Mrs. D. V. Yeoman has received word that her son, Carl, who was operated on for appendicitis recently, is well on the road to recovery. Carl is in the Navy hospital in Bremerton, Washington, at present, but he hopes to be able to come home for a leave before he rejoins his ship, the U. S. S. Richmond, which is stationed in San Diego, California, at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Martin and son, Bruce, and Fred Wheaton and sons, Melvin and Donald, were visitors at the last Fairview - North Fork Grange meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Easton Powell were also present at the last Grange meeting.

Work on the new addition to the community building at Fairview has begun and is progressing rapidly. The men who are donating their services are certainly making things hum around the place in preparation for the building of a new wing on one side and the enlarging of the stage and floor. Wednesday the Women's Club met at the hall and prepared a potluck dinner for the workmen, who highly appreciated the efforts of the ladies.

W. C. T. U. Meets and Sews

Sewing for the 180 children at the Farm Home near Corvallis and an educational program were enjoyed by some twenty-eight women Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. C. Farr. Two comforts were tied and finished, one pillow made, 15 table napkins hemmed, 13 handkerchiefs made and various articles mended. Bedspreads are much needed and some fourteen are in the making.

Mrs. G. A. Gray gave a splendid devotional talk, followed with prayer by Mrs. R. B. Knife.

Mrs. L. P. Maury presented the Lillian Stevens Fund, which makes possible the work of Dr. Izora Scott, national W. C. T. U. legislative representative at Washington, D. C. Dr. Scott is alert to forward the program adopted by the national W. C. T. U. to all members through her weekly letters in The Union Signal. She is the members' voice in legislative matters and is the link between the congress and the organization. Dr. Scott is not a lobbyist in the sense of advancing selfish interests. The W. C. T. U. has never asked anything for itself. It has ever advocated legislation for the interests of humanity and the protection of the home.

Service is the watchword of this representative. Letters asking for information or instruction, personal attendance on visitors who have business in the capital city, research work that take hours of time, help to fill the hours of her day. Mrs. Frank Leslie described a typical day at headquarters and explained the educational work. Some recent measures passed by congress were reviewed by Georgia Richmond.

Tea was served by the hostess committee, Mesdames R. B. Knife, Inez Pinkston, Georgia Richmond and Eva Watson.

This Week's Shows at Liberty

Described as a thrilling romance of death and danger in the skies, the production, "Hell in the Heavens," starring Warner Baxter will show at the Liberty tonight and Saturday. Star of a long and notable series of screen hits, Warner Baxter is said to contribute his greatest performance in seasons to this new film. This time he is cast as an American flier in the Lafayette Escadrille, who is promoted by death to fill his captain's place. Haunted by "the fear that he will be afraid," the lieutenant struggles to combat it. Love helps, in the form of the dashing Conchita Montenegro. At length Baxter meets the "Baron," most daring and dangerous of German aces, in close conflict high above the clouds — and solves his destiny through courage.

Comedy and mystery, twin elements of entertainment, are deftly blended in "Murder in the Private Car," the picture for Friday and Saturday nights' preview featuring Charlie Ruggles, Mary Carlisle, Una Merkel, Russell Hardie and other notables. "Murder in the Private Car" tells a laughable story of sinister menaces that peril a young heiress. Ruggles plays a comedy deflector of crime. The picture is hailed as one of the best of the current show season.

Camp Fire Girls Notes
