Harvey and Kenton Myers are ill with flu at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Myers.

Mrs. Gus Schroeder suffered a severe heart attack Saturday morning and is in a very serious condition at her home. She will be bedfast for some time but is getting along as well as can be expected.

Miss Lola Robison spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Robison. Sunday a family dinner was held in honor of her birthday. A brother, Houston, was the only absent one. Miss Lola has transferred from the beauty school in Eugene which she has been attending the past four months to the new school in Marshfield where she continued her work Monday morning.

Miss Verna Hill and Rex Roth, of Coquille, were married last week. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hill and has spent all of her life in Coos county. She finished the Arago grade school several years ago and has been living with her parents on Hall's Creek since that time. Mr. Roth lives with his parents on a ranch near the Fat Elk oil well, where the young people will make their home.

Mrs. B. B. Watkins went to Myrtle Point Wednesday and visited friends and then went to the Will Warner ranch on the South fork, where she visited until Sunday morning. She renewed acquaintance with several former neighbors during her stay.

Lakeside played a return game with Arago Wednesday evening in the gymnasium. Saturday evening will mark the first B League game of the season at Arago, to be played with Riverton. Prices will be 25c and 10c Season tickets may be purchased for $1.00. The Arago line-up for Saturday night's game will be: centers, Ray Cornwall and Francis Barklow; forwards, Bill Sinko, Chas. Webb, Lee Collier, Tennessee Robison; guards, Merle Randlemann, George Paul, Cecil Patrick and Price Schroeder. Two games will be played.

Mrs. Naomi Robison returned Wednesday from Langlois where she visited Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Sevy.

Mrs. Geo. Hampton spent Wednesday in Myrtle Point visiting with her mother, Mrs. B. S. Wallen, and her daughter, Mrs. Everett Lafferty. She reports a splendid holiday trip to southern California. They found quantities of snow in the Siskiyou.

Mrs. Alvin Billings and children were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Mary Miller in Myrtle Point.

The quarterly business meeting of the Arago church and potluck supper was held in the kitchen last Thursday evening, with a small group present. Routine business was transacted. After the business meeting the weekly Bible study was held, with Mr. MacDonald leading the discussion of the first two chapters in Matthew.

Ed Fredenberg, who recently returned from work in Washington, visited his uncles, L. M. and Oluf Aasen, Monday.

Word was received by Ralph Davis of the death of his mother in Michigan, January 2. Mrs. Jay Davis, who made her home in Myrtle Point until September of last year, was at the bedside.

Mrs. Fred Lafferty was the hostess for the January meeting of the Arago Missionary society. The program was in her charge. Mrs. Keltner presided over the brief business meeting. I was decided to observe World Day of Prayer for missions which will be March 8. Rev. W. A. Couden, of Myrtle Point, gave a talk on missionary conditions in Alaska from his own personal observations during his residence there. Mrs. Couden and Mrs. Lafferty sang "Ivory Palaces."

Mrs. Couden sang a solo. Mrs. Alma Halter, of Coquille, gave the history of the founding of the society in the fall of 1923. There were nine charter members, Mrs. Edith Woodward being the first president. Mrs. Halter the first vice president and Miss Nettie Halter the first secretary-treasurer. Three of the charter members were present, Mrs. Clarence Schroeder, Mrs. John Carl and Mrs. Halter. The next officers were Mrs. Halter, Mrs. Carl and Mrs. Schroeder, who served until 1928, when Mrs. Schroeder became president, Mrs. Ernest Watkins vice president and Mrs. Nellie Keller secretary-treasurer. In 1929 Mrs. Watkins became president, Mrs. Frank Fish vice and Mrs. J. L. Burtis secretary-treasurer. Mrs. T. B. MacDonald and Mrs. Burtis followed, with Mrs. Watkins as secretary, and in 1930 Mrs. C. A. Keltner became president. She has held the office continuously since that time, with Mrs. Wayne Woodward, Mrs. Ernest Wiebe, and at present Mrs. George Gillespie, as vice presidents. Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward, the present secretary, has held the office for three years. Each past president present gave an account of the various projects accomplished during her term of office and as each report was given a candle was lighted on the society's birthday cake, furnished by the hostess. Many interesting accounts were given, including kindergarten work in China, gospel mission boats in China and on the Belgian Congo in Africa, funds sent for the Chinese famine, funds sent to mission schools in India and to the Navajo Indians in Arizona, and to a gospel mission in Oregon. Mrs. Keltner in giving the last talk forecast briefly the work for the coming year and the cake was alight. Mrs. T. B. MacDonald had prepared a dainty bookmark for each past president, each a memento from some foreign mission field. Refreshments of tea straight from China and the missionary birthday cake were served to Mr. and Mrs. John Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Nile Miller, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Low Sonneland is confined to the Keizer hospital at North Bend due to injuries received when he fell from the bridge where he has been working for some time. Mr. Sonneland is getting along, as well as can be expected, however, and all of his friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Lloyd Teagarden ably substituted for Mr. Byerly as superintendent of the Sunday school last Sunday, as Mr. Byerly has been confined to his home with a severe cold. The attendance at Sunday school was excellent in spite of unfavorable weather conditions. All are urged to attend and make the classes even larger.

The list of illnesses in the valley is unusually large this last week. Those who have been reported are: Mrs. C. J. King, Amos Hatcher, Mrs. M. E. Peters and Mrs. Andy Parks. Their many friends hope to see them out again soon.

The appearance of snow in the valley caused much discussion among the old-timers who say it's a rare sight. While it was beautiful to see, it was also dangerous. The roads, lousy enough in dry weather, are now slick and treacherous.

Last Thursday evening, January 10, Harry Hubbell, the school bus driver, conveyed a crowd of the young people of the valley to Coquille to see the basketball game. The evening was much enjoyed by the following: Clyndard Holverstott, Hazel and Vivian Morris, Bud Berry, Bette Ann Yeoman, Leo Young, Lois Teters, Donald Powell, Erwin Henagin, Fay and Ben Holverstott, Jean McNelly, Preston Moy and Mrs. Hubbell.

Mrs. Carrie Benham, of Bridge, has been visiting at the Tom Benham and the Charles Holverstott homes for the past two weeks.

Bob Ellis, of near Reedsport, is visiting at the J. W. Powell home. Misses Marjorie and Thelma Judd left last Sunday evening for San Francisco, for an indefinite visit with relatives.

The Fairview Singing Club met at the home of Mrs. Lora Holverstott Wednesday evening. In addition to the usual song practice, the violinists practiced for next Sunday's meeting. Several more turned out to help the ladies who are trying their best to gain new members and arouse interest in the club. It has been suggested that the young people turn out and have a special chorus of their own.

A district school meeting, called by Alphe Saylor, chairman of the school board, was for the purpose of deciding upon the disposal of the old school building.
