Social Activities

The J. G. W. club held its annual Christmas party on Monday evening at the Coquille hotel. Besides the husbands of the members there were a score of other guests present. Beginning with a sumptuous dinner at seven o'clock the festivities, which included songs, games, a Christmas tree, and a visit from Old Nick himself, lasted until a late hour. The most humorous incident of the evening, and which might have been tragic, was the near separation of Old Nick and part of his raiment, which may have been too hastily donned, in his eagerness to visit the hilarious group. Nothing daunted, however, the jolly old man proceeded with the distribution of the wonderful array of gifts, which furnished loads of merriment for the crowd.

The dining room and the small tables were gaily and beautifully decorated with Christmas greens, red candles and ornaments, with place cards for each guest of cleverly constructed candleholders, made of candies.

The only drawback to the evening's entertainment was the failure, an oversight to be sure, to obtain a supply of mistletoe. This omission will be remembered next year!

At games Stewart Lyons, of Marshfield, won the gentleman's prize, Mrs. Greenough receiving the ladies'.

Mrs. Fred Slagle, a former Coquille member of the J. G. W. club, was the honor guest of the evening. The other members and guests present were: Messrs. and Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, Lloyd Rosa, A. N. Gould, J. L. Smith, E. E. Johnson, J. A. Lamb, J. E. Norton, Bert Folsom, O. C. Sanford, H. N. Lorenz, H. A. Young, J. S. Watson, Geo. Bryant, Alton Grimes, E. D. Webb, A. E. Bradford, L. H. Hazard, L. A. Compton, C. L. Tuttle, Lloyd Oddy, R. A. Wernich, Mrs. A. J. Sherwood, Mrs. Birdie Skeels, and from Marshfield Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Lyons and Mrs. Marvin Lyons.

Mrs. A. J. Sherwood entertained at one o'clock luncheon last Saturday in honor of Mrs. Fred Slagle. At the conclusion of the meal a beautiful birthday cake with candles was placed on the table, the day being the natal day of the hostess. Those enjoying Mrs. Sherwood's hospitality were: Mesdames Geo. Lorenz, Muri Pettit, E. E. Johnson, C. J. Fuhrman, O. C. Sanford, Luckey Bonney, Harry Slack, J. A. Lamb, Fred Slagle, and Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist and Mrs. Marvin Lyons, of Marshfield.

Mrs. J. E. Axtell will be hostess to the Escadrien ladies next Monday for one o'clock luncheon.

American Legion Auxiliary

At the last regular business meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Vic McKenzie was a guest. There were eighteen members present: Bonnie Green, Leona Hunt, Thelma Dale, Edna Kern, Virgie Haynes, Mabel Kunz, Grace Burtis, Elizabeth Hand, Pearl Rubie, Helen Cunningham, Elsie Cunningham, Robah Robinson, Vera Pook, Ruth Axtell, Vera Hooton, Grace Rackleff, Maybelle Rackleff and Gladys Wheeler.

It was reported at the last meeting that clothing valued at $33.25 had been sent to the Roseburg Child Welfare Center and magazines valued at $18.45 was sent to the Veterans Hospital in Roseburg, with $2.25 worth of vases. The Auxiliary is sending its contribution of $2.50 to the Department of Child Welfare and Veterans Hospital Funds, for Christmas.

The "Needle Craft," "Sunset" and "Collier's" for the coming year have been contributed to the Coquille Library by the Auxiliary.

All the organizations of Coquille were represented at a meeting held last week, to determine the most thorough system of distributing their Christmas baskets to all the needy. Vera Hooton is chairman of the Auxiliary's basket-filling committee. Those having articles such as canned goods, toys, clothing or books, wishing to donate them may leave them at the Sentinel Building on Monday, Wednesday or Friday, between 2 and 4 p. m.

Mrs. Leona Hunt, music chairman, is having Glee club practice at her home Thursday evening. Those interested are kindly invited to attend.

After adjournment the Legionnaires served refreshments with Vic McKenzie and wife as special guests.

Woman's Club Holds Interesting Session Tuesday

A very successful meeting of the Coquille Woman's Club was held Tuesday afternoon at the Episcopal Parish house. The meeting opened with the club song led by Mrs. Roy Boober, with Mrs. M. O. Hawkins at the piano. Mrs. R. A. Wernich, president of the club, presided over the meeting.

Mrs. J. R. Bunch, local Red Cross chairman, asked that the club supply clothing and food as far as they could in case of a local disaster. All the various local clubs are being asked to take some definite part for relief should such an emergency arise. The club voted to give its fullest support should such relief be needed.

At the January meeting of the Marshfield Woman's Club the Coquille Club will be in charge of the entertainment program. The violin ensemble, directed by Miss Muriel Dae, has been secured for the occasion. The club voted to buy uniforms for the ensemble and a real treat is in store for those who are able to attend. Members were urged to keep that date open and be present if possible.

A letter from P. W. Lane, superintendent of schools, was read by the chairman of the education committee, giving an outline of the progress made so far during the present school year.

The finance committee reported that plans were being made to sponsor a picture in January to raise funds for the club.

Mrs. J. Lefevre reported that the Needlecraft Guild has one hundred and thirty-three garments of clothing and some cash for a shoe fund on hand. Also that several needy families have been given assistance.

Following the business meeting a delightful program, in charge of Mrs. E. A. Walker and Mrs. Geo. Jenkins, was greatly enjoyed. The program included selections by Miss Dae's ensemble, a vocal solo by Mrs. Maud S. Woodyard, a reading by Mrs. Roy E. Boober and violin selections by Leonard Ensele; Mrs. M. O. Hawkins accompanying the musical numbers at the piano.

At the close of the program tea was served by Mesdames W. S. Sickels, Andy P. Davis, C. A. Rietman, J. Arthur Berg, Orval Wood, L. W. Oddy, Kenneth Lawrence, R. A. Wernich and Ida Owen. Other members present were Mesdames A. L. Beck, Annie Robinson, C. E. Niles, Wm. Ulett, F. S. Emery, George Bryant, A. E. Bradford, S. M. Nosler, F. G. Leslie, Ernest Purvance, Jas. Watson, J. A.
