Iowa Picnic Last Sunday

The fifth annual gathering of former Iowans met in the North Bend Auto Park on Sunday, July 28th, for their picnic dinner and get-together meeting. The weather was perfect, (as usual), and at one o'clock dinner was served around long tables filled with lots of good things to eat. During the dinner hour pictures were taken of the group and afterward a business meeting and program. Officers for 1936 are Mrs. W. L. Cassidy, president; Mrs. C. C. Bennett, first vice president; J. S. Day, second vice president, and Mrs. C. C. Moore, re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. L. W. Top read a very interesting paper on statistics of the former home state. Short talks were given by each of the new officers.

W. V. Ashburn, of Winchester Bay, a man 80 years old, sang two songs from memory without accompaniment, so very nicely. They were "The Old Kitchen Floor," and "Come Dear Friend, We All Are Brethren." Mrs. W. L. Cassidy, of Marshfield, gave a humorous reading, "Entertaining Her Sister's Beau." Mrs. Wm. Bemer, of Palo, Iowa, gave a reading, entitled, "A District School." Then L. E. Alexander, of Coquille, and C. C. Bennett each gave a talk on our Iowa Club, and how much they enjoyed being members. Geo. A. Martin gave a reading, "A Dinky's Sermon on Hell."

The oldest man present was P. B. Gavitt, of Marshfield, who was 82 years old in December, 1934. The oldest woman was Mrs. L. W. Tope, of North Bend, 70 years old last March. The oldest couple were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Tope. Little Miss Doris Jean Sawdye, three years old, born in Maquoketa, Iowa, was the youngest member on the register. And as for the latest arrival from the good old state of Iowa, it was found that there were four who came to Oregon within the last three weeks, but A. A. Hall, of Marengo, Iowa, just arrived from there as the question was asked, so he, with the other honor members, received a lovely bouquet of flowers.

Staninger - Myers

Kenneth L. Staninger, of Coquille, and Miss Thais Myers, of Marshfield, were married by Turner B. MacDonald, Christian church minister, at his home in Port Orford last Saturday afternoon. The couple were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Paul McElwaine, who returned to their home in Marshfield after the ceremony while the newlyweds went south on a honeymoon trip.

The groom, known to all his friends as "Bucko," is salesman for the Southwestern Motor Co.

Another marriage performed by Mr. MacDonald last Saturday was that of Chas. Heltzel, of Portland, who is working on the Port Orford dock construction, and Jeannette Everingham, of Butte, Mont. They were accompanied by their mothers from Butte.
