Live News From Arago

The Arago Ladies Aid and other friends met at the home of Mrs. Albert Gulstrom on Wednesday for an all-day quilting party with a potluck dinner at noon. There were two quilts in the frames and the quilts were: Mesdames C. S. Webb, John Carl, Oluf Aasen, Albert Lillie, Glenn Collier, B. B. Watkins, S. L. Lafferty, Fred Lafferty, Naomi Robison, Alec Barklow, Alvin Billings, Nora Hosposka, Glenn Robison, Price Robison, J. L. Burtis, Harriette Burbank, Lawrence Rackleff, of Arago; Mrs. Harley Barklow, Mrs. Emmett Ham-mack, of Myrtle Point. Mr. and Mrs. David Root and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cohen came in the afternoon and Mr. Cohen held a brief prayer service.

Nile Miller suffered a serious heart attack on Monday afternoon. He was alone in a field at some distance from the house at the time and reached home with great difficulty. His condition is critical. His son, Wallace from Portland, and his sister, Mrs. Bert Paul, from Gardiner, are at his bedside.

Fred Lafferty had the misfortune to get monoxide poisoning from the exhaust of a wood saw Saturday. His suffering was severe for twenty-four hours but he was able to be at work again on Monday.

Mrs. Ray Parker entertained Mary and Jean Watkins, Genevieve Barklow and Annie Deardorff at lunch on Monday in honor of Jean Watkins' birthday. A green and white birthday cake was the centerpiece.

Mrs. Naomi Robison was confined to her home on account of illness on Monday.

Clarence Schroeder is still "confined to quarters" with the after effects of his recent attack of flu.

Francis Barklow spent the week-end visiting his brother, Lawrence Barklow, at his ranch on Coos River.

Rev Frank Cohen, who started a series of meetings on Monday night, held five services during the week and conducted both the morning and evening worship on Sunday. A special musical number was furnished each evening. The services will continue as long as the interest demands and there will be a song service and special music each evening. There will be no services on Friday evening due to the basketball game. Mr. Cohen is an able Bible student. He will have charge of the services Sunday morning and evening, February 3.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Watkins and grand daughters, Mary and Jean Watkins, were week-end visitors in Bandon, going on Friday afternoon and returning Sunday evening. They called on Mrs. Edward Watkins of Coquille, who is ill and will be bed-fast for some time, and on Bobby Hicks, formerly of Arago, who recently suffered a back injury. Mrs. Martha McNair, of Bandon, is another friend they called upon who is just recovering from an illness.

Mrs. Glenn Collier spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Gus Schroeder, who was able to sit up in a chair for a short time Sunday and feels that her improvement, though slow, is permanent.

Mrs. Naomi Robison and Mrs. Leon Paul visited the new hospital in Coquille Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Paul has regained most of her strength lost in a recent attack of flu.

Mrs. Joe Sankawitz and small son, of Bandon, are visiting their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fish, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodward entertained at a birthday dinner in honor of their son Gerald's twelfth birthday Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Halter. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barklow, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Halter and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodward and son, Gerald.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Haberly, of Bandon, were Tuesday guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Oluf Aasen. They also called on Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister at the Mast hospital in Myrtle Point. Mr. McAllister had his arm removed from the cast last week and the bone is healing nicely.

Ed Fredenberg, who has been visiting his father, Henry Fredenberg, for the past ten days left Wednesday for Port Angeles, Washington, where he has employment.

Miss Anna Lou Damron, of Bandon, was a Monday guest at the Watkins' ranch.

Mrs. Alec Barklow and children, Ellis and Bonnie Jean, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting Jonas Rowan and family at Sixes. Sam Rowan, Mrs. Barklow's father who has been ill there, is showing some improvement.

Mrs. Lawrence Rackleff, Mrs. Geo. Robison, Mrs. C. S. Webb, Mrs. Walter Barklow, Mrs. Andrew Patrick, Mrs. Joe Milani, Mrs. Ernest Watkins and Mrs. Ray Parker were hostesses for a January birthday party honoring the members of the high school whose birth month it is, on Tuesday night, at a dessert dinner party. The guests were seated at one long table where a pink and white color scheme was carried out. Individual pink and white birthday cakes alternated with tall pink tapers and pink rosebuds formed the table decorations. The honored guests were: Ellis Rackleff, Woodrow and Marguerite Robison, Chas. Webb, Genevieve Barklow, Cecil Patrick, Anita Milani, Jean Watkins and Mr. Parker. After the refreshments Mr. Parker acted as toastmaster and each honored guest made a speech on a specified subject and Miss Eleanor Corthell made a response. Progressive games were played, Jean Watkins receiving high score for the girls, Ivan Robison for the boys and Mr. Parker and Genevieve Barklow low scores. Those enjoying the evening were Yvonne and Lodema Cross, Joan Milani, Leatha Munford, Mary Watkins, Evelyn Doyle, Annie Deardorff, Stella Husar, Hazel and Neoma Miller, Betty Knabe, Iris Barklow, Esther Barnett, Miss Eleanor Corthell, Melden, Herbert and Wallace Carl, Ernie and Freddie Milani, Freddie Vetter, Ray Cornwall, Price Schroeder, Bill Sinko, Lee Collier, Merle Randlemann, George Paul, Clyde Lillie, Ivan and Tennessee Robison, Stephen Aasen, and the honored guests and hostesses. The party was held in the small gymnasium on the school grounds.

Arago basketball teams were all on the wrong end of the score sheet last week end. The grade school boys were defeated by the Bridge team Friday night and all three teams were defeated at Coos River Saturday night. The Independents with a score of 19 to 23 and the second team with 20 to 21, while the regular high school team lost by a score of 33 to 12. The game was lost during the first quarter, the score at the end of the half being 21-2, and Coos River scored 12 points to Arago's ten in the last half. The opening line-up was center, F. Barklow; forwards, Sinko and Collier; guards, Schroeder and Randlemann. Webb and Paul were substituted for Schroeder and Randlemann in the second quarter and the line-up was changed between halves to Cornwall, center; Sinko and Paul, forwards; Barklow and Collier, guards. This will be the starting line-up when Arago plays Powers on the home floor Friday evening, February 1. Two games will be played that evening.

All of the basketball teams and several of the rest of the members of the high school drove to Riverton Friday afternoon to watch Powers and Riverton in action. The boys are hoping to profit by their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward, Arda and Bernice Gillespie, Gladys Miller and Sam Root were Sunday visitors of Mrs. Edith Woodward and Miss Edythe Woodward at Fairview.

Mrs. Ray Parker chaperoned a group of girls on a ten-mile hike Sunday afternoon. They went to the Watkins ranch on Hall's creek and ate their lunch before making the return trip, part of which was through the woods. They are planning another outing for next week if the weather permits. The participants were Iris and Genevieve Barklow, Lois and Marguerite Robison, Annie Deardorff, Edith Zinzerling, Maxine Rackleff, Loree Randlemann, Mary Jean and Anne Watkins.

Mrs. Emily Hickam and son, Kent, Miss Eleanor Corthell, Mrs. Lawrence Rackleff, and Mrs. Clarence Schroeder drove to Marshfield Saturday morning. Miss Corthell remained to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Corthell, and Miss Lois Schroeder returned to Arago with them to remain until Sunday evening when she returned to Marshfield to resume her work in the beauty school.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Myers and children, Kenton and Lillaverle, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jackson in Coquille. It was Mrs. Myers' first outing since her recent attack of earache and other complications following flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Oluf Aasen spent Thursday in Bandon and reported a perfect day without any wind to mar it.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Gearhart are attending an engineers' meeting at the Arstiles' home in Marshfield Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowlyn Southmayd and baby and Mrs. Jessie Swan and Helen were Sunday callers at the J. N. Gearhart home.

See the Oregon football stars play basketball. Bill's Place vs. Butch Morse, Ralph Terjeson, and others. Saturday night, February 9.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR COOS COUNTY
SARAH E. BRIGHT, Plaintiff, vs.
HANNAH TUCKER, TED BRIGHT, WALTER BRIGHT, MARY SHEPHERD, DORA HAMMEL, LEO A. LOBDELL, ROBERT BRIGHT, and all the known and unknown heirs of Phillip A. Bright, deceased, and all the known and unknown heirs of J. Henry Schroeder, deceased, and also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property described in the complaint herein, Defendants.

No. 10570
Publication of Summons
To LEONA LOBDELL and ROBERT BRIGHT, two of the above named defendants, and all the known and unknown heirs of Phillip A. Bright, deceased, and all the known and unknown heirs of J. Henry Schroeder, deceased, and also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property described in the complaint herein, Defendants.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the expiration of 4 weeks from the date of first publication of this Summons, that being the time prescribed in order for publication thereof, said date being the 25th day of January, 1935, and if you fail to so appear and answer for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to-wit: That the defendants and each of them be required to set forth and allege their claim, right, title, interest or estate in and to said parcel of land to-wit:

Lots Four (4) and Five (5), and the Southwest quarter of Section Thirty-six (36), Township Twenty-eight (28) South of Range 12, West of the Willamette Meridian, in Coos County, Oregon.

and submit the same to the judicial determination of this Court, and that the same be adjudged and decreed null and void and of no effect in law or equity. That the Court decree that the plaintiff is the sole owner and in possession of said parcel of land and all the rights, privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining to said parcel of land, and that the title of plaintiff to said parcel of land is good and valid. That the defendants and each of them be forever enjoined and barred from asserting any claim whatever in and to said parcel of land adverse to this plaintiff. That plaintiff have judgment against the defendants and against each of them for her costs and disbursements incurred in this suit, and for such other and further relief as to the Court shall seem meet and equitable.

This Summons is published by order of the Honorable Hugh McLain, Judge of the County Court of Coos County, Oregon, made and entered the 24th day of January, 1935.
