

SOCIAL NOTES

A delightful valentine party was given Monday evening by Mrs. James Richmond and Theodore Luebke's Sunday school classes of the Pioneer church, with the affair held at the home of Mrs. Richmond, the girls in Mrs. Richmond's class furnishing the refreshments which were served after a pleasant evening spent in games. Present were Misses Mary Burr, Hazel Mansell, Esther Mansell, Audrey Kendall, Gretchen Neal, Anne Van Scoy, La Verne Knife, Blanche and Irene Sandon, Ardis Halter, Frances Oddy, Katherine Jane Hassler, Gretchen Mehl, Olive Tillmann, Thelma Boserman, Edith Flanagan, Vera Diebens, Margaret Purvance, Audrey Aasen and Merel Davis, John Unsoeld, Earl Gould, Powell Yarbrough, Jack Clinton, Duane Fitzgerald, George Ulett, Cecil Laws, Allington Glaisyer, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Luebke, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sayre, Rev. and Mrs. Malory Flanagan, Mrs. Louis Fugelson, Mrs. Maude Leroy and Mrs. Richmond.

The annual pre-Lenten card party given by the Holy Name Altar society of the Catholic Church was given at the Coquille Hotel Tuesday evening with a good attendance present. Prizes were received by Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Currie, Mrs. A. B. Collier, J. E. Axtell, Mrs. Leo J. Cary, Bert F. Oleson, Dorothy Cary, Bernard Mather, of Bandon, John L. Aasen, George Unsoeld, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Smith, of Myrtle Point, Jack Lefevre, and Mrs. A. Carber.

The O. D. O. club ladies spent a pleasant afternoon on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Guss Tillmann, with the following present: Mesdames George Sherwood, L. A. Christensen, Fred Kunz, H. G. Prey, John Jayce, C. W. Gano, and B. B. Sanders.

Guild members of the Episcopal church met at the Parish house Wednesday afternoon. During the Lenten season Mrs. E. W. Lorenz will conduct the book reading which has been the custom of previous years. This will begin at their meeting next week. Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Couper and Mrs. Moon, of Marshfield, were present beside Mesdames Lloyd Ross, Louis Charneski, E. L. Vinton, A. J. Sherwood, W. H. Mansell, George Lorenz and George W. Taylor, Sr.

Monday Mrs. James Brady entertained her bridge club at a supper at her home on East First street. Mrs. J. E. Norton, Mrs. Ed McKown and Mrs. T. B. Currie were additional guests, besides the members: Mesdames John L. Aasen, E. M. Kay, A. B. Collier and H. S. Norton.

Mrs. J. A. Lamb entertained at luncheon on Monday of this week at her home, with the luncheon table beautifully appointed in a yellow color scheme. A large bouquet of daffodils made the center piece. Covers were laid for Mesdames C. W. Endicott, J. S. Lyons, C. McC. Johnson, L. A. Liljeqvist, Marvin Lyons, all of Marshfield, and Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman and Mrs. E. E. Johnson.

Mrs. George A. Ulett entertained her contract club members and a few additional guests at dessert luncheon on Thursday afternoon at her home on East Third street. Covers were laid for Mesdames A. E. Bradford, F. L. Greenough, R. L. Stewart, W. S. Sickels, L. H. Hazard, F. S. Emery, R. E. Boober, J. E. Paulson and Paul Van Scoy. In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. Van Scoy.

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. Ed Detlefsen on the Fishtrap road Thursday of this week, with the following present: Mesdames C. C. Bonnikesen, O. K. Rakestraw, George Gilman, Wm. Myers, W. E. Cross, and E. A. Wimer. Next meeting will be held at Mrs. Gilman's home.

Pledged to Alpha Kappa Psi

Avery Combs, student from Coquille, has been pledged to Alpha Kappa Psi, national business administration fraternity, says an item from Eugene. Alpha Kappa Psi limits its membership to those students who have been outstanding in the field of business administration scholastically and from the point of actual experience. Only three men were pledged this term. Avery Combs, Lloyd Greene, Philomath, and George Economus, of Portland. Mr. Combs is a freshman and specializing in business administration. He is outstanding for his excellent grade average, and has also taken active part in debate, and speech contests. He recently won second prize in the inter-class Jewett speech contest.

Coquille Woman's Club Held February Session Tues.

The February meeting of the Coquille Woman's Club was held Tuesday afternoon at the Episcopal Parish house with Mrs. R. A. Wernich presiding. Secretary's and treasurer's reports were given, also a few chairmen made reports. Mrs. George Chaney, representing the Education committee, asked if the club felt that there was a need for a Parent-Teacher association. She stated that a meeting will be held soon at which time that subject will be discussed and she urged all club women to attend.

Mrs. E. L. Wilson, chairman of the library committee, thanked all those who helped make the recent card party a financial and social success.

Local scoutmasters asked that the Coquille Woman's Club provide a set of scout books for the library, which is greatly needed by the boys. This the ladies decided to do. The club also voted to send $10.00 to the scholarship loan fund.

After the business meeting Mrs. Wernich turned the rest of the afternoon over to the Program committee, which was in charge of Mrs. C. V. Smith and Mrs. C. E. Niles. The first speaker was Mrs. Pearl Ellingsen, city librarian, who talked on needs, demands and conditions of the books in the local library. This was followed by a splendid book review, given by Miss Edna McGraw, of Marshfield. The book reviewed was "Miss Bishop," by Bees Streeter Aldrich, a very interesting story about a spinster.

At the close tea was served by Mesdames W. H. Mansell, Louis Charneski, C. A. Rietman, J. R. Bunch, M. Earl Wilson, and A. N. Gould, to the following present: Mesdames R. A. Wernich, F. S. Emery, R. E. Boober, Kennet Lawrence, Lyman Carrier, Paul Van Scoy, E. W. Lorenz, J. A. Lamb, M. O. Hawkins, Jennie Adams, C. T. Skeels, R. B. Rogers, Sarah A. Ribble, C. L. Ward, Theodore Luebke, H. E. Hess, R. L. Stewart, Ray Thomas, Dave Rackleff, C. V. Smith, L. P. Maury, Geo. A. Ulett, L. H. Hazard, George Chaney, Wm. Cuning, Pearl Ellingsen, E. L. Vinton, Wm. Oerding, Geo. Jenkins, O. G. Sanford, A. J. Sherwood, C. J. Fuhrman, Lufe Compton, Harry A. Slack, F. L. Greenough, Lloyd Oddy, E. A. Walker, O. T. Gant, A. P. Davis, and Miss Edna McGraw.

Library Notes

So great was the interest and response to our notes about the new books on the pay shelf, that last month showed a larger income from this source than any preceding month in the last three years. With this fund we were able to purchase forty reprints for the general shelves. "Reprints" are novels which have proved popular and sold well and have consequently been republished later in less expensive editions to sell at a much lower price. This lot of forty books includes westerns, mysteries, romances, and adventure stories. Thirty-seven of them were taken out the day they arrived. A few are listed below.

"Crimson Rose," by Grace E. Hill; "Loyal Lover," by Margaret Widmer; "Far Call," Edson Marshall; "When is Always," Connisby Dawson; "Happy Parrot," R. W. Chambers; "Sir John Deering," Jeffrey Farnol.

We have on hand also one hundred children's books loaned from the State Library. These are for children between the ages of six and fourteen and will be here until May first.

The State Library has prepared a large number of non-credit reading courses, started in 1932, to meet the needs of students, unemployed and those unable to continue their education. Each course consists of recommended books, in the field best suited to the needs of the applicant. The success of these courses has been phenomenal. Records show that over 12,000 courses have been prepared on 258 subjects.

A number of persons in Coquille have already started special work along the following lines: navigation, carpentering, interior decorating, drawing, gardening and literature. Anyone who is interested in a course of study is invited to consult the librarian for further information and application blanks.—Board Member.

Auxiliary Visit at Roseburg

The members of the Legion Auxiliary who attended the District Conference held in Roseburg February 7 reported that it was very interesting and instructive. The first session at 10:30 a. m. was conducted by Mrs. Dorothy Eakin, state president, and Mrs. Mabel McInturf, department secretary.

At 12:00 o'clock luncheon was served by the Episcopal Guild. Department Commander, Mr. Warner, and Mrs. Dorothy Eakin introduced members of their party who spoke later in the day. Major General Creed Hammond, main luncheon speaker, related his experiences in the Philippine Islands. After lunch the Auxiliary ladies visited the Veterans' hospital.

Events of the afternoon session included initiation of eleven members of Roseburg Unit, reports by the fol-

Liberty Theatre Presenting Good Shows Including Arizona Wranglers for the Coming Week—'Sitting Pretty' Opens Sunday

SITTING PRETTY

One of the strangest and most baffling murder mysteries will be presented on the screen of the Liberty today and Saturday when "From Headquarters," is shown. In fact it is a double murder case for a second killing, presumably to cover up the first crime, takes place in police headquarters itself.

The startling disclosures that come about through the police investigation include a blackmail plot and secret love affairs of a millionaire Broadway playboy. There is romance entangled in the plot under the strange circumstances of George Brent, as the police officer, investigating the girl he loves, a part played by Margaret Lindsay, who is supposed to have been the enamored of the murdered man and is suspected of his murder.

Besides containing an unusual number of thrills and surprises, the picture gives a panoramic view of the inner workings of a police department in search for criminals, with all the scientific apparatus now used in the detection of crime.

Not only does "Samarang," spectacular romantic drama of the Malaysian pearl-diving country, show many strange species of deep sea monsters, but it also reveals a variety of land animals rarely seen by folks who make their home above the equator.

For instance, the only living descendant of the prehistoric dinosaur is shown in its native habitat in "Samarang." This is the dracma, the reptile usually associated with medieval ideas of the dragon. The terrifying hissing sound made by the dracma, and which is heard in "Samarang," gave rise to the impression that it breathed smoke and fire.

"Samarang" will be shown at the Liberty preview both Friday and Saturday evenings.

The combined talents of Jack Oakie, Jack Haley, Ginger Rogers, and Thelma Todd, aided by music written by Mack Gordon and Harry Revel, and a chorus of more than eighty of Hollywood's most talented and ravishing chorus girls make a fast and furious, mirth-provoking spectacle in Paramount's screen musical comedy, "Sitting Pretty," coming Sunday for three days to the Liberty Theatre.

Oakie and Haley, self-titled "the world's greatest song writers" show how two smart boys with nerve and talent can make an indelible impression on Hollywood's movie producers, bankrolls and beautiful blondes.

All parents and honorary members are cordially invited.
