program for the Legion and Auxiliary as follows: Gettysburg Address - Bonnie Gage; Life of Lincoln - Irene Kendall; Group of songs - Audrey Aasen; Edith Foss and Margaret Purvance.

Solo Legion Commander Dave Rackleff. Group singing concluded the program and refreshments were served.

Former Resident Dies in Arizona
Writing to change the address of her Sentinel from Tucson to Ruby, Ariz., Mrs. Chas. N. Garden states that Mr. Garden passed away Jan. 1. They formerly lived at Coaledo and had been in Arizona for two or three years.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Mrs. Lou Rose, of Marshfield, spent Tuesday at the home of her friend, Mrs. S. C. Braden.

Mrs. W. Fite was able to leave the Keizer hospital Tuesday afternoon and return to her home in Myrtle Point. She is recovering from a goitre operation.

Max Dement was able to leave the Mast hospital Tuesday and return to his home. He is getting along as well as could be expected. His sister, Mrs. Carrie Moomaw, of Hubbard, is here helping care for him.

Alberta Volkmar has gone to Bandon to spend several weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. Bradburn.

Mrs. Huntley left Friday for Canyonville, called there by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Russell.

Mrs. Elson Emmerson and Miss Goldie Childs, of Pacific Union College, California, were in town Thursday enroute to Coquille called there by the serious illness of their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bennett spent the week-end in Salem visiting at the home of Mrs. Bennett's parents.

Cecil Barker and Delores Belloni returned to Eugene Sunday after spending the week-end at the homes of their parents.

Mrs. R. L. Tucker was able to leave the Mast hospital Sunday and return to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Carver, Katie Guerin and Ray Morrison spent Sunday on Bandon beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown entertained at a six o'clock dinner Wednesday evening for Miss Gertrude Bogard and Mack Mousen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Eades returned to their home at Eckley Tuesday after spending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Parry.

Mrs. J. M. Myers and daughter, Melba, went to Roseburg Sunday evening, taking Michel Myers out. Mitchell will make a trip to California with his truck.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Huling returned the last of the week from a week's stay in Portland, where they attended the Northwest Hardware convention.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Dietz received word from their son, Golan, that he has been promoted to a corporal. He is in the Marine corps base at San Diego, California.

Al Miller received word of the death of his sister, Mrs. Jeannette Pessley at Palo Alto, California, on February 7. Mrs. Pessley was once a resident of this section, living on the farm now owned by T. M. Stover.

Mrs. W. M. Barger left Monday for Halls Creek, where she will spend several days at the home of her friend, Mrs. Watkins.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carver returned to Tyee after spending a few days in Myrtle Point, looking after business affairs.

Mrs. Guy Woodcock, of Portland, visited several days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Roy Garrett, and is spending this week with relatives at Broadbent.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barklow returned to their home at Port Orford, after a few days' visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Snyder are having a fish pond and rockery made at their home on the Roseburg highway, just out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carter returned to their home at Beaverton, after spending a few days in Myrtle Point visiting friends and relatives.

Richard Sumerlin, son of Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Sumerlin, is having a severe attack of whooping cough and was on Thursday taken to the Mast hospital for medical treatment.

C. A. Poppe returned to the OCC camp at Tyee after a few days' visit at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Poppe.

Mrs. Lily Fish went to Marshfield this week to visit her sister. She will also visit her son, Clarence, at Empire before returning home.

Riverton News

Two of our girls won very creditable recognition this week when they helped to win for Coquille the county championship for debate. The two girls are Leavelle Walstrom and Cherie Mae Hartwell, who are attending Coquille High this year.

Cherie Mae is sixteen years old and a senior. Leavelle is fifteen years old and a sophomore. The girls were directed by Miss Hill, who proved herself a past master, as both her teams won the county championships. Our girls were on the affirmative side of the question.

Mrs. Ray Rickman motored down from Myrtle Point Friday morning to visit with her father, Mr. Bumgardner.

Those from here attending the debate in Coquille Wednesday night were Mr. and Mrs. Almer Walstrom, Mrs. A. C. Dye, Miss Marie Dye, Miss Eleanor Hellman, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hartwell, Miles and Grant Hartwell, and Frederick Beck.

Mr. Beck, together with Alvin Allen from Arago and Joe McKown from Marshfield acted as judges.

Eugene Smith, Isaac Watson and Melvin Hayter left last Saturday for the Grant Pass country, where they expect to do gold-mining for some time. Mr. Hayter and Mr. Smith had been in there previously.

Your Grocer

is an important factor in your daily life. The selecting and handling of the foods your family eats may well be left in the hands of experts. We are qualified by years of experience and the study of food lines to provide this service.

Our goods are all priced as low as they can be handled. We try to make your monthly food budget provide you with the most in satisfactory food value.

And with this we give you

Service that Satisfies!

Phone
69

Busy Corner Grocery

Free
Delivery

Our basket ball boys went to Powers last Friday night and engaged in very stiff games with the teams there. Our first teams won 27 to 11. But the "B" squad lost to their "B" squad 13 to 25. Tonight (Friday) Arago plays two games with our boys here.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Willard have named their little son William Earl. Mrs. Willard was formerly Lorena Knight.

Mrs. Retha Watson, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Art McMillan of Powers, returned to her home here last Friday.

Mr. Land and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Goudy, of Creswell, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Beck.

Mrs. Land, who has been with her daughter, Mrs. Beck, for the last week, accompanied her husband and the Goudys home. Mrs. Beck and Beverly Lucile also went out with them. They will visit there until Mr. Beck goes out for them next week end.

Bridge Happenings

Mrs. E. F. Wood, of Ilwaco, Wash., arrived Saturday night for a two weeks' visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. O. W. Heath. This is the first time the sisters had been together in twelve years.

The pulpit of the Community church here will be filled by Turner B. MacDonald next Sunday at 11 a. m., and Mrs. MacDonald plans to make a chalk picture, illustrating the song, "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown?" Christian Endeavor will be held at 6:30 p. m. The topic is, "How to Master Temptation," and W. A. Lett is the appointed leader.

Herbert Inks has returned to his home at Terrebonne after spending a few days here.

David Brown, of Weeton, Ore., who came to Coos county in connection with the Hartley trial, is spending the week at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Heath.

Roy S. Luttrell and daughter, Margaret, and Miss Martha Gustafson went to Sitkum Friday, where they were dinner guests at the Elmer Wilson home. Miss Gustafson, who recently closed a four weeks evangelistic meeting in this community, remained at Sitkum to conduct a campaign there.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Culver were in North Bend Friday, visiting Mrs. Culver's brother, Glenn Hutton, who recently submitted to an operation on his knee, at the Keizer Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scofield were Port Orford visitors the past week end.

The Christian Endeavor Study class will meet Friday evening at Hooton's Haven. Those who are in the class are Mrs. W. A. Lett, Orin Lett, Mae Hatcher, Evelyn Beckett, Mrs. A. O. Hooton, Lou and Maude Hooton. It is planned to complete the course next week.

The Woman's Civic club met last week and again this week at the home of Mrs. W. H. Huff for a quilting bee. The quilt was pieced last winter by the 4-H club girls.

Mrs. Hattie Hatcher was a business visitor in Coquille last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lett spent the past week-end at Norway, visiting at the Lizzie Lett and Emil Petersen homes.

News Notes From Powers

The Mystic Club, composed of ladies of the Eastern Star, gave a very enjoyable card party Tuesday evening at the Fellowship hall. Fourteen tables of contract, auction and pinocle were in play during the evening. High scores went to the following: auction, Mrs. Fred Stock and Mr. Shephard; contract, C. E. Otis and Mrs. Allison Roberts; pinocle, Elmer Davis and Mrs. Shephard.

The Jewel club met at the home of Mrs. Victor Langston on Tuesday. After a short business meeting, sewing and conversation were enjoyed. Mrs. Mary Farber, who is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. George Dwyer, was a guest. Very clever decorations of Lincoln and his log cabin were on the table, while the refreshments followed the valentine thought. This was a very enjoyable occasion.

Punk Umphory was slightly injured Monday while working on Eden ridge. John Wilson went up Tuesday to take his place.

Miss Ardith Spade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spade of Powers, and Joplin W. Mode, of Carruthersville, Mo., were married at the Bible Standard Church February 8, in the presence of Mrs. Spade, mother of the bride, and her aunt, Mrs. Fay Hall, of Myrtle Point. Mrs. Mode is a graduate of the Powers high school and has lived here since a small child.

Mr. Mode is with the Camp Powers COC boys and has been in Powers since June. They have the best wishes of their many friends. They will make their home in Powers.

The third wedding of Camp Powers boys to occur this last week, was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Fox Saturday evening when Wm. L. Stemmerman was married to Gwendolyn O'Brien, by Rev. Randall Zellerman. Mr. Stemmerman is a Coos river boy and is with the OCC boys stationed here. Mrs. Stemmerman is a member of the Woman's Club of Powers and is a very talented lady. Her poems have appeared in several magazines and papers in the last few years. They have the best wishes of a host of friends in Coos county.

The first grade, under the direction of their teacher, Harriet Hayburn, gave a program and valentine party Wednesday for the mothers.

Knife Hospital Notes

C. A. Machon, who entered the hospital last week, expecting to undergo a major operation, has been responding so satisfactorily to treatment that his physician hopes now that it will not be necessary to use the knife.

Mrs. Goldie Ford was dismissed on Monday and returned to her home at Powers.

George, 10-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Sargent, of Rock Creek, submitted to an operation for tonsil removal on Monday, and yesterday, Emerick, 11-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hultin, underwent the same operation.

A ten pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Willard, of Coquille, on Wednesday.

We Enjoy the Dire Threat

In a letter renewing their subscription to the Sentinel, Mrs. M. D. Sherrard writes from their home in Stockton, Calif., "Mart says if you ever stop that paper when he's away that he will throw you into the river and then pour more water in afterwards."

Mr. Sherrard's threat does not bother us any, but we do appreciate the friendly feeling toward the Sentinel which inspired it.

New low Price on all kinds of COAL

Local and Long Distance HAULING

Phones 101J-224L

Mansell Drayage & Delivery Co.