County School Notes From Mrs. Mulkey's Office

The City Hall, Coquille, has been chosen as place for holding State Teachers' examinations. The dates are June 13, 14 and 15.

School room articles among which are a new 1927 Webster dictionary, world globe and old desks, will be sold at auction on June 11th at 11:00 a. m. Those are the property of old school district No. 89 Davis Slough, which is an abandoned district. Under the law the district boundary board has charge of said sales. Sale will be held in County Court room, Court House, Coquille.

Ed Detlefsen, of Roy, is the only candidate whose name will be entered on non-high school ballot for June 18th. Mr. Detlefsen is from Zone 4 but his name is to be voted on by voters of non-high school district at large. The non-high school law requires that all petitions for candidates be filed not later than 15 days preceding date of annual school meeting.

Several contracts for transportation of non-high school pupils were let on evening of June 4th by non-high school board. Homer Cochran was awarded the contract to transport children from Hauser school building to North Bend. A. R. Knowlton was awarded the Haynes Inlet to Highway run. J. W. Powell was again given contract on Fairview-Riverside run, while Lee Bryon was awarded contract for the Sitkum-Dora route. C. R. Brazeau will again transport high school children from Delmar to Marshfield.

The district boundary board will again receive bids for audit of district clerks' record books.

Calling cards 50 for $1.00.

B. P. W. Club Has Potluck Dinner Monday Evening

Twenty-six members of the Business and Professional Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Inez R. Chase on Monday evening for a picnic supper on the lawn. The frequent showers proved too discouraging, however, and all picnic impedimenta was eventually moved to the house where the picnic became a pot luck dinner. After all plates had been filled and emptied many times a business session was called by the president, Mrs. Gould.

Attention was called to the new Funk and Wagnall's Standard Dictionary which was on display. This was the dictionary which was purchased by the club and donated to the Coquille Public Library.

The treasurer reported hearing from Robelle Oederkirk, who is completing her business course in Portland and who has secured a good position with the Consolidated Truck Company. After the reports of secretary and treasurer, the remainder of the evening was spent in listening to reports from the state convention held in Portland May 25, 26, and 27. Reports were as follows:

1. Friday morning, Executive Council Eight O'clock Session—Mrs. Chase.
2. Rose Luncheon, Friday noon—Mrs. Bryant.
3. Friday afternoon, Tour to Doernbecher Hospital, Veterans' Hospital, The Grotto—Mrs. Bertha Smith.
4. Friday evening, reception and Jamboree at the Club Victor—Mrs. Bertha Smith.
5. Saturday morning breakfast—Mrs. Gould.
6. Occupational Round Table, Saturday morning—Blythe Cousins.
7. Salesmanship Round Table, Saturday morning—Mrs. Bertha Smith.
8. Rainbow Luncheon, Saturday noon—Edna Robison.
9. Saturday evening—Mrs. Bryant.
10. Sunday breakfast at the Town Club—Mrs. Gould.

The reports were greatly enjoyed by the club, interspersed as they were with accounts of various hilarious happenings during the convention. All club members are cautioned to save their money for the national convention to be held in Seattle during the summer of 1935.

Mrs. W. E. Cunningham was a guest of the club for the evening and members present were Mesdames Belle Guild, Bertha Smith, Leona Bryant, Ula Leach, Selma Caughell, Mabel Ulett, Lela Elrod, Ida Owen, Jennie Price, Viola Newton, Ruth Beyers, Georgia Richmond, Marguerite Brodie, Inez Chase, and Misses Muriel Dae, Myrtle DeLong, Inez Raver, Ida Oerding, Laura McLeod, Blythe Cousins, Katherine Jane Hassler, Edna Robison, Geneva Agostino, Vera Gaslin, Harriet Gould.

"Riptide" Coming to Liberty Theatre Sunday for 3 Days

"Jimmy The Gent," starring James Cagney, will be the feature attraction at the Liberty Theatre tonight and Saturday night.

The picture is based on the hilarious comedy romance by Laird Doyle and Ray Nazarro and concerns two crooks who are both trying to expose the other to impress the girl they both love.

The story unveils in humorous vein the unique racket of heir chasing, that is, the hunting down of lost heirs in order to inherit unclaimed estates. And the two notorious heir chasers, James Cagney and Alan Dinehart, do not stop at bribing persons to act as heirs and coaching them into perjured testimony.

Bette Davis is the feminine lead opposite Cagney and the girl over whom Cagney and Dinehart do battle for her love.

With a cast that assures allure, romance and uproarious comedy, "3 On A Honeymoon," will be presented as the preview this week. Sally Eilers, ZaSu Pitts, Henrietta Cromman, Charles Starrett and Irene Hervey have the featured roles in this film, based on the popular novel, "Promenade Deck," by Isabel Ross. Others in the cast are John Mack Brown, Russell Simpson and Cornelius Keefe.

With Robert Montgomery and Herbert Marshall sharing leading man honors, one of the most impressive casts ever assembled is seen in support of Norma Shearer in "Riptide," which opens Sunday at the Liberty.

Montgomery, playing the part of Miss Shearer's play-boy sweetheart, makes his fifth appearance with the star in this film. He also played with her in "Their Own Desire," "Di-voorce," "Strangers May Kiss" and "Private Lives." His last roles were in "Fugitive Lovers" and "Mystery of Mr. X."

Marshall, popular English stage and screen star, was last seen in "The Solitaire Man" and "Four Frightened People." He plays the part of Lord Rexford, Miss Shearer's husband in the new film.
