

FAIRVIEW

Frank Teters, who was painfully injured last week, is improving rapidly from last reports. Mr. Teters, it will be remembered, had the misfortune to break his leg when the team with which he was hauling wood, ran away with him.

Since the logging operations in the local camp have ceased, several families have moved to other locations. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bartley and Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Whobrey and small daughter, Marlene, are among them. Mr. Saylor has moved into the house that Mr. and Mrs. Bartley vacated.

The Young People's Christian League held its regular meeting last Sunday evening, October 6. An election of officers was held with the following results: president, Phill Jensen; vice president, Dale Foord; secretary-treasurer, Helen Johnson; advisers, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. Benham and Mrs. Harrah; pianist, Miss Woodward. New literature for the next quarter has been ordered and a membership drive is to be started to enlarge the organization. Bette Yeoman was appointed leader for next Sunday evening. Frank Davis was the only new member taken into the League at this meeting.

The Fairview-North Fork Grange, No. 739, will hold its regular meeting Saturday evening, October 12. At this meeting a group of new members will be initiated in the first and second degree work.

Rev. G. A. Gray, of Coquille, held services following Sunday school at the Fairview church house last Sunday. The Y. P. C. L. was instrumental in securing Mr. Gray for every first and third Sunday. Mr. Gray has been calling on valley residents this week in order to interest them in these services. It is hoped that many folks will take advantage of the opportunity to hear him talk whenever it is possible.

Harold Norris, son of Mrs. Hazel Benham of this community, returned Tuesday evening from Portland where he visited as a member of the stock judging team of the Coquille chapter of the PFA. Harold is a sophomore in high school this year and an outstanding Ag boy.

Several of the company trucks belonging to the Ray brothers, have been hauling the machinery out of the woods this week. The burning of the logged off land will start soon from all reports.

The Women's club met on Wednesday of this week with Mrs. Wm. Judd in charge. The ladies all gathered at the community hall and started a new quilt. A pot-luck luncheon was served at noon and the afternoon was spent in sewing.

Bridge Happenings

The Grange meeting Friday evening was held in the schoolhouse, the Grange hall having been completely destroyed in the recent fire. Applications for membership from Donna and Alice Knight, Ernest Bryant and Nell Watson were favorably voted upon. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Miss Constance Knight and Mrs. Elmer Magill.

Mr. and Mrs. Arno Ehrig arrived last week from Los Angeles for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Amanda Ehrig, and brother, Karl.

The M. G. Hiking club enjoyed a hike up the Salmon Gulch road Friday afternoon, with their leader, Mrs. Alex Kelemen, and Frank Kelemen. The club members are Lucile and Lorraine Holmes, Dorothy Brusch, Alice Knight, Cleo Duncan, Genevieve Johnson, Marian Finch, Mary Jean McMullen and Virginia Beckett.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Culver and little daughter, Eleby Ann, Mr. and Mrs. O. Finch, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Culver and Mrs. Harold James attended a state Grange conference at Marshfield Tuesday.

Charles Mack returned home Saturday from a business trip to Portland.

J. L. Ellis gave a very fine sermon at the church here Sunday on "The Lord's Prayer." Misses Lou and Maude Hooton sang a duet entitled, "On My Knees," with organ accompaniment by C. E. Ellison. Mr. Ellis will occupy the pulpit again on Oct. 20, his subject to be "The Greatest Things in the World."

Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Brown and children, Clifford and Bonnie, and Mrs. Mary Brown and grandson, Eugene Fairchild, moved Saturday to North Bend, where Mr. Brown has employment in the mill.

Mrs. A. O. Hooton left on the bus Monday forenoon to spend a few days with Mrs. Alma Hatfield at Roseburg.

A baby son arrived last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Logan Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Nosler and daughter, Patricia, Mrs. Ora Maury and Miss Jennie Lafferty, of Coquille, enjoyed a picnic lunch in the grove at Hooton's Haven Sunday and visited at the Hooton home during the afternoon.

LET ME HAVE A LARGE CAN OF *ANANAS ANANAS

CERTAINLY SIR! DO YOU WANT THE SLICED—?

* Scientific Name for Pineapple

SLICED PINEAPPLE naturally costs more because of the extreme care in selecting perfect slices. For desserts, cottage cheese and other salads, baking, candies, etc.

CRUSHED PINEAPPLE is ideal to flavor ice creams, puddings, for cake fillings, toppings and similar uses.

BROKEN SLICES are the broken portions resulting from imperfect slicing at the cannery. All sound fruit and often more full-ripe than the whole slices.

TID BITS are similar to broken slices but in smaller portions and cut more regular in shape. Popular for fruit salads and cocktail.

A BIT FAR-FETCHED THAT'S TRUE: Your Safeway Grocer probably doesn't know all the scientific names for foods... like ANANAS ANANAS for PINEAPPLE... but he does know what's in the can, its many uses, how many it will serve—and things like that.

Take Ananas Ananas (pardon us, pineapple) for instance—Did you know that canned pineapple is one of the most healthful foods you can eat? It is rich in vitamins A, B and C and because it turns alkaline in the system, it corrects acid condition and helps resist disease. Canned pineapple is ripe pineapple at the peak of perfection because pineapple will not ripen after it is picked like so many other fruits. As for uses, there are very few foods that lend themselves to such a wide variety of dishes! You may serve it for dessert, as a salad, in puddings, for flavoring other foods, or you may bake it with ham... to mention just a few.

When planning your pineapple dishes, bear in mind that there are 4 slices to the No. 1 Flat can, 8 medium size slices to the No. 2 cans and 8 large slices to the No. 2½ can.

Now, see the illustrations to the left... and, of course, note the excellent values in Pineapple at your Safeway Grocery this week-end!
