and I will apply the proceeds of said sale, first, to the payment of the costs of said sale and to the costs and disbursements of said suit; and, second, to the payment of the amount due plaintiff on the aforesaid judgment with accrued interest.

Dated at Coquille, Oregon, this 18th day of May, 1935.
Wm. F. Howell,
1915 Sheriff of Coos County, Oregon.

Live News From Arago

The Red Cross class met Friday with an examination lasting the first hour and demonstration of different types of bandages the second. There were twelve in attendance.

Ray Parker left Thursday for Port Orford, where he has out-of-door employment for the summer. He has purchased a housecar trailer and will move his family down there next week.

One evening last week a group of friends gathered at the Lefe Cornwell home for a surprise potluck supper and an evening of visiting. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Holmes and daughters, Betty Lou and Maxine, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barger and sons, Chester and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Patrick and son, Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller and son, Fred, Mr. and Mrs. Gano Cornwell and son, Irvin, Evelyn Welch, Lucille and Lorraine Holmes and Ray Cornwell and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell.

A band of gypsies arrived in Arago Sunday and camped in the Carl grove over Monday. There were three cars.

Mrs. Geo. Hampton called on her sister, Mrs. Chester Root, who was operated on in a Coquille hospital Saturday. Chester Root was able to leave a bay hospital last week. His arm is healing slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schroeder, Price and Lois, Mrs. Emily Hickam and Mrs. Naomi Robison left Thursday for Corvallis where they will visit relatives. Mrs. Robison will stay with her sister, Mrs. Maurice Thompson. The Schroeders visited Mrs. Martha Averill and investigated entrance requirements at the State College, where Price and Lois plan to enroll next fall. The Schroeders returned Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore are at home to their friends in the cottage opposite the phone office in Coquille, where Mrs. Moore intends to open a beauty shop soon.

Mrs. Alvin Billings, who has been bedfast since her recent goitre operation was able to be out for a short time Monday.

Last Friday Mrs. George Hampton drove her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Wallen, to McCready Springs, where they will stay for a few weeks for his health. Mrs. Hampton returned on Saturday and moved the Wallens' household goods to a house on the Hampton place, where they will stay on their return. They recently sold their home in west Myrtle Point.

Everett Lafferty is working for the Pearce Garage in Myrtle Point. Willie Sinko is working on the ranch for him.

Mrs. Ella Langor, of Powers, arrived Saturday at the Clarence Schroeder home where she will visit this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Squier, of Booth, spent Saturday and Sunday at the Albert Gulstrom home. Mrs. Squier was formerly Irene Bussum and made her home with the Gulstroms in Arago for a time. She is a niece of Mr. Gulstrom.

Sam Damron was taken seriously ill with double pneumonia last Wednesday night. His condition was critical for twenty-four hours but he is making a rapid recovery now, and hopes to be out again by the end of the week.

Mrs. L. W. McAdam and baby daughter, Barbara Lorraine, returned home from the hospital Sunday.

daughter, Glenda Stewart, returned to their home Sunday after a two weeks' visit in Portland.

Albert Gulstrom has made such rapid improvement the past week that the special nurses have been dismissed and he has been moved to the ward in the hospital. He is gaining some in strength and is getting some rest from the severe pain he has suffered.

S. C. McAllister was moved to their home on Hall's Creek Friday, making the trip in the Schroeder ambulance. He is still bedfast but hopes the move from the hospital will prove beneficial. He spent almost six months there. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wannanmaugher, of Bandon, drove up and assisted Mrs. McAllister with the details of moving and setting up house-keeping again.

Fairview
Dennis McCarthy, of Marshfield, was a business caller in the valley on Tuesday of this week.

Several of the young folks of the valley attended the senior ball at the high school last Friday evening. They were: Norman and Harold Berry, Norman Powell, Harold Young, Fay Holverstott, Lois Teters and Bette Yeoman. Special mention should be made of the fact that Clynard Holverstott, of this community, and his partner, Miss Georgia Sherwood, led the grand march which opened the ball. Clynard is vice president of the senior class.

Mrs. S. R. McCarter and Mrs. Lew Sonneland were Marshfield visitors last Saturday.

Several new families have arrived to make their home in Fairview to be near the logging camp.

Harold Berry, of North Plains, came home to attend the graduation of his brother, Norman, and to visit his parents.

The Young People's Christian League meeting was postponed last Sunday so that the members might attend the high school baccalaureate services. The meeting will be held next Sunday afternoon, with Mrs. Ellis in charge.

Quite a number of the valley folks attended the baccalaureate services at the Pioneer Methodist Church Sunday evening: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norris and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Powell and family, Mrs. C. A. Holverstott, Mrs. L. E. Teters, Mrs. Bertha Graham, Harold Young, Mrs. Horace Berry and Mrs. D. V. Yeoman. Miss Annamae Holverstott was chosen to sing in the choir for the services.

Six members of the C. H. graduating class are from Fairview so the exercises this evening should prove interesting to most of the valley folks. Those to receive diplomas are: Clifford Norris, Norman Powell, Norman Berry, Clynard Holverstott, Lois Teters and Bette Yeoman.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Johnson spent last Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. M. E. Teters, at her home.

A group of young people from Coquille picnicked at the Fairview Falls last Sunday. They were: Audrey Kendall, Anne Van Scoy, Harriet Webb, Powell Yarbrough, Don Smith and Jim Robinson.

There's been a petition out this last week for the improvement of the road leading to the Fairview cemetery. This week, on Decoration Day, the residents here placed flowers on the graves of their relatives.

Mrs. Nancy Nealy has been ill of late but is better now.
