Club Notes and Other Social Activities

The B. P. W. Club members met at the home of Mrs. Ruth Beyers last Tuesday evening. This ending the fiscal year, the various officers gave their reports, which showed splendid results for the year, the treasurer reporting forty-six paid up members in the organization. At this time the one thousand dollar revolving scholarship loan fund, started by the club about ten years ago, and lacking only a few dollars to complete, the club voted to hold a cooked food sale at Gould's Furniture store next Saturday in an effort to raise the remaining amount. Aside from this fund the B. P. W. has contributed generously to numerous other social and civic organizations.

Preceding the business session Tuesday evening the club ladies were escorted through the Beyers very attractive flower gardens.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Georgia Richmond, on July 1st, at her cabin in Bandon.

The Justamere club held its last meeting of the year yesterday at the home of Mrs. A. J. Sherwood, hostesses for the occasion being the members whose names are included in the last half of the list, alphabetically. Following the delightful one o'clock luncheon the ladies enjoyed a pleasant afternoon with needlework. Members of the club include Mesdames Sanford, Sherwood, Osmundson, Lamb, Smith, Fuhrman, Hawkins, Folsom, Greenough, Wernich, Sikkels, Pierce and Hazard.

Mrs. Roy Neal was hostess to the Ecadrien ladies last Monday for noon luncheon, with the following members in attendance: Mrs. Earl Nosler, Miss Willard Bossorman, Mrs. John Aasen, Mrs. Ed Walker, Mrs. George Johnson and Mrs. J. E. Axtell.

The younger contract bridge group met at the home of Miss Katherine Jane Hassler on Wednesday evening.

Knife Hospital

Mary Ann Schroeder, of Coquille, and Kenneth Anderson, of Myrtle Point, are both recovering nicely from appendicitis operations they underwent last Thursday.

Robert Hatcher underwent an operation on his hand last Friday, and Mrs. Chas. Sell a major operation on Monday.

Blanche Yonkers, of Langlois, submitted to an operation for appendicitis on Tuesday, and S. B. Leeper, of Coquille, a major operation the same day.

Dismissals the past week were Mrs. Harold Gould and baby and Mrs. Nellie Billings last Saturday, and Dorothy Rivers on Wednesday.

at the close of which dainty refreshments were served. The following participated in play: Miss Elizabeth Pierce, Miss Carol Young, Miss Frances Oddy, Miss Marietta Hufford, Miss Geneva Agostino, Miss Lena Williams, Mrs. Margaret Brodie and the hostess.

Mrs. L. P. Fugelson and Mrs. E. L. Hand were joint hostesses, at the home of Mrs. Fugelson on Wednesday afternoon, for a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Verla Roberts, bride-elect, whose marriage to Mr. Carlton Smith, will take place soon. Miss Roberts is a sister of Mrs. Drue Cunningham of this city and is recently graduated from high school in Washington.

The buffet lunch was served from a beautifully appointed table with canterbury bells supplying the decorations. Assisting the hostesses were Miss Blanche Sandon, Mrs. Della Wilcox, Mrs. Claire Hultin and Mrs. Stanton Stevens. Many useful and lovely gifts were received by the honor guest to whom the affair was a complete surprise. The young couple expect to make their home in the Sanford Heights neighborhood. The guests present included: Mesdames Annie Robinson, Elsie Wheaton, Alma Minard, H. L. Varney, Pearl Smith, Vivian DeWeese, Mary Wise, Ella Black, Claire Hultin, Elsie Cunningham, Della Wilcox, Fannie Stevens, Eva Stevens, Elizabeth Hand, Lois Oerding, Susie Matney, Sam Arnold, Sr., T. C. Broshers, Earl Carlisle, Peter Gehlke, Della Nosler, Miss Blanche Sandon.

Myrtle Point friends of Miss Muriel Dae invited her to bring her String Ensemble to that city on Monday evening, when they appeared in concert at the Methodist Church. Rev. W. Raymond Wilder, pastor of the Pioneer Church of Coquille, also assisted on the program with several vocal numbers. Other individuals appearing on the program included Audrey Aasen, Leonard Ensele, Lyndell Southstone, Ann Hawkins, Donna Rankin, Cherie Mae Hartwell and La Velle Dale. Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, Miss Dae and Miss Geraldine Ensele were accompanists for the evening.

Mrs. Ray Thomas entertained her duplicate contract bridge club at one o'clock lunch Wednesday. Guests and members present were Mesdames Emery, Bradford, Hicking, Rackleif, Folsom, Boober and Stewart.

Basketry Class

Mrs. Gladys Wheeler will conduct the basketry class at her home on June 27. All attending are requested to have all necessary articles needed for basket making. Mrs. Bonnie Dutton will give special instructions to the beginners, so please be on time as the class will start at two o'clock. Mrs. Frank Wilson will have some of her original designs to exhibit. Those who are interested in the work will find many things of interest and are especially invited to attend.

Notice to the Public

A few days ago the refrigeration plant of the Economy Market was again in operation after being shut down for eight days. We expected daily to have the necessary repairs made, but delay in receiving parts disappointed us. We sincerely regret the inconvenience caused our customers, and request anyone who suffered a loss because of this lack of refrigeration to come in and tell us about it. We will make it good most cheerfully.
