Blue Ox Effigy Received

"If you must shave, use an axe," warned Judge John Cook of the whisker court to offenders appearing before him last Saturday. Twenty or more cleanly shaven men were rounded up by the whisker patrol last week. Each pleaded guilty of failure to raise whiskers and was fined $1.00. As a receipt for his fine and to insure against further appearance in court, each offender was given a shiny, new axe. A whisker parade is to be a feature of opening night at the Paul Bunyan Birthday celebration here September 6.

An effigy of Babe, the blue ox, was added to the items of interest on Marshfield's streets this week when R. G. Theuring returned from Eugene with a life-like figure of the animal which had had a part in the Oregon Trail pageant.

Knife Hospital Notes

Mrs. Orville Baker, of Loon Lake, was dismissed last Thursday. Little Doris Morgan, of Riverton, underwent a major operation last Thursday.

B. P. W. Met Monday Night

Fourteen members of the Business and Professional Women's Club met at the home of Frances Oddy Monday evening for a short business and social meeting.

Mrs. Annie Robinson was elected to associate membership in the club. Two petitions for membership were presented and will be voted upon at the next meeting. The second Monday in September was decided upon as the date of the next meeting, since the first Monday is Labor Day. Therefore the next meeting date of the club will be September tenth at the Coquille Hotel.

At the close of the business meeting refreshments of sherbet and cookies were served to the following members: Belle Gould, Ida Owen, Marguerite Brodie, Ida Oerding, Georgia Richmond, Frances Oddy, Ula Leach, Clara Bosserman, Katherine Jane Hassler, Viola Newton, Inez Rover, Edna Robison, Myrtle De Long, Geneva Agostino and Harriet Gould.

The club is very grateful to Mrs. Anita Oddy for being hostess to the members.

Killed One, Other Escaped

While searching the woods for his lost horse Monday, Leslie McLeod, who operates a cedar mill on the evening for a short business and social meeting. Jeff Ward place six miles east of hydro-electric dam in northern Curry county, came upon two panthers in the trail. He carried a rifle and was successful in bagging one of the cats, a female, that measured 8 1/2 feet in length. The other one got away. He took the hide to Gold Beach to collect bounty.—Western World.
