Emblem Committee Entertains B. P. W. Club Monday

Members of the Business and Professional Women's Club held their regular meeting at the Coquille Hotel Monday evening. A short business meeting preceded the program sponsored by the emblem committee. Mrs. Bryant, chairman of the fiance committee, suggested that the club sponsor a Christmas barrel, the contents of which would be contributed by the members, and for which chances would be sold at ten cents apiece. The idea was heartily endorsed by the club and plans are now under way to fill the barrel. It was decided to co-operate with the Red Cross as their housing committee. Since there was no further business to bring before the club, the meeting was turned over to Laura McLeod, chairman of the emblem committee.

The first number on the program consisted of group singing led by Mrs. Bryant with Miss Inez Rover at the piano. Mrs. Chase gave a very interesting talk on the founding of the Coquille club in October, 1925. She reported that fourteen charter members still retain membership in the local club. She told of the various activities sponsored by the club, including the student loan fund. Mrs. Bertha Smith gave a short talk on the wearing of the club emblem or insignia. She pointed out the various symbols on our club seal and explained their significance. As a concluding number, Mrs. Bryant sang two songs which were much enjoyed by the club. The music and arts chairman, Miss Rover, reported that plans for the annual Christmas party were well under way to take place at the next meeting.

Geraldine Minard, a high school senior, gave a very interesting talk in behalf of the annual Christmas seal drive. She gave a brief history of the cure of tuberculosis and how the money obtained from the seal sale is used in checking the spread of the disease.

Refreshments of punch and wafers were served to the members by the committee in charge of the evening's entertainment.

Bill's Place Five Going Places

Baskets fell on Coquille the same as "Stars Fell on Alabama" last night when the "Bill's Place" basketball team defeated Riverton's independents, 52 to 12, in the community hall. It was an auspicious start for the local five which on paper does not look as formidable as the aggregation which made such a fine record last season.

Manager Jack McCue used a lineup consisting of six Red Devil players of former years and one other. The quintet worked surprisingly smooth for such an early start, and it may go places if the same standard of play is maintained. The summary of last night's game:

Coquille (52)	Riverton (12)
McCarthy (20) F	(2) Hayward
Pease (2) F	(2) Clinton
Collier (14) C	(6) Schroeder
Pulford (4) G	(2) Alpine
Williams (6) G	(2) Auer
Morgan (6) S
Stoneypher S

Referee, Earl Morris.

Public Health FACTS

BUY YOUR WEEK'S SUPPLY 2 for 1¢

We spend thru taxes about 1 cent per week for health protection (the cost of only 2 cigarettes)

Portland spends about one cent weekly per person on its health department. The state spends about three cents a year, (with about two-thirds of the population outside of Portland). If most counties made generous appropriations to protect their health this would not be so inadequate. During 1929 to 1933, 133 Oregon boys and girls between 15 and 19, died from a preventable cause—tuberculosis. States and counties can buy health if they're willing to pay the price.

Pictures at the Liberty

The Coming Week

Three Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences Award winners head the cast of "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," to be shown Sunday at the Liberty Theatre.

Norma Shearer, in the role of the poet Elizabeth, is starred opposite Frederic March, as the ardent Robert Browning—the same team which broke all records in "Smilin' Through." Charles Laughton, most recent Academy Award winner, appears in the grim and powerful role of the elder Barrett, his first American picture since the international hit, "Henry the Eighth."

The supporting cast is equally extraordinary.

Maureen O'Sullivan, last seen in "Tarzan and His Mate," plays the rebellious sister Henrietta, enamored, in spite of her grim father's protestations, of the gallant Captain Cook, the part played by Ralph Forbes.

Una O'Conner—who scored heavily in her first American picture, "Calvalcade"—is the demure and faithful Wilson, Norma Shearer's maid.

Dramatization of a vivid page torn from history, it is the story of the love of two poets, Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning—a love nearly frustrated by her demonaical father.

Elizabeth had resigned herself to a lingering death, when correspondence with the poet Browning suddenly materialized with his handsome presence in her own room. It was love at first sight between the fragile girl and her ardent admirer. With all the spleen and cunning of his nature, the elder Barrett throws himself against this romance . . . and thereon hangs the tale, interwoven with glimpses into the lives of the many brothers and sisters in the historical menage.

The Captain was never sea sick—but was sick of the sea! And his passengers: one a dumb dick who wasn't so dumb; another who opened safes—without the combination; the girl who married him—with a ring on one hand, a pistol in the other; a very merry widow; a great mixer—the ship's bartender; a reporter who liked his liquor straight—but not his romance; and a blonde with a husband and a past—who preferred the past! These are the main characters in the comedy hit, "The Captain Hates The Sea," which shows tonight and Saturday at the Liberty. With Walter Connolly as the Captain, the cast in the respective roles includes Victor McLaglen, Fred Keating, Helen Vinson, Alison Skipworth, Walter Catlett, John Gilbert and Wynne Gibson.

The old South and one of its most beautiful mansions was recreated for scenes in Augustus Thomas' famous play, "The Witching Hour," the two-night preview this week. The play, a famous romance, tells of the memory of a beautiful love and how it returns to save the romance of a boy and a girl of a new generation. Featured in the cast of the picture are Sir Guy Standing, John Halliday, Judith Allen, Tom Brown, Gertrude Michael and William Frawley.

It tells the story of a boy, Clay Thorne, played by Tom Brown and his love for Nancy Brookfield, played by Judith Allen. Thorne has a peculiar complex, an aversion to cat's-eyes, a phobia that drives him to an emotional and mental hysteria. While under a hypnotic influence induced by one of these semi-precious jewels, he commits a fantastic crime, without being conscious of what has happened. No one will defend him. An old love returns to save his romance, however, when Judge Prentice, a retired jurist, is persuaded to return from the past and his memories to save the boy. In a dramatic, tense scene, for which the play is famous, a fantastic defense is used to save the boy from the crime he committed.
