Live News From Arago

Miss Alice Scott and Mrs. Luther Myers and Lilla Verle returned Monday from Portland. Mrs. Myers visited her daughter, Pearl, Mrs. Floyd Jackson.

Bob Doyle drove to Eugene Friday to get his wife who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cooper, for the past month. Mr. Cooper was formerly principal of the Arago school.

Thanks to their leader, Mrs. Munford, seven members of the Junior Endeavor enjoyed a happy afternoon in the Carl grove Sunday. A fine picnic dinner prepared by Mrs. Munford was enjoyed. Those present were: Loree Randlemann, Mary Jean McAllister, Maxine Rackleff, Arda and Bernice Gillespie, Kent Hickam, Mr. and Mrs. David Root and John Paul and Mr. and Mrs. Munford and daughter, Leatha.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Sevy, of Langlois, were Thursday evening dinner guests at the Clarence Schroeder home. They visited other friends Friday before returning home. Mr. Sevy has a big garden in and they expect to be in Laiglois all this summer, at home to any of their friends who drive that way.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schroeder and Mrs. Naomi Robison accompanied Mr. and Mrs. John Carl to Corvallis on Sunday to attend the graduation exercises of Kenneth Carl at O. S. C. Wilma and Jim Martindale, of Camas Valley, are visiting at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Robert Doyle.

Mrs. Eva Dorris, of California, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Albert Fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burbank returned from their visit in Ashland and are at the home of Clarence Schroeder for the summer.

Cleve McAllister drove to Bandon Sunday morning, returning the same day. He says his brother-in-law, Leo Cox, who had the misfortune to have several ribs broken when a tree fell on him recently, is able to be up again.

Ralph Myers and family have rented a place back of the fair grounds, near the river in Myrtle Point. This will mean that there are three less pupils for the Arago school next fall.

Mrs. Theo Schiel, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Farrier, returned to her home in Portland Friday morning. Miss Leona Paull accompanied her and will visit her sister, Winnie, until after the Rose Festival.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Shaw and family have moved to their cabin on the Hall's Creek ranch for several weeks, camping while they have their dairy herd on the upper pasture.

Miss Opal Robison has returned to her home, after teaching in Lakeside during the winter.

Lafe Cornwall and sons, Wiley and Ray, left on Monday for Lebanon. They had received word that Mrs. Cornwall's brother, John Culbertson, was seriously ill. On their arrival they found his condition somewhat improved. They stayed with him until Saturday, returning home that day. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jackson and son, Leonard, are living with Mr. Culbertson. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson were Coos county residents for many years and their friends will be glad to know they are well satisfied in Lebanon.

Mrs. Ora Wellman, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Otha Ray, and grand daughter, Marian Hoxey, drove to Salem Saturday to spend the week-end visiting another daughter, Mrs. Marian Hoxey, who is ill in the state tubercular hospital in that place. Mrs. Ray has been the seventh and eighth grade teacher in Arago for the past two years. She is living with her mother in Myrtle Point this summer, but expects to return to her teaching in Arago in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. George Way and daughter, Miss Katherine Way, of Bandon, accompanied Chris Gunter to the Garouette camp Sunday afternoon. It was new scenery for the ladies but not to Mr. Way. He built the house that stands on the John Yost place, twenty-five years ago. The changed right of way of the road confused him at first but he was soon able to find some old landmarks and enjoyed the trip especially because of them. The party stopped at the Ernest Watkins home for a brief call. Miss Way and Ernest Watkins graduated in the same class from Bandon high school.

Stephen Aasen had the misfortune to injure his knee while playing Good Samaritan Thursday evening. A car filled with tourists bound for Bandon and the ocean started up the Hall's creek road. Discovering their mistake they attempted to turn back at Aasen's. In the confusion they backed their car over a steep bank of Hall's creek. L. M. and Stephen Aasen went to their assistance and Steve fell against a rusty nail in the board they were using as a pry. His knee is badly swollen and he has had to keep his foot up in the air to avoid blood poisoning. A wrecker came out from Myrtle Point and put the car back on the road.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Watkins had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. E. Watkins, of Coquille. Other guests of the Watkins were Dorothy and Irene Rivers. Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Watkins remained in Coquille over night as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ball. Miss Irene Rivers returned to Arago with them to visit in their home for a fortnight.

Miss Alice Scott drove to Marshfield on Friday on business. She was accompanied by Misses Mary and Jean Watkins.

Mrs. Sarah Barklow, of Roseburg, drove out to the C. A. Randleman home Sunday afternoon to spend the week visiting her friends in the Arago district.

J. Doak, who has been cutting white cedar on the Volvi tract all winter, started trucking out his bolts Monday. He thinks he will have two weeks' hauling for his winter's work.

Miss Alice Scott received a wire Sunday afternoon telling of the serious illness of her father in La Grande. She postponed her contemplated trip to Yosemite Park with Miss Ethel Fish until she could get further word. Miss Scott, Miss Fish and Miss Shephard, of Marshfield, had planned leaving early Monday morning for a three
