Coquillians at Eugene Party

Addressed simply to "The Paper That is Like a Letter From Home," the following news item from Eugene was delivered promptly to the Sentinel Tuesday morning. Had it not also borne the "Coquille, Oregon" address it would have been one for Ripley. The item told of a "Coquille" party at Eugene recently:

Duck Soup

A group of twenty-two Coquillians, who are attending the institutions of higher learning at Eugene and Corvallis, held a get-together in Eugene last Friday to honor Oran Rickard, former Coquille High School instructor.

The affair was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Constance, friends of Mr. Rickard. The evening was spent in talking over old times, exchanging news and singing popular songs. Light refreshments were served.

Those present were Oran Rickard; from Oregon States College: Milton Ashton, Oke Eckholm, Herman Ellingsen, Fred Fuhrman, Frank Schram, Deloss Shinn, and Earl Shinn; from the University of Oregon: Graydon Anderson, Anne Barton, Edell Bryant, Donald Farr, Edythe Farr, Gus Gallas, Mike Ireland, Joan Perrott, David Smith and Kenneth Thompson.

Gus Gallas took third place in the final W. F. Jewett intersectional extempore speaking contest held December 6th at the University of Oregon. His topic was "Socialism." Gus is planning to take part in the peace oratorical contest which will be held at the university in January.

Zelma Bosserman Chosen

Last Monday evening was election night for the local Bethel of Job's Daughters and the following officers were chosen: Zelma Bosserman, Honored Queen; Leville Walstrom, Senior Princess; Dorris Compton, Junior Princess; La Velle Dale, guide; Marilyn Compton, marshal.

Marilyn Compton, chairman of the candy sale committee, reported that $5.30 had been realized from the sale last week.

Mrs. Grace Fallis, associate Grand Guardian, and Miss Ione Walder, Honored Queen of Bethel No. 16 U. D. of Marshfield, were special guests.

Mrs. J. H. Dalen gave a very interesting description of Christmas in France, and had on exhibition a large group of dolls depicting the life of the people in France at Christmas time. Among other interesting things she told was that Christmas is observed and ushered in by the ringing of bells, and that many religious ceremonies are held at that time. No gifts are given at Christmas but are at New Year's.

The installation of new officers is to be held on December 27 in the Masonic Temple.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Sevy, of Langlois, spent the week-end with friends in Myrtle Point.

Funeral services for Mrs. Winifred Crane were held Tuesday afternoon from the Schroeder Chapel, Elder A. A. Baker officiating. Mrs. Crane was born in Coquille on May 9, 1884, and has spent her entire life in Coos and Curry counties. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, Charles Crane; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Dye; four daughters, Mrs. Gladys Hamilton and Mrs. Eloise Griffin, of Crescent City California, Miss Lila Crane, of Marshfield, and Mary Crane, of this city; two sons, William, of Myrtle Point, and Ray, of Coquille; and one sister, Mrs. Allen Druery, of Portland.

Miss Ernestine Schneider has moved her beauty parlors from the location on Maple street to the Schneider building adjoining the post office.

Harvey Smith has moved his barber shop from the Schneider building to one of the Charles Adams' buildings across the street from his former location.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Russell, of Portland, spent the week-end at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. Warner.

Helen Breuer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breuer was rushed to the Mast hospital on Wednesday of last week and operated on for appendicitis. She is reported getting along nicely.

The Methodist Aid bazaar will be held Friday, Dec. 14, in the church basement, beginning at one o'clock. A free program will be given in the evening, beginning at eight o'clock.

The benefit dance given by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Saturday evening was well attended. The proceeds will be used to bring Christmas cheer to the disabled veterans in the Roseburg Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wilson and two children returned to their home at Glendale, Oregon, after a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Katie Arnold.

Mrs. Edris Green and Miss Helen Hull returned to their home at Dallas after a visit here with relatives and friends.

Fairview

The Fairview Singing Club met at the home of Mrs. Tom Benham Wednesday, December 12. The evening was devoted to singing in preparation for coming events. This group of singers has gained a lot of fame in this locality during the past year with their renditions of both old and new classics. They are now getting in trim for Christmas songs.

For the first time in years, real wild geese have been making Fairview their habitat. Several flocks have alighted here during the winter and their honking have kept residents awake several nights during the winter.

Steelhead fishing has been indulged in by both valley residents and town folks for the past two months. Many good catches have been reported, such as Mr. Pike's catch of a three-foot fish recently. The North Fork is the most popular stream for anglers in southwestern Oregon.

A big Christmas program is in the making in Fairview Valley. There is to be a community gathering at the Grange hall near Christmas time and a rousing program of good cheer indulged in. The school, Sunday school and Grange combined are hard at work for the entertainment.

Of late, Fairview has been the stamping ground of several thieves.

Numerous residents report the loss of chickens, gasoline, potatoes, and turkeys. They hope to see less of this soon.

Wm. Byerly, superintendent of the Sunday school at Fairview, wishes to announce that services will start every Sunday morning at ten o'clock. Everyone turn out who can possibly make it.

The Women's Club of Fairview, met at the home of Mrs. Joseph Cassidy Tuesday, December 11, to quilt. A jolly and profitable time was reported by all of those who were present.

New arrivals in Fairview are Mr. and Mrs. Morris and their two daughters, Hazel and Vivian. They are living on the Ed Milligan ranch while Mr. and Mrs. Milligan are in California.

The new rural mail route which is running in Fairview at the present time is a source of great convenience to the local residents. Mr. Wheaton, the mail carrier, is more than obliging in his services and the people are highly appreciative.
