Club Notes and OtherSocial Activities

The Job's Daughters enjoyed a swim in the natatorium at Bandon Monday evening, later indulging in a hamburger feed at the city park. Chaperons for the party included: Mr. and Mrs. E. Purvance, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bosserman, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Sanford, Mrs. Bertha Smith, Mrs. Fred McNelly, Mrs. Theo Clinton and Mrs. Tway.

Noreen McKeown was hostess to the Trooper club Monday evening, with cards and other games for entertainment. Dainty refreshments were served, the following being present: Misses Audrey Kendall, Harriet Webb, Alfreda Harry, Mary Burr, Faye Hurrell, Geraldine Minard, Hallie Knight, Maxine Johnson, Gretchen Neal, and Anne Van Scoy. The club will meet again in two weeks with Miss Alfreda Harry.

Mrs. J. A. Lamb was hostess to her contract bridge club on Tuesday at her Bandon beach cabin, the affair being a pot luck luncheon. Members present included Mesdames Hazard, Chaney, Greenough, Ulett, Sikkels, Bradford, Emery and Stewart. This is probably the last meeting of the club for the season.

Misses Barbara and Beryl Unsoeld entertained with a six o'clock dinner Tuesday evening, complimenting Miss Dorothy Williams, of Eureka, Calif., who with her mother, are guests of Mrs. C. E. McCurdy. Invited for the evening were Mrs. Phyllis Hamilton, Miss Margaret Paulson, Miss Betty Glaisyer, Miss Carol Young and the honor guest.

Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman entertained the following ladies at her Bandon beach cabin on Tuesday, the gentlemen joining the ladies for dinner and the evening: Mrs. Henry Lorenz and her sister, Mrs. Bee Mahan, and Mrs. Camilla Rietman. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lamb were also guests for the evening.

The J. G. W. club members and their families will hold their annual picnic next Sunday at Brewster valley, motoring out for breakfast. Both breakfast and the big dinner to follow will be held in the beautiful myrtle grove. It is anticipated that a large crowd will be in attendance.

Mrs. Frances Detlefsen arranged a surprise shower Friday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Bernice Eggleston, whose marriage to Mr. Belmont Ireland will be an event of late summer. The bride-elect was deluged with many lovely gifts. Those present included Mesdames John Spicer, Clifford Judd, LeRoy Swinney, Sherman Morris, Harold Stevens, Misses Lena Williams, Lorraine Simpson, Alta Brandt, Ruth Brandt, Marjorie Knight, Florence Folsom, Betty Glaisyer, Carol Young, Jeanette Pook, Audrey Kendall, Geneva Agostino, Alice Briggs and Larue Hall.

Fairview

The community was greatly saddened on Friday of last week when word was received that Amos Hatcher had passed away at Salem after suffering greatly the past year with heart trouble. Mr. Hatcher would have been 79 years old on Friday, July 5, and he has spent many years of his life in Fairview. On Sunday, June 30, at two o'clock the funeral services were held at the Dora church, which was filled to overflowing with the many friends and relatives who came to pay their last tribute to a devoted friend and father. Interment was at the Dora cemetery. Mr. Hatcher leaves to mourn his passing, a daughter, Mrs. Neta Neal, a grandson, Harold Neal, a brother, Sim Hatcher, and two nephews, Clarence and Ernest Hatcher, besides a grand nephew and four grand nieces, all of Fairview. The community extends a hand in sympathy to these bereaved ones.

On Friday of last week, Melvin Johnson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson, gave his parents and neighbors a frightening scare. The boy became suddenly ill and everyone present was certain that he would pass away before his father and Dr. Hamilton arrived. It was thought first that he had one of the severest types of an appendicitis attack but it later proved to be that he had passed through a convulsion caused by oxyurias (pin-worms) that are so frequent in young children. Everyone is glad that he is better now.

Mrs. Lilly Berkhelmer, who has been in California the past month returned to her home in Fairview last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Ray Deadmond, of Fairview, has recently been chosen to serve on the Home Extension council which is sponsoring a Home Mothers' camp at Eel Lake to be held from July 31 to August 4. This camp is arranged and directed by the Extension Service of the Oregon Agricultural College and is held for the purpose of providing a restful, inspiring and educational vacation at a minimum cost.

Clarence Deadmond, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Deadmond, and Mary Dow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dow, of Fairview, were married at Eugene, Sunday, June 23. Mr. and Mrs. Deadmond will make their home in Coquille, where he has employment at the Coos Bottling Works.

H. M. Withrow has been busy the past week building a garage at his home on the Fairview hill.

This year the orchards in the valley shows a very heavy fruit crop. The branches of the trees are showing bending and drooping, they are so heavily laden with green fruit. Several farmers have already put props under their trees.

The recent rain in the valley, although of no good to the hay, was highly beneficial to the gardens and other crops. From various reports it apparently rained more here than in other vicinities close by.

On Monday of this week Vern Hatcher's police pup was run over
