IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF COOS

Delbert Donaldson, Plaintiff, vs.
Sylvia Donaldson, Defendant,
Summons

To Sylvia Donaldson, the above named defendant:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before Saturday, the 8th day of June, 1935, said date being after the expiration of four weeks from the date of the first publication of this Summons, and if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint, or otherwise plead thereto, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to-wit: For a decree dissolving the marriage and marriage contract now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and equitable.

The grounds upon which said relief is based in said complaint is desertion.

This Summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the Coquille Valley Sentinel, pursuant to order of the Hon. Hugh McLain, County Judge, in the absence of the Circuit Judge from the County, which said order was made, dated and entered on the 2nd day of May, 1935, and which order requires that the date of the first publication of said Summons shall be on the 3rd day of May, 1935, and the date of the last publication thereof being Friday, the 31st day of May, 1935.

Pictures at the Liberty

The Coming Week

Introducing Aline MacMahon and Guy Kibbee in entirely different roles from those usually associated with them, the second of the Clue Club productions, "While The Patient Slept," a most baffling murder mystery drama, is announced as the feature attraction at the Liberty Theatre Friday and Saturday. Based on a novel by Mignon G. Eberhart, "While The Patient Slept," presents Aline MacMahon as Nurse Sarah Keate, detective fiction's most amazing character, and Guy Kibbee as a small town sleuth. While the plot includes a double murder, double action and double the usual quantity of thrills, the picture also contains much rare humor, hilarious comedy and a side-splitting romance between Miss MacMahon and Kibbee. A more serious romance, that has the same happy ending, occurs between Lyle Talbot and Patricia Ellis. The movie, which gained the honor of being produced under the Clue Club insignia, is a story of the kink of a wealthy reclusive, all hating each other, all greedy for money, and what happened after his mysterious death. Two murders are committed before Nurse Keate goes into action, and then the real thrills develop.

ing, but if advance reports prove true the picture, "Gold Diggers of 1935," which has been booked for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, was well worth waiting for. The director, Berkeley, has taken a funny, clever story, gathered together a cast of film favorites that includes ten of Warner Bros.' outstanding stars, and with the assistance of more than 300 of the prettiest dancing girls in Hollywood, has assembled the whole into a tuneful comedy in which his talent for spectacular screen innovations has been given full sway.

The director was the musical comedy genius responsible for the spectacles in "42nd Street," "Wonder Bar," "Gold Diggers of 1933," "Footlight Parade" and other musicals. In "Gold Diggers of 1935" he is said to have created the most gorgeous and unique dance numbers of his career. There are three outstanding specialties including a dance in which 90 snow white grand pianos actually cavort on the stage. The dance team of Ramon and Rosita is also featured. In the cast are Dick Powell, Adolphe Menjou, Gloria Stuart, Alice Brady, Glenda Farrell, Frank McHugh, Hugh Herbert, Joseph Cawthorn, Grant Mitchell, Dorothy Dare and Winifred Shaw.

A personal attraction as powerful as the surge of the ocean tides, and a bright sophistication in common—these are the elements which will place the new co-starring team of Constance Bennett and Clark Gable among the leading film couples of 1935. Gable and Miss Bennett, who have never co-starred before, are together in a new production, described as an "active and romantic" story wherein the editor of a great newspaper falls in love with his society reporter and solves a murder mystery. The film opens next Wednesday.
