The violin recital given by Miss Audrey Aasen Tuesday afternoon at the home of her parents was attended by a large number of their friends. Miss Aasen's progress with the violin has been very exceptional, according to her instructor, Miss Dae, and she has accomplished in one year what would ordinarily require four years, much of this being possible because of Miss Audrey's previous musical training, mostly piano. Each and every violin selection was well rendered and thoroughly enjoyed by the guests. Assisting was Miss Florence Cary, harpist, who is always a welcome performer on any program and whose selections on this occasion were even more beautiful than usual.

Mrs. Maud Woodyard, who accompanied Miss Aasen at the piano, helped in no small measure in the afternoon's entertainment.

After the concert light refreshments were served by the following young ladies, who also assisted about the rooms: Elizabeth Pierce, Cherie Mae Hartwell, Lyndell Southstone and Geraldine Ensel.

Miss Aasen received many gifts and a wealth of flowers from her friends. Miss Cary, Mrs. Woodyard and Miss Dae were also presented with bouquets. That Miss Aasen and other young musicians of Coquille are most fortunate in having the opportunity to study under Miss Dae was a comment voiced several times Tuesday afternoon.

The duplicate contract group composed of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Rackleff, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boober and Mr. and Mrs. Claire Gray spent a most enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gray on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greenough, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chaney, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Lave Compton held their contract bridge session and potluck dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Compton on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. James Brady was hostess to the Monday night contract club this week, with dessert lunch at seven o'clock. Mrs. Ed McKeown was a special guest for the evening, the other members including: Mesdames A. B. Collier, Fred McNelly, E. M. Kay, S. Norton, Roy Neal, and Geo. Johnson, Mrs. Collier holding high score. The club will meet again in two weeks with Mrs. Collier.

Miss Muriel Dae took her string ensemble to Bandon Monday afternoon where they appeared on the program of the Woman's Club. The little musical organization has progressed amazingly under the leadership of Miss Dae and is always enthusiastically received on any program in which they take part.

The Monday night contract bridge club of Mesdames Pettit, Lamb, Smith, Pierce, Folsom, Miller, Geo. Lorenz, and Ed Lorenz, met with the latter for dessert lunch. At games Mrs. J. A. Lamb held high score. The day being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Muriel Pettit, she was surprised with a handkerchief shower. Mrs. Edna Hartson was a guest for the evening.

The Episcopal Guild pot luck dinner Wednesday noon was quite largely attended and was another enjoyable "feed" such as the Guild ladies know how to prepare and netted the organization close to ten dollars. Following dinner the usual business and sewing were attended to, those participating including Mesdames Taylor, Sr., Setbig, Fuhrman, Folsom, Ed Lorenz, Geo. Lorenz, Vinton, Sherwood, Hazard, Rosa, Thomas, Pierce, Stewart, Pettit, Charneaki, Dingick, Young, Beck, Watson, Mansell and Neal.

Miss Carol Young was hostess to her contract bridge club Wednesday evening, with the following young ladies playing: Katherine Jane Hassler, Elizabeth Pierce, Audrey Aasen, Frances Oddy, Mrs. Margarita Brodie and Carol Young. Light refreshments were served later in the evening.

The educational department of the Coquille Woman's Club is sponsoring a benefit contract bridge party this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wernich, the proceeds from which will be used in their scholarship loan fund.

Mrs. E. L. Vinton entertained with a 6:30 o'clock dinner last Saturday about sixteen guests for the pleasure of her son, Dick, whose birthday occurred on that day. A birthday cake, games and the opening of gifts afforded a very pleasant time for the boys, among whom were Earl Haynes, Tommy Martin, Bob Martin, Harold Taylor, Clifford Wixson, Joe Don Estes, Donald Whereat, Chas. Thurman, Duane Terry, Wayne Terry, Ben Barton and Dick.

The J. G. W. Club met this afternoon, with Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mrs. Henry Lorenz and Mrs. H. A. Young, hostesses, at the home of Mrs. Smith. One o'clock luncheon preceded the afternoon's needlework. Members enjoying the occasion were, from the Bay side, Mrs. Marvin Lyons, Mrs. J. S. Lyons, Mrs. C. McC. Johnson, Mrs.

Claire Parker, Mrs. C. W. Endicott, Mrs. Frederick Jennings, Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist and from Bandon, Mrs. Jim Walstrom. Coquille ladies present included: Mrs. Birdie Skeels, Mrs. Geo. Lorenz, Mrs. Ed Lorenz, Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, Mrs. Bert Folsom, Mrs. J. A. Lamb, Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman, Mrs. L. Rosa, Mrs. O. C. Sanford, Mrs. J. E. Norton, Mrs. Bert Gould and the hostess.

The K club met with Miss Kathleen McClintock in her room in the Coquille hotel on Wednesday evening. Cards and knitting occupied the young ladies until a late hour. At cards Miss Jeannette Pook won the honors. Present for the evening were Misses Harriet Gould, Barbara Bradford, Jeannette Pook, Dean Harding, Mrs. R. C. Vaughan, and the hostess.

The O. D. O. club took their sewing to the home of Mrs. Grant Wilcox last Friday afternoon, where they spent a most enjoyable time. Besides the members present which included Mesdames Tillmann, Hand, Sherwood, Jr., Lucas, Kunz, there were Mrs. Fred Hickok, Mrs. O. E. Mattoon and Mrs. Geo. Sherwood, Sr. A delicious lunch was served during the afternoon.

The Friendly Dozen, of Sanford Heights, met with Mrs. Fred Nosler Wednesday for sewing and chat. Spring bloom in profusion were used in decorating throughout the rooms. Mrs. Aaron Wilson and Mrs. Allen were guests for the afternoon. The members present were Mesdames Wilcox, Matney, Storer, Fugelson, Hultin, Wise, Cadman, Wheaton, Arnold, Nosler and Martin. The club will hold its next get-together with Mrs. Wheaton.

Mrs. W. S. Sickels was hostess to her contract bridge club yesterday for dessert lunch, with the following members and guests present: Mesdames Ulett, Stewart, Hazard, Bradford, Greenough, Lamb and Wilson. The next regular meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Ulett.

Mrs. Walter Litzberger was hostess to her Tuesday night contract club this week, comprising two tables. The evening's play resulted in high score for Mrs. Geo. Anderson. The members in attendance were Mrs. Orvin Gant, Mrs. E. Walker, Mrs. Julius Ruble, Mrs. Geo. Anderson, Mrs. Donald Estes, Mrs. Theo Clinton and her sister, Miss Rosanna Schroeder, a guest from Salem. Mrs. Ruble will entertain the club in two weeks.

Professional Women's Club who attended the meeting Tuesday evening, which was sponsored by the Transportation committee, of which Mrs.
Isabel Unsold is chairman, were given a rare treat, and one which was hugely enjoyed by all attending. Mrs.
Unsold had previously obtained permission from George Ulett, general manager of the Smith Wood-Products plant, to allow the members to inspect the plant while in operation.

F. S. Emery, superintendent, personally conducted the expedition through the entire plant from offices to log chute and very carefully explained and demonstrated the machinery in detail. The visitors were extremely interested in it all, so much so in fact, that some even expressed a desire to be given a position in the plant. This was one of the most interesting and educational programs that the club has had this year and much appreciation and thanks are due Mr. Ulett and Mr. Emery for the privilege extended.

The business session was also very interesting, reports of the Southwestern district conference at Roseburg were given by some who attended.
Miss Hall's report on the work she and her committee had completed for advertising Oregon in the biennial convention paper in Seattle, showed very plainly they deserve much credit for the concise manner in which this write-up was made.

At the next regular meeting the club will entertain the senior girls, the publicity committee with Harriet Gould, chairman, will be in charge.
