Loggers Trim the Famed Gilmore Lions Club

The roar of the Gilmore Lions was quieted to a mere peep when the Coquille Loggers completed their savage assault on the Medford team, last Sunday, trimming the gas outfit by a 10 to 2 score through the combined efforts of hard hitting and sure fire pitching.

The entire Coquille club played real, heads up baseball, though only half of them spanked the apple successfully for base hits. Roper, Brewer, Bud Duncan, Sowers and Kolstad, aided by one blow by Junior Bailey in his lone trip to the plate, provided the punch. They rained out extra base knocks, including a home run and a single by Brewer and doubles by Roper and Sowers, two for the latter, which would have produced scores in any man's ball game.

On the mound "Cocky" Brewer won his third start since he donned a Logger uniform. He let the opposition down with four bingles, all of which were of the one-base variety, and but for his own wildness and the one Coquille error, he might have hung-up a shutout victory. Always the master of the situation, the young hurler was buzzing the ball past the Lions with clocklike regularity, ten of the opposition retiring as strike-out victims.

Heads up baseball in general by the Loggers was a feature of the game. Base-running, primarily by Sowers, Bud Duncan and Brewer, helped greatly in leading to scores. Lineups:

Pictures at the Liberty

The Coming Week
One of the most spectacular screen offerings of a decade is promised for the Liberty Theatre when "Baboons," newest African adventure film of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, opens tonight.

"Baboons" is described as an aerial epic over Africa. Requiring twenty months in the filming, it was made while the Martin Johnsons toured 60,000 miles of unexplored jungle, visiting many spot in the dark continent never before glimpsed by civilized man.

This newest screen exploit of the intrepid pair reveals man's most dramatic conquest—the first record of Africa's remotest secrets filmed from the air. In two Sikorsky amphibians, christened "The Spirit of Africa" and "Osa's Ark," the Johnsons circled mysterious Mt. Kenya, snow-covered and inaccessible; flew over the vast Iturbi forest, visited the "mouth of Hell," Lake Rudolf; charged a vast herd of rhinos and another of buffalo across desert stretches, visited the Pygmies, who were enchanted with these huge birds that carried men; descended on the homeland of the baboons and accomplished other feats which would have been impossible had any other means of transport been employed. These and numerous other wonders are presented in "Baboons," with, it is said, an accuracy and reality never matched in an adventure or travel film. According to those who have viewed the picture prior to release, the result is an extraordinary one—a veritable succession of wonders. Where others have stopped, the Johnsons started—on safari in the air. Where no man or woman ever went before—they flew! From all advance accounts, "Baboons" is an exceptional achievement.

The year's gayest and most colorful musical romance comes to the screen when Irene Dunne, Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers open in the film version of the Broadway hit, "Roberta." It will open Sunday at the Liberty.

Featuring the singing of Miss Dunne, the dancing and singing of Astaire and Miss Rogers, and a brilliant display of feminine fashion by a regiment of beautiful mannequins, the production offers sparkling entertainment of tremendous appeal.

Melody and dance numbers and the lavish fashion displays all are woven logically into a fast-moving, thoroughly plausible story which combines tender romance with gay comedy. Love interest centers about Miss Dunne and Randolph Scott, although there is more than a suggestion of romance in the battle of wits between Astaire and Miss Rogers and their teaming of dance wizardry.

The story revolves about the comedy-rich situation of an All-American football player falling heir to a fashionable Paris gown shop. The grid hero and his band leader pal set the world of fashion agog, the hearts of the mademoiselles twitter, and the feet of Parisians aflame during the course of their hectic adventures.

A realistic prison break scene is Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.
