Riverton News

At their special session Friday, May 24, the boards of education of the Riverton Union High School and grade district No. 4 met with the budget committee which was comprised of Richard Danielson, Forrest Russell, W. A. Bean, Harry Heffley and Mrs. A. C. Dye. On recommendation of the committee an appropriation for a fourth high-school teacher was added to the budget. An extra grade school teacher may also be hired. The overcrowded condition in the grades during the past year and the addition of a Smith-Hughes instructor to the high school make these changes imperative. Due to the retirement in 1934 of the last of the bonded indebtedness, little if any increase in tax levy is expected to result. The grade budget will be voted on June 17; the high school budget will be discussed June 24. The addition of the Smith-Hughes department here is regarded as the most important change since the school was organized. An increase in enrollment is expected to result from the establishment of the department.

Pictures at the Liberty

The Coming Week

Rudy Vallee is coming to the Liberty Theatre tonight and Saturday. He will have with him not only his own famous Connecticut Yankees, but the Frank and Milt Britton band of instrument wreckers. He will be assisted by charming Ann Dvorak, youthful screen star who has turned "hooper" for the occasion, as well as Helen Morgan, greatest of torch singers, Ned Sparks, Robert Armstrong, Allen Jenkins, Alice White, Joe Cawthorn and Al Shean who was Mr. Gallagher's partner not so many years ago. They'll all be there, with scores of other singers, dancers, players, in Rudy Vallee's greatest film triumph, "Sweet Music," produced as only Warner Bros., who created film musicals, can make them.

"$10 Raise," described by Hollywood's hard-boiled critics as a tender, different picture that vividly translates the heartaches of a romance that is perishing through lack of money, will be the preview at the Liberty this week end. A felicitous choice was made in allotting to Edward Everett Horton and the glamorous Karen Morley, the principal roles in this intimate study of a business romance. Horton plays bookkeeper who for fourteen years slaves for the same salary. A secretary is hired. For four more years the bookkeeper wears out his heart trying to screw up enough courage to ask for a raise so that he can confess his love. Despairing ever to find a gold mine in his static pay check, the bookkeeper starts to invest in gold-brick schemes, with himself as the "sucker," till Dame Fortune smiles.

"Go Into Your Dance," musical spectacle, opens at the Liberty Theatre Sunday, with Al Jolson and his wife, Ruby Keeler, co-starring. This is the first time Jolson, the famous Broadway singer who introduced talking pictures to the public, and Miss Keeler, one time musical comedy star who rose to fame in two years on the screen, have ever played together before. Their team work is said to be remarkable. The picture is based on a story by Bradford Ropes, author of "42nd Street." It is intensely dramatic in spots, with hilarious comedy situations and a glowing romance. Spectacular dance numbers in which scores of Hollywood's most beautiful chorus girls take part, were created and staged by Bobby Connolly, noted Broadway musical comedy director who recently has turned his talents to the screen. There are seven song hits in the picture, written by the ace team of Warren and Dubin. These are sung by Jolson, Miss Keeler and Helen Morgan, famous torch singer. The story concerns a Broadway entertainer, who is barred from playing in New York because of his fondness for wine, women and the "ponies." The staging of his comeback leads through love tangle, thrilling situations and a dramatic denouement. There is a talented supporting cast which includes Barton MacLane, Sharon Lynne, Patsy Kelly, Benny Rubin, Gordon Westcott and Joyce Compton.

We have appointed C. H. Hodgdon our agent for Coquille. All orders left or phoned (1M) him will be promptly taken care of. Give our floral work a trial. We will do our best to please you. Myrtle Greenhouses, Myrtle Point. 41f
