Wagner-Whobrey

Miss Marie Whobrey and Edgar A. Wagner were quietly married Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Johnson where Miss Whobrey has made her home for several years. The room was decorated in daffodils with greenery.

The ring ceremony was used, by Rev. W. S. Smith, who performed it. The bride was given in marriage by H. L. Johnson. Miss Wanda Houdyshell attended the bride and Rosa Kistner acted as best man.

The bride was very attractively dressed in a royal blue dinner dress and carried an arm bouquet of pin roses and freesias, while the bride-maid wore a peacock blue dress and carried a bouquet of snapdragons.

Mrs. E. A. Woodyard rendered two beautiful vocal solos, "Because" and "I Love You Truly," after which the wedding march was played by Fred Durnam of Dora.

A reception followed the wedding at which time the following guests were served a delicious buffet luncheon: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Houdyshell, Mr. and Mrs. Guss H. Tillmann, Misses Olive and Virginia Tillmann, Henry T. Kuehn, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Niles, Miss Gloria Getz, H. C. Getz, John Rhule, Mrs. Allan McLeod, Mrs. Maude Woodyard, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Dale, Mrs. Martha E. Mulkey, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Houck, all of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Sundstrom, of Reedsport; Mrs. A. E. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGary, Jr., of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Gearhart, Miss Hazel Gearhart, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Durnam and Mr. and Mrs. Minard, of Dora.

During the luncheon the couple attempted to make their escape by car but were interrupted by the usual interference of human obstruction, rice, etc. After a time they were released and allowed to proceed, writing decorating their car and a cow bell fastened under it in order to further announce that they were newlyweds.

Mrs. Wagner is one of Coos county's most efficient rural teachers, who is now teaching her sixth year. After the couple returns from a short trip north she will resume her teaching at Summer. Continuing to board in her school district, she will spend her week ends with her husband in the H. L. Johnson home.

Mr. Wagner is a highly respected young man who is employed by the Niles Motor company of Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner have made many friends, all of whom are deeply interested in them and wish for them a most happy life together.
