Grinding Oyster Shells

for Agricultural Lime

A recent development of major importance to agriculture in Coos county is the grinding of oyster and clam shell from natural deposits on Coos Bay into agricultural lime.

These shells, which are of no particular value in their present location, after being ground, make an excellent form of agricultural lime which tests high in neutralizing value, according to George Jenkins, county agent, who is operating this plant.

Approximately 200 tons of the material has now been ground and it is proposed to keep the plant in operation only until orders for the material have been filled. In grinding the shell a large hammer mill owned by the Coos Bay Dredging Company, is used, which will grind many tons during the day. Power to operate the plant is furnished by a 15 h. p. electric motor, and the ground material goes directly into trucks which haul it to farms.

Based on its value as compared with other sources of lime now available, the ground shell supplies lime at about one-half the cost and is reported to be of excellent quality for use on sour land such as is common in the coast section, Jenkins stated.

Evils of Tobacco Told

E. F. Atchley, of the Anti-Cigarette League of Oregon, spoke at the Church of Christ Tuesday night.

Mr. Atchley marshalled an abundance of facts showing the economic loss resulting from fire caused by careless smokers, the bodily and mental harm. Quotations were given from such medical authorities as the Mayo brothers, Dr. D. H. Kress, of Tacoma Park, Washington, D. C., and J. H. Kellogg, of Battle Creek Sanitarium. Educators, musicians and athletes were also quoted to show the harmful effects upon people in these fields.

It costs the U. S. three billion dollars a year for losses by fire caused by careless smokers, the speaker stated. America spends three and a half billion annually for tobacco and tobacco supplies. This is as much as we spend for schools and churches, he said.

Council Refuses License to a New Card Room

motion of Jack Lefevre the application was denied.

The matter of a planned street lighting system for the business section was considered and a committee consisting of Councilmen Jeub, Lefevre and Medley, was named to meet with a Chamber of Commerce committee to agree on some uniform lighting system. It was pointed out that several property owners desired to install suitable street lights at once, if the city was unable to pay for a uniform installation now, and if a plan is agreed upon the individual owners, such as the Coquille Service Station and the Liberty Theatre can proceed at once.

Engineer Stare reported an estimated cost of $486 for SERA labor and a total cost of $1,476.33 for making the improvements on the water front as suggested by the Chamber of Commerce.

J. E. Norton, president of the chamber, was advised of the figures and conferred with the council. Nothing has been budgeted for such a city improvement and it was decided to postpone making it until the new set-up of handling federal funds is made. It is expected that the SERA will be abolished and a new plan substituted by which 45 per cent of the cost of municipal projects would be a gift, and 55 per cent a loan to be repaid over a period of years.

It was ordered that $10 be paid Mare Shelley for an easement across his ranch property, a right-of-way to the city's water reservoir at the head of Rink creek.

Recorder Leslie reported that water receipts had been much better the past two weeks and that more people were making an effort to catch up on their delinquent water accounts.

Social Activities

A number of the members of Job's Daughters motored over to Marshfield on Wednesday evening, where they assisted in the installation ceremonies of that Bethel, in the following capacities: Marshal, Miss Zelma Bosserman; Guide, Miss Margaret Purvance; Secretary, Miss Lellevie Walstrom; Senior and Junior Custodians, Miss Doris Compton and Miss La Velle Dale; Chaplain, Miss Marilyn Compton; Pages, Miss Georgianna Johnson and Miss Virginia Hartson. Chaperoning the party from here were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bosserman, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Sanford and Mrs. Lafa Compton.

Mrs. M. M. Newdall entertained with two tables of contract bridge Wednesday evening for the pleasure of her sisters, the Misses Charis and Frances Owens, guests in the Newdall home. At games Miss Marjorie McClellan held high honors for the evening, Miss Jeannette Pook being consoled, and each receiving lovely prizes. The other guests were Misses Anne Barton, Dorothy Cary, Marjorie Knight and Florence Folsom.

Miss Dora Kendall and Mrs. Clifford Judd gave a surprise miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Kendall Thursday evening, complimenting Miss Ruth Brandt, whose marriage to Mr. Harold Dey will take place early next month. The gifts were presented to Miss Brandt in a large, beautifully trimmed basket featuring a miniature bride and groom, and consisted of many useful and lovely things. Assisting in serving were the Misses Gretchen Neal and Audrey Kendall. The invited guests were: Jeannette Pook, Kay Miller, Florence Folsom, Mrs. Gertrude Swinney, Mrs. Lucille Ellison, Mrs. Alice Morris, Geneva Agostino, Olive Tillmann, Doris Williams, Marjorie Knight, Lorraine Simpson, Lena Williams, Alta Brandt, Carol Young, Berniece Eggleston, Mrs. Frances Detlefsen, Vera Gaslin, Mrs. Gladys Seelye, Mrs. Eleanor Miller and Mrs. Maxine Stevens.

Mrs. Otto Davis, of Myrtle Point, was hostess to her contract bridge club at one o'clock luncheon on Thursday. Members in attendance from Coquille were Mesdames Theo. Clinton, Geo. Johnson, Joe Knight, Alice Wilson, and Mrs. Norna Rickman, of Myrtle Point. Mrs. Austin Dodge and Mrs. Ernest Clausen, of Broadbent, were guests for the afternoon.

Miss Gretchen Clinton entertained a dozen of her friends on Thursday with an outdoor dinner party, the occasion being her thirteenth birthday. The young ladies enjoying the affair were Misses Maxine Knight, Phyllis Belloni, Bonnie Gage, Rheo Walker, Ann Hawkins, Jean Newton, Marjorie Clinton, Betty Jean Morrot, Erna Caudell, Glennis Finley, Wilda Hauser and Lucille Cornelius.

Mrs. Glaisyer Becomes Worthy Grand Matron

Beulah Chapter No. 6, O. E. S., was as much honored at the grand chapter session of the Eastern Star, in Portland last week as was Mrs. Inez J. Glaisyer, former worthy matron of the chapter here, who was elected and installed as worthy grand matron of the order for the state of Oregon.

At the same installation ceremony, Mrs. Mabel Ulett, also a past worthy matron of Beulah Chapter, was installed as grand marshal.

The floral degree team which, in Grecian costume, presented a beautiful drill was highly complimented on the manner in which they went through the intricacies of the march. This feature was a surprise to the new grand matron who had not previously been informed as to what her chapter would present at the installation.

Mrs. Maud Woodyard's vocal selections were heartily received and she won warm encomiums for her delightful numbers.

A report on the grand chapter session will be given at the next meeting of Beulah chapter, on June 27, which will be the last meeting of the chapter until fall.

Wilson - Newton

At an attractive ceremony in the Christian Church on June 14, at seven o'clock, Miss Agnes Newton and Levi Wilson, both of Coquille, were united in marriage by Earl F. Downing. Miss Alda Sloan attended the bride, while Ralph Harry acted as best man.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Ralph Harry sang, "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Marvin Jane Hawkins, after which the bridal party, led by Phyllis Rae Downing as flower girl, and Jimmie Newton as ring-bearer, entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

Miss Newton was lovely in a pale pink silk crepe suit trimmed in white fur, white crepe turban and white accessories. She carried a shower bouquet of Cecile Brunner roses and sweet peas of pastel shades. Miss Sloan wore a yellow crepe dress with finger-tip length jacket, white hat and accessories and carried an arm bouquet of bronze and yellow snapdragons.

Only immediate relatives were present. After leaving the church, the bridal party and guests attended a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry. Soon after Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left for a wedding trip to Portland and Vancouver. They returned late Sunday and are at home in the Opperman Apartments.

The 4th at Port Orford

The big feature of the Fourth of July celebration at Port Orford this year is the reproduction of the historic pageant, "The Battle of Battle Rock," says the Western World. A large number of people, especially trained for the event will participate.

An outstanding feature of the day's program will be the presentation of the celebration queen, Lucy Dan, aged 99 years, the last survivor of the Rogue River Indian tribe, who will be brought from her reservation home for this occasion.

Other attractions are sports and races, including pony and burro races and a race between Port Orford crabs. Dancing will be at the Magnolia Gardens both afternoon and evening.

receipts for the year of $97,478.91; disbursements, $88,608.38; leaving a balance on hand of $2757.23 in cash, $588.33 in the hands of the county treasurer, and $5,524.97 in warrants in the clerk's hand.

Warrants marked during the year as not paid for lack of funds, totalled $35,349.52, but the warrants redeemed totalled $40,863.69. Interest payment on bonds amounted to $2,565.00, and on warrants to $2,621.50. A warrant debt reduction of $5500 the past year leads to the hope that eventually the district will return to a cash basis. The outstanding bonds remained stationary at $54,000.

The report states that there are seven men and seventeen lady instructors in the Coquille schools.

Did You Ever Try to Cut Wood Without an Axe?

Last week (8 days) I tried to operate my market without refrigeration (due to a breakdown in my plant) and I found it was about as easy to do it as it would be to cut wood without an axe. If by any chance our meats were not up to our high standards during that week, I sincerely hope to have an opportunity to make it right.

And, "Thank You"
