

Social Notes

Thursday of last week the Justa-merc club met with Mrs. E. E. Johnson at her apartment in the Coquille Hotel. Each member attending brought a gift of preserved fruits to be presented to Mrs. Everett Strain (nee Jean Pierce), a recent bride. At one o'clock a dainty luncheon was served and the guests enjoyed an afternoon of sewing. Those invited to enjoy the occasion were Mesdames A. J. Sherwood, L. H. Hazard, F. L. Greenough, R. A. Wernick, M. O. Hawkins, C. J. Fuhrman, L. A. Lamb, W. S. Sickels, Nels Osmundson, H. A. Young, J. L. Smith, Bert Folsom, Hal W. Pierce, O. C. Sanford and Lafe Compton.

Tuesday, Mrs. George Johnson entertained the Ecadriens at her home on South Henry street. A delightful luncheon was served by the hostess and the afternoon was spent in sewing. Those present were Mesdames E. A. Walker, J. L. Aasen, W. E. Bosserman, Roy Neal, Earl Nosler, J. E. Axtell and the hostess.

Wednesday afternoon the Episcopal Guild met at their Parish house for their regular meeting. Special guests were Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Roseburg. Mr. Smith gave an interesting and enlightening talk on international warfare. Those present were Mesdames A. L. Beck, Wm. Mansell, E. A. Walker, Bert Folsom, A. R. Dimick, M. R. Thomas, George Taylor, Sr., C. K. Norcott, Geo. Lorenz, L. H. Hazard, A. J. Sherwood, Roy Neal, Frank Martin and E. L. Vinton. After the business meeting and social hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Vinton.

Wednesday evening Miss Yula Minard entertained a group of her friends at her home on the Marshfield highway. Among the invited guests were the Misses La Verne Knife, Jeanette Pook, Carol Young, Florence Folsom, Bernice Eggleston, Frances Oddy, Elinor Oerding, Dorothy Hill, Doris Kendall, Dorothy Cary, Mrs. Frances Eggleston Detlesen, Mrs. Alice Oerding Baker and Mrs. Glenda Kendall Judd. The evening was spent sewing, after which refreshments were served.

Birthday Party for Friends

John Ellingsen entertained his 4-H Club members and Miss Laura McLeod as honor guest at his home last Friday evening, the occasion being his 13th birthday. Refreshments, including a birthday cake, were served as dinner dessert at seven o'clock, to Miss McLeod, Robert McGilvery, Bobbie Dutton, Fred Watson, Henry Hess, Jr., Ellis Rackleff, Theodore Ellingsen and John Ellingsen. Cecil Laws and Jack Clinton were unable to be present. Games and stunts were the diversion of the evening.

Bandon Poultry Show to Be Held Nov. 23-25

Entries for the Bandon Poultry Show, which is to be held at the Dreamland Pavilion Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 23, 24 and 25, must be in the mails not later than midnight, Saturday, November 17, according to Chas. F. Winters, president of the show.

"This is a most important point," declared Mr. Winters. "We have had trouble each year in entries coming in late, making it impossible for the men in charge of the show to know what preparations for housing to make. It is highly important that the entries be mailed in far enough in advance to give the show officials a chance to make the proper preparations. The birds are to be received at the show pavilion by Thursday, November 22, but the entries must be received showing postmark of not later than the 17th.

"Everything is going along nicely," Mr. Winters said, "and we are looking forward to the biggest show in the history of the local organization. We have word that the extra coops have been shipped. The boys have the lighting arrangements completed, and the booth space is being prepared to accommodate the displays that are to be made." — Western World.

Coquille Bethel Job's Daughters Receive Charter

The Masonic Hall last Saturday night was the scene of a very lovely affair, the occasion being charter night for Bethel No. 15 Order of Job's Daughters.

Several grand officers were present including Mrs. Victoria Erickson, grand guardian of the Order of Job's Daughters of Oregon; Sam Jost, associate grand guardian; Mrs. Ethel Prigge, past grand guardian and present grand secretary; Mrs. Grace Fallis, vice grand guardian; Miss Cora Young, grand guide; Mrs. Charlotte Wing, grand marshal; Captain Delmar Shaver, past associate guardian; also Mrs. Nellie Ann Shaver, guardian of Bethel No. 5, Portland; Dorothy Bates, honored queen of Bethel No. 8 in Roseburg; Ione Walder, honored queen of Bethel No. 16 U. D., of Marshfield; and several visiting members of other Bethels.

The session was preceded by a six o'clock dinner served by mothers and fathers of the Bethel members.

A beautiful floral degree was conferred upon Mrs. Erickson and she was presented with a basket of chrysanthemums. In the exemplification of the initiatory work six candidates received the degree of the Order. They were Donna Dean Bosserman, Beisie Summers, Eileen Percy, Audrey Taylor, Lois Laub, and Berenah Laub.

The following consul members were installed: Mrs. Florence Sanford, Bethel guardian; Mrs. June Walker, director of music; Mrs. Clara Bosserman, guardian of social activities.

Mrs. Cora Young, of Roseburg, presented the girls with their charter and complimented them on their work and the progress they had made during the time they were working under dispensation. Lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Erickson, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Fallis.

The girls of the local Bethel went to Marshfield Friday night and installed a class of 24 and installed the officers of the new Bethel there. The ceremony was preceded by a six o'clock dinner. Following were installed as guardian counsel: Dr. June Martin, guardian; C. W. Wolcott, associate guardian; Mrs. Eryn Samuelson, guardian secretary; Mrs. Fanny Butler, guardian treasurer; Mrs. Lulu McKnight, director of music; Mrs. I. M. Smiley, director of property. Miss Ione Walder was installed as honored queen.

Legion Auxiliary Business Meeting Held This Week

At the regular business meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary there were fifteen members present: Bonnie Green, Thelma Dale, Virgie Haynes, Mabel Kunz, Neita Oddy, Vera Hooton, Mildred McCune, Gladys Wheeler, Dorothy Martin, Mary Arnold, Lenora Hunt, Robah Robinson, Gladys Gano, Eula Schram and Elizabeth Hand.

It was reported at the meeting that the Auxiliary cleared $16.82 on the check room and punch booth at the Corn Show dances.

Plans are being made for collecting magazines and reading material for the veterans at the Veterans Hospital in Roseburg. Also a magazine is to be given to the local Public Library. The subscription starts Jan. 1, 1935.

A quilt is to be pieced and quilted by the Auxiliary and will be given away some time before Christmas.

The organization has a box of clothing to be sent to the Child Welfare Center at Roseburg. If any one has garments or shoes that cannot be used by her they would gladly be accepted by the Auxiliary for distribution to the needy.

Mrs. Roy Young, of Roseburg, chairman of the Child Welfare Center there, wrote a nice letter of thanks for the two quilts the Auxiliary sent over to the Veterans' Hospital.

Mrs. Vic McKenzie, of Miami, Florida, will arrive at Coquille in the near future. He is national liaison officer of the American Legion. The members of the Legion and Auxiliary plan on a party in his honor. Vic is Mrs. Vera Pook's brother.

The Auxiliary presented Virgie Haynes with a lovely gift. She was captain of the winning membership team.

The Christmas cheer problems were discussed and plans are being made to co-operate with the other organizations in distributing our Christmas cheer. Following this plan, it is hoped to reach every local needy family and help to make their Christmas more enjoyable.

After adjournment the Auxiliary served refreshments with the Legionnaires as their guests. Those on the serving committee were: Virgie Haynes, chairman, with Mary Arnold and Eula Schram.

The regular monthly sewing meeting will be on Nov. 27. Potluck dinner will be at 1:00 p. m.

Watch for date and details of American Legion Turkey Keno.

UNDER THE BLEACHERS

My Mark Seeley

Oregon's Bull Run is over again for another year. The smoke of battle has disappeared, the wounded are recovering, and Eagle, Brandis and Swanson, more dynamic than the other combatants, have been freed from the toils of banishment. Folks, it was a battle of battles, make no mistake about that.

No one can deny that the greens of the University of Oregon have the best eleven, but on the other hand what do you hear for Oregon State, as well? Cheers, loud and lusty, and an extra special cry of acclaim for that fighting red head, Norman Franklin, truthfully an offensive in himself, are the answers to that query. The Web-feet, said not to be up to their top offensive ability, nevertheless had enough to edge out the courageously fighting Staters. An apparent weakness of the backfield men in pass defense almost proved to be the undoing of Oregon, but the charging lemon yellow and green forward wall nullified this, to win, 9 to 6.

The hero, who was he? Backs generally grab the limelight, and this was the case, more or less, at Portland last Saturday. "Red" Franklin shown like a full moon on a clear night. He is likely the best back in the coast when in shape, but to that gritty bit of humanity, Maury Van Vliet, goes the large plums. Van Vliet's spirited, emotional performance sparked the Oregon team.

"Lamp" Walker's kick from placement for the Ducks' first three points brought the spotlight on him. The brilliant flank play of "Butch" Morse was a continuance of his march for conference all-star recognition, while the consistency of "Scappoose" Michick and Hal Pangle, the spasmodic plunging of Dick Joslin, and the excellent work of Con Fury caught the eyes of the populace.

It may be well to say that Coos county was highly represented at the game. Our local folk were all over the town.

Two games remain to be played in Coos county football and happily this remaining brace contains championship honors and still more pleasing the search for the bunting involves three towns. The Tigers of Bandon, now on the top, and Marshfield's Pirates and North Bend's Bulldogs, both in second place, is the trio. There remains a possibility of an undisputed claim, a two way, or three way claim, for the top notch.

May it be said now that football championships should be, if they are not already, decided by the numbers of games lost. This because in many conferences, like in the Coos county high school league, an unequal number of contests is often times played. Naturally when every team engages in a like amount of games the percentage system is the best, if for nothing more than clarification. Thus this is how our Coos standing lines up:

Bandon	3	0	2
Marshfield	2	1	0
North Bend	2	1	0
Myrtle Point	2	2	2
Coquille	0	6	0

Coquille and Myrtle Point have completed their conference games. Bandon is to meet Marshfield on Golden Field tomorrow, while on Thanksgiving day Marshfield and North Bend clash again in their second annual "civil war" fray. A Bandon win over the Pirates will give her the undisputed championship, while if the Tigers lose, they will get no worse than a tie for the leading rung. In the latter case either of the bay teams will share the championship with the Bandonites, or a three-way knot will result if the Thanksgiving fray is even up.

This again brings us to our periodical plea in which we request the high school schedule makers to balance the schedule. Have each team play an equal number of games. Wouldn't that be the better plan? At least it would add much more interest to scholastic football in Coos county, just as the Portland high school league is, and has been, one of the more brilliant of football circles.

Coquille's Red Devils have one more game, this a fray with the Reedsport Mudhens of Douglas county. The Reedsport eleven has been meeting most of the Coos county teams during the past few years but this is the first time that the Mudhens and Red Devils clash. Last season Reedsport blazed away under the guidance of "Red" Bailey, ex-Web-foot star, but this fall they have been consistently taking it on the chin. The loss of many veterans is responsible for the fall, and now again the Reedsport are in the building stages.

The game will be played here on Saturday, November 24. It will give Coach "Bridgroom" Wilson's club a last chance to win an important fray this season.

Not to be outdone by the "big boys" in Portland, Marshfield and North Bend high schools put on their own spectacle on the Benders' field Monday afternoon when they battled before a large Armistice Day assemblage to a 7 to 6 score. The Bulldogs won the verdict, coming from behind to overhaul the Pirates in the last half.

Marshfield grabbed her six points in the second quarter. Gallops by backs, Schnick and Ring, saw the ball marched from the Pirate 15-yard line to the Bulldog 25. From here Ring lofted a pass to Ferris, fullback, who romped over the goal from the five-yard marker.

A kicking game in which Floyd Smith, North Bend quarter, was outstanding, indirectly won for the lower bay team. Smith consistently drove the Marshfield gridsters back onto their own terra firma, finally seeing his marvelous toe work lead to a victory. Kicking in return continually from near her own goal line, one of the Pirate boots was finally blocked. North Bend recovering on the 15-yard line. Kudruna carried the ball over for the third period touchdown which evened the score and then followed with the extra point which meant the game.

Concluding their conference games, Coquille and Myrtle Point met at Myrtle Point last Friday, the Bobcat footballers taking the game by a 13 to 0 score. It was a last quarter fray which won the game for Myrtle Point after three scoreless periods.

A fumbled punt lead to the first score, Mast going over for the six point and Young for the extra point. Young's pass to Shields gave the Bobcats the other touchdown when the receiver scurried 25 yards to the pay dirt.

Past Noble Grands Meet

The Past Noble Grands Club of Mamie Rebekah Lodge met for their monthly business and social meeting Friday evening, November 9th, at the home of Myrtle Noah on North Henry street, the meeting having been postponed one week because of the Corn Show.

After the business session the meeting was turned over to the entertainment committee who provided a program of games for the evening. Ethel Leach was winner in the contests and won the prize of a lovely fern.

Since the date of the meeting fell on Mrs. Noah's birthday, a large number of members and guests were out to wish her many happy returns. The house was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and fall flowers for the occasion and provided a perfect setting for the large birthday cake that was presented to the surprised hostess later in the evening.

Refreshments were served at a late hour by Mrs. Noah and Jennie Price as joint hostesses to sixteen members and two guests.

The club will meet again the first Friday in December at the home of Mrs. Ora Maury for a Christmas exchange party. All past Noble Grands are cordially invited and members are urged to be present. All wishing to take part in the Christmas exchange should bring a small gift costing twenty-five cents or less.

A good program and jolly time has been promised for that evening so it is hoped that everyone will attend who possible can.

Fred Fuhrman at O. S. C.

Here is another sketch of a Coquille boy at O. S. C., by a writer who has taken the nom-deplume of "No-It."

No-It Visits Fred Fuhrman

Fred Fuhrman was found busily studying at the Beta Theta Pi Monday night by No-It on his second visit to the Oregon State campus.

Everyone remembers the splendid record Fred made at Coquille High. Well, he is even doing better in college. It is almost needless to say that Fred has made the honor roll. Last term he received a straight A in all of his courses except for a B in English, just missing an A by a few points.

No-It kept quizzing Fred and found that he did not spend all of his time with his books. He is a chapter officer in the house, member of the greater O. S. C. committee, a runner on the cross country team, running the two mile course in 12 minutes. He belongs to the Pharmaceutical Association and the rowing club. Fred was manager of the Rook crew last spring and earned his numerals. He did such a good job that he was promoted to manager of the Varsity crew this fall.

Last week No-It forgot a committee Fay Holverstott heads. Fay was appointed chairman of the floor committee for the Sophomore Cotillion to be given February third. The Sophomore Cotillion is a school formal sponsored by the Sophomore class.

No-It must go into seclusion and rant and rave until next week when he can bring you some more of the splendid records of college students from Coquille.
