Live News From Arago

Arago Bows to Powers 17-20, Feb. 1 If noise is any indication of satisfaction, the basket ball fans who watched the two games between the Powers and Arago high schools in the Arago gymnasium Friday night got their money's worth.

The game between the first teams started with a tip-off from Cornwall to Webb, who scored for Arago almost before the spectators realized the ball was in play. That toss by Webb gave Arago a lead which was not relinquished during the first three quarters of one of the fastest games seen in Arago for many moons.

The hard fighting Powers team just couldn't get through the fast shifting Arago defense and had to rely mostly upon their long range sharp shooters and upon free throws for their well earned twenty points. The team that, the week before, had defeated Riverlon by a margin of thirty points was justly relieved at Arago when the timer's horn ended the game while the margin was three points in their favor. Rolfe, of Powers, led the attack with nine points to his credit, while for Arago, Webb was high point man with eight. The line-up and scores for both teams follows: Powers—Rolfe, rf, 9; Taylor, lf; Ward, c, 2; Marsee, rg, 5; Jones, lg, 4. Arago—Webb, lf, 8; Sinko, rf, 3; Cornwall, c, 4; Barklow, rg; Schroeder, lg, 2. Sinko went out in the fourth quarter and Paul went in for the last few minutes.

In the game between the second teams Arago almost evened the situation, taking the game by a margin of one point, after having had as much as an eight-point lead earlier in the game. Final score, Arago 22, Powers 21. Collier, of Arago, was high point man with 9, while Shepherd, of Powers, had 6. The players were as follows: Robison, rf, 3; Collier, lf, 9; W. Carl, c; G. Paul, s, 3; Patrick, lg, 6; Randlemann, rg, 1; Powers—Hammock, rf, 2; Gamwell, Preston, lf, 2; Utterback, 4; Shepherd, c, 6; Lewellyn, lg, 4; Ross, rg, 3. Arago played the game with one substitution while Powers used seven men.

After the games the Arago high school girls served potato salad, sandwiches and chocolate to the two teams in the playshed. The games were marked by the absence of all hard feeling and a display of good sportsmanship and co-operation throughout. McCue, of Coquille, refereed the games.

The high school honor roll of students carrying four or more subjects with no grade lower than 3 and an average of two or better for the term, is as follows: seniors, Evelyn Doyle, Leath Munford, Mary Watkins, Lee Collier, Wallace Carl, Price Schroeder, Willie Sinko, Woodrow Robison; juniors, Annie Deardorff, Stella Husar; sophomores, Anita Milani, Iris Barklow, Genevieve Barklow, Jean Watkins, Betty Knabe, George Paul, Alvin Fredenberg.
