

SOCIAL NOTES

Coquille ladies have enjoyed a number of large and outstanding parties this week. Among the many are the two delightful luncheon and bridge parties given by Mrs. C. K. Norcott and Mrs. Roy Neal at the Neal home on South Henry street, one of which was on Tuesday and the second group will be entertained tomorrow. The rooms were attractively decorated with bowls of calendula and yellow tulips, while on the small tables mixed flowers in pastel shades were used. At the Tuesday party Mrs. James Brady and Mrs. Ed McKeown won high score prizes. Assisting the hostesses in serving Saturday will be Misses Gretchen Neal, Maxine Johnson and Anne Van Scoy. Invited for the two affairs were Mesdames John Aasen, J. E. Axtell, R. E. Boober, F. S. Emery, K. P. Lawrence, Geo. A. Ulett, A. B. Collier, Jas. Brady, Geo. Chaney, J. E. Norton, W. E. Mrs. Geo. A. Anderson entertained Thursday after school for her son, Calvin, who was celebrating his seventh birthday that day. Games were played by the boys until the birthday cake and other refreshments were served at the large table where places were provided for Calvin Anderson, Joe Don Estes, Billy Kistner, Donald Whereat, Donald Tillman, Jackie Axtell and Jack Stevens.

Mrs. H. S. Norton entertained her contract bridge club Monday evening at her home on North Henry street, with the following present: Mesdames E. M. Kay, Fred G. McNelly, James Brady, J. L. Aasen, Geo. Johnson, A. B. Collier and Frank Thrift.

Harriet Webb and Donald Smith entertained with a dinner party which was held at the J. L. Smith cottage at Bandon beach on Monday for the pleasure of Anne Van Scoy, who was observing her 17th birthday anniversary that day. The group invited also presented Anne with a lovely gift as a token of the day. Motoring down were Anne Van Scoy, Audrey Kendall, Gretchen Neal, Maxine Johnson, Harriet Webb, Faye Hurrell, Tom Stacer, John Cary, Jack Mast, Ernest Cooper, George Ulett, Jim Robinson, Powell Yarbrough and Don Smith. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Webb, Mrs. Paul Van Scoy and Mrs. J. L. Smith served the dinner and chaperoned the party.

The O. D. O. club ladies were pleasantly entertained at dessert luncheon on Wednesday by Mrs. J. R. Bunch at her home on East Third street. Sewing was the afternoon's diversion by the following: Mesdames Fred Kunz, Geo. Sherwood, John Jayes, Grant Wilcox, J. W. Laird, C. W. Gano, H. G. Prey, B. B. Sanders and L. A. Christensen.

MacDowell Music Club Meets
The MacDowell Music club met at the home of Mrs. C. C. Farr Tuesday afternoon.
Mrs. Geo. Bryant read a very interesting paper on the opera, "Shanewis," by Cadman. Mrs. Moller, of Myrtle Point, delighted her hearers with her rendition of "Robin Woman." Mrs. Dorothy Glaisyer also sang delightfully "The Canoe Song." Mrs. E. A. Woodyard then favored with an intermezzo from the opera which was greatly enjoyed. Current events were ably given by Mrs. Birdie Skels.

The annual election of officers was held as follows: president, Mrs. C. V. Smith; vice president, Mrs. W. S. Sickels; secretary, Mrs. M. O. Hawkins; treasurer, Mrs. Lefe Compton.

Coquille Happy Timers
The Coquille Happy Times met at the home of Mrs. Walter Moon on East Third street Wednesday evening. Election of officers was postponed until next meeting night, which will be held at the A. O. Culbertson home. The committee had a very fine entertainment for the evening. Several prizes were given for contests held. Refreshments were served at midnight. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Stearns, who are leaving this city, were called on for speeches and they responded in an appropriate way. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robinson and daughters, of Norway, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Daniels and daughters, Gordon Daniels, Margaret Daniels, Mrs. H. Steward, Mrs. Dora Culbertson, Mrs. M. Diedrick, Mr. and Mrs. Stearns.

W. R. C. 40th Anniversary
The Coquille Woman's Relief Corps travelled to Bandon last Friday and joined with the Bandon Woman's Relief Corps, No. 40, in celebrating their fortieth anniversary. The Bandon corps was organized April 19, 1894. It was an all-day session last Friday, with bounteous dinner at noon and a corps meeting in the afternoon. After the corps closing, a very delightful program was rendered. The singing of civil war songs and other music was enjoyed by all. Charles Blumenrother was able to attend the ceremonies and recount some interesting stories. Comrade Langlois, the only other G. A. R. member at Bandon, was unable to attend.

Auxiliary Card Party, May 7
To avoid conflicts with other social engagements the American Legion Auxiliary card party, previously planned for May 1, has been postponed to Monday, May 7th, as a result of action taken by Auxiliary members who attended the regular monthly sewing meeting held in the Legion hall Tuesday, April 24.
Following the pot luck luncheon enjoyed by those present, the afternoon was devoted to the making of boys' shirts and of quilts.
The next regular meeting of the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary will be held at the Legion hall May 14th.

Knife Hospital Notes
Mrs. S. A. Hutchinson, of Bridge, underwent a major operation last Friday, performed by Dr. Jas. Richmond.
Mrs. Byrd Nosler submitted to an emergency operation at the hands of Dr. V. L. Hamilton last Saturday.
Mrs. Guy Lamb, of Bridge, was admitted to the hospital Sunday for a goitre operation.
Dismissals the past week were Mrs. Frank Hufford and Geo. Gilman on Saturday, Ted Miller, of Bridge, and Milton Culbertson, of Myrtle Point, on Monday.
