 You get the smoothness of 8-cylinder performance today—in the most economical car to run that Ford has built during 31 years of building economical cars.
 Ask your Ford dealer to explain how the dual carburetor of a Ford V-8 splits the fuel needed by a 4 into 8 equal charges... Ask him to show you how crankcase ventilation assures better year-round oil efficiency... Note the aluminum cylinder heads which allow premium performance on regular priced gasoline.

This rugged power plant is simple and compact—yet it develops 85 honest horsepower. At 50-60 miles per hour this engine is actually running at ease! Like the whole new Ford V-8, from its welded all-steel body to its welded steel spoke wheels, this engine is built to live up to the Ford tradition of low cost, dependable transportation.

Just a Breeze for the Loggers Last Sunday

What with some hard hitting, plenty of strike outs by Brewer, of Coquille, hooting and yowling at Penny Sturdivant, arguments, and this and that, a gorgeous spectacle was portrayed in our ball park last Sunday. The Loggers slammed out a 12 to 5 against the North Bend club, which was not much more than an easy mark for the Fortier clan despite their somewhat slow playing.
 The game started well enough when North Bend opened by scoring in the first inning, while Coquille was going runless and hitless until the third. But in the third the situation warmed up so much for the Loggers that they went to town in real fashion.

Altogether five runs crossed the plate behind the combined efforts of a triple by Moran, a double by Roper, singles by Stewart and Sowers, and a few other aiding influences. This put the locals comfortably in the lead, but hogishly they scored twice again in the fourth, but as things turned out these tallies were much needed.
 In the fourth and fifth two North Benders worked their way home and, then in the sixth, when "Bud" Duncan led ferociously, things happened so suddenly that while an argument was going on between the third baseman and Sturdivant, two runners helped themselves to scores. "Cocky" Brewer, at this point, had to settle down to retire the side on strike outs.
 The score standing at 7 to 5, Coquille came to life again in the seventh frame by scoring another quintet of runs. This time hits, errors, stolen bases, wild pitches, hit batters and walks were included in the debacle.
 Young Mr. Brewer hurled his usual good game against the Coquille opponent. "Cocky" helped himself to eighteen strike outs, which included groups of three in the third, fourth and sixth innings. Lineups:

UNDER THE BLEACHERS

Climaxes have been coming fast and thick in the realm of Coquille baseball. But with all the upshots and howling, we know that Bill Fortier will reign on and continue to put forth the best possible. Bill is making time with a nice, easy trot.
 First, the fans have been howling continually about the weak opponents who have been scheduled. But this is over, now, if Bill can do what he expects to do to re-establish things, for starting with Crescent City on Sunday the tough ones are going to get tougher in each succeeding fray. Roseburg has been scheduled, while most important of all is the news that the Broadway Clowns of New York, an all-negro outfit, will be here in July. And then, if possible, the strongest Portland clubs will be lined up, these including Hop Gold, Blitz-Wienhard, Wolfer's Federals, and others. Sure to be scheduled, too, are the House of David teams, or any other barnstorming organization that wants to take a beating in Coquille.
 Minor dissension troubles have also been noticed, what with Hal Sowers and "Bud" Duncan threatening from time to time to leave the club and other players wrangling somewhat, not really working together as they should. "Bud" finally quit as threatened, turning in his uniform after last Sunday's game without announcing any reasons. Sowers continues to stay in Coquille, but he'll have to settle down or else go his way.

 Manager Fortier, this season, has the full support of President Kenneth "Count" Lawrence and the rest of the front office. Within certain considerations and limitations the club's policy is strictly fashioned and the players have to take what is tendered them or else walk the plank, and if they can't make the grade it means a stroll, also.
 Ray Woodyard can easily supplant Duncan at third base without weakening the infield in any respect, offensively or defensively. However, if Sowers leaves the Loggers will suffer a real loss, because this boy is a valuable addition. Woodyard could move to the gardens if Duncan was still on hand, while as another alternative "Guppy" Guptill, who shouldn't have been released in the first place, might be re-signed.
 Anyway, it's on the top for the Loggers from now on. There's going to be spirit and co-operation in their morale, as well as tough games for their diet.

Here is some dope on "Cocky" Brewer's hurling record. In five games he's won all starts, struck out 92 batters, allowed 15 runs, and 26 hits. Figure out the average in each instance yourself.
 Some of the hitters are clouting as follows: Brewer .500, Roper .478, Sowers .411, and Kolstad .409.
