Riverton News

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Ben Atkinson at the Knife hospital in Coquille Wednesday. While the Atkinsons have been Coquille residents for more than a year, they resided here several years before going to Coquille. We had so many pleasant associations with them, and it is with deepest regrets that we learn of her passing.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Murphy, of Los Angeles, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bean. They were here about a month ago for a short visit and in the meantime have been touring Washington and Oregon. They are on their way home now. The Murphys owned a mercantile store in Bandon twenty years ago and Mrs. Bean was one of their clerks then. One of their daughters, Mrs. Henry Miller, is a resident of Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Cochran, of Bandon, have recently moved to Riverton. We, the citizens of this city, heartily welcome them into our midst and hope that they will enjoy it here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Martin were in Coquille Friday making last minute preparation before they started on their vacation Saturday to Molalla. They plan to remain a week visiting other points in the valley before returning home. Mr. Martin is a partner in the Bean and Martin general store here.

planning to work for Lester Clausen on his ranch between here and Coquille.

Robert Scorby went to Marshfield Saturday to spend the week-end with his mother. Mr. Scorby and Ben Watson returned recently from Kirby, where they have been working in the gold fields with Isaac Watson. They are not going back to Kirby for some time.

Dr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, of Silverton, arrived Monday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Joe Nilson. They plan to remain two weeks, the length of his vacation from his business as dentist in Silverton.

Mrs. Ellis Holbrook and children, Oran, Ronald and Gilbert, returned from their trip over the Fourth to Eugene, with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holbrook. Mr. Holbrook stopped off at Broadbent, where he is working, the rest coming on to Riverton. Mrs. Frank Holbrook and family returned in a few days to their home in Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson and family, of Denmark, were the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Donaldson, of Lavee, Friday.

Miss Edith E. Smith became the bride of Mr. Leland T. Panter last Friday. Both the bride and groom have long been residents of this city. Mrs. Panter has been living with her aunt, Mrs. Kay, at Hornbrook, Calif. Mr. Panter is on a ranch below Riverton. Our sincere congratulations are extended to this happy couple.

Bridge Happenings

Among the Bridge Grangers who attended the Pomona meeting in Myrtle Point Tuesday were Messrs. and Mesdames Jason Jewett, H. A. Hatfield, Vern Magill, Dwight Culver, L. A. Duncan, J. T. Evernden, Mesdames H. C. Van Alstein, Frank Culver W. A. Clayton, Messrs. O. W. Heath and Karl Ehrig.

There has been considerable illness in the community last week. Among those on the sick list have been Mrs. Ray L. Beckett and little son, Alden, Winifred Clayton, Mary Alice Corpe, Constance Knight and Ionella Curtis.

The Winters evangelistic team conducted services at the church both morning and evening last Sunday and are continuing their services throughout this week. The church service next Sunday morning will be in charge of T. B. MacDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest N. Heath and children of Yreka, Calif., were here last week for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Heath and other relatives.

The monthly executive meeting of Myrtle Christian Endeavor Union was held Sunday afternoon in the grove at Hooton's Haven, with a good attendance from Marshfield, Coquille, Arago and Bridge. A potluck dinner preceded the business session. The next meeting, August 12, will be held at the Church of Christ in Marshfield.

Mrs. C. S. Murphy, Mrs. Amanda Ehrig and Mrs. Harold E. James were Roseburg visitors Tuesday.

Plans are completed for a Young People's summer conference, which will be held next week, July 16-21, in Hooton's grove. Ross Gulley, of Eogene, will be dean of the conference, which is being sponsored by the Churches of Christ of Coos county. There will be well-qualified leaders for the various activities of the week. Four classes and a chapel service will be conducted during the forenoon, and the afternoons will be devoted to rest and recreation, with a bonfire service each evening.

State Fair Opens Labor Day

Premium lists announcing the 73rd annual Oregon State fair were received here this week with the dates listed as September 3 to 8. Opening day is again Labor Day and thousands are expected to jam the gates as they did last year.

With a blue ribbon as cover design, the 1934 state premium list is an attractive little book. And more attractive are the thousands of dollars of premiums listed on the 92 pages within its covers. According to Max Gehlar, director, purses and premiums will total about $50,000.

Highlight in the dairy products division this year is a new class—milk and cream. For a dairy-minded state like Oregon this is expected to prove outstanding.

As usual a liberal allowance has been made for the Future Farmers of America. A butterfat cost contest for F. F. A.'s will yield $457.50 in premiums as well as $110 premiums for egg feed cost contest.
