

POWERS

Harry Howell was taken to the Mercy Hospital in North Bend Friday afternoon for treatment for injuries received while at work on Eden Ridge.

The Powers P. T. A. held its final meeting for the year, Friday afternoon. The meeting opened with a devotional service, led by Mrs. Faith Adams. Mrs. Gamwell led the group in the singing of "America The Beautiful," with Mrs. Wayne Carver accompanying at the piano. Mrs. Earl Wiper sang two numbers, "The Rosary" and "Lay My Head Beneath a Rose," accompanied by Mrs. Lyle McCulloch. The mother's singers group, composed of Mrs. Jas. Gamwell, Mrs. Carl Briggs, Mrs. Henry Moe and Mrs. George Chapman, sang two numbers, "There's Music in the Air" and "Love's Old Sweet Song," accompanied by Mrs. John Purvis. The girls' glee club sang two songs, "Gypsy Love Song" and "Sleepy Hollow Tune." Clara Adams sang the solo part of the "Gypsy Love Song" with the glee club singing the chorus. Mrs. Wayne Carver, who is their music teacher, also accompanied them. The P. T. A. state president's message was read by Mrs. Jess Jones. Mrs. Gamwell gave her press and publicity report and Mrs. Allen King Sr. gave the historian's report, which was very interesting. Mrs. Ethel Littler announced the baby and pre-school clinic to be held at the Fellowship Hall next Thursday at nine o'clock. Mrs. Orlin Lay installed the officers elected to serve for the ensuing year: Mrs. Carl Briggs, president; Mrs. Eddie Rubin, vice president; Mrs. E. J. Greiner, secretary, and Mrs. Fred Stock, treasurer. Patty Whale presented each new officer with a beautiful corsage and Mrs. Gamwell presented the out-going officers with corsages. During the installation the mothers' singer sang the P. T. A. song, "Service for Others." Mrs. Briggs named the following committee chairmen: Mrs. Allen King, program; Mrs. Olin Lay, ways and means, and Mrs. James Gamwell, press and publicity. The count of mothers for each room gave the banner to the fifth and sixth grades. The sixth grade received the banner every meeting this past year and the fifth grade only missed one meeting. Mr. and Mrs. John King spent Saturday in Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wicks were in Marshfield on Tuesday, the former receiving medical care.

Tuesday morning, Oliver McAdams underwent an operation at the Mast Hospital. A little more than a week ago his knee was fractured when a push car ran into him. He was taken to the hospital and it was hoped that they could set the knee but upon examination it was found that the arteries had been cut and the knee so badly broken it became necessary to amputate the limb. He is rapidly recovering and is expected home in another week.

Dr. Ralph Milne and Dr. David Baird were in Myrtle Point on Tuesday.

Monday an election was held to vote bonds amounting to $18,000 for a new water system in Powers. There were 113 votes cast, 110 votes for, 3 votes against and 2 votes that couldn't be counted.

Tuesday afternoon the Sunshine club held a card party at the Moose Hall. Four tables of bridge and one of pinochle were in play and there were several who didn't play cards. High prize for bridge was won by Mrs. Ray Stewart and low by Miss Delores Fodrey. High prize for pinochle was won by Mrs. Everett Overton and low by Mrs. Geo. Buchanan. Mrs. Bruce Rider, Mrs. Rube Stevens and Mrs. Fred Stock acted as hostesses. A dessert luncheon was served preceding the playing.

Miss Maxine Kerrigan, who is now making her home in Portland, has been spending this past week here. She was one of the graduates from the local high school.

Mrs. Belle Waldeck is again confined to her bed, due to the injury she received two weeks ago.

Fred Powers spent Monday in Marshfield.

Gus Hamilton has been in Marshfield receiving treatment for an eye injury.

Mrs. Allen King, Jr., took her daughter to Marshfield on Tuesday to have her tonsils removed. She returned home on Friday. Mrs. Ardith Moade was in charge of the telephone office in the absence of Mrs. King.

Miss Ethel McCloskey, of Marshfield, visited for several days this week with Mrs. Chas. Johnson.

Miss Mary Evans spent Tuesday visiting in Myrtle Point.

The Fellowship club met on Wednesday with Mrs. Albert Powers and Mrs. Fred Powers as hostesses. After a dessert luncheon the afternoon was spent playing cards.

Donald Farr Wins Honors

Donald Farr was selected as the outstanding junior man in business administration to have his name engraved on the Alpha Kappa Psi, business honorary plaque, in the main hall of the Commerce building, says the Oregon Emerald, U. of O. paper. The award was made by members of Alpha Kappa Psi on the basis of scholarship, leadership, student body activities, and character. This award is made each year to the most outstanding man of the junior class of business administration.

Funeral Same Day for Brothers

Two brothers, John and Milton Elliott, 78 and 76 years of age, who had lived on adjoining ranches on the Seven Devils road since their youth, passed away within 24 hours of one another, last Friday and Saturday. They had been boyhood chums and had homesteaded the places on which they lived for half a century.

Funeral services were held for them Tuesday at the Campbell Funeral Home in Marshfield.

Calling cards, 50 for $1.00.
